very sagacious observers think that the cheapest of the high class stocks are Northwest, Great Northern preferred and Northern Pacific. They also believe that the buying in these issues presents a material further advance a little later on.

We cannot emphasize too strongly that investment securities are cheap. It may not positively be predicted that they will not rise lower, but some think when far ahead the Wall-street barometer catches the uplift of coming sunshine, they will go higher and higher.

Railroad Earnings. Twin City, 4th week May $10,000,000. Wabash, April net $15,750,000.

On Wall Street. Charles Head & Co. to R. R. Bongard: After a fair display of strength for the first hour, during which prices generally advanced from 1/2 to 1 point, the market became heavy and prices sagged off...

Developments on Sunday point to a continuance of bullish speculative operations this week. A moderate reaction is about due, but it is expected to be a decline than a general character, owing to the position of the active as seen by us.

Smelling is tipped for an advance. The market is tipped for an advance. The market is tipped for an advance.

The immediate future of the market is somewhat brighter. The present low level of values gives the market a rallying power which is not to be underestimated.

Waldorf Stock Gossip to R.R. Bongard: The further decrease in bank reserves brings monetary conditions into discussion again. Yet no one looks for a serious hardening of rates just now, nor does the reduced surplus reserve lessen confidence in the theory that the stock market is on the up grade.

ter to wait for reactions through the entire list before making commitments on the long side seems quite likely that there will be a let up in exports of gold in the shipment of gold with demand sterling at present quotations. It seems possible that higher rates for loans will soon prevail here, as considerable money will be finding its way into the interior and the banks are losing cash every week.
