THE PRIEST IN POLITICS.

Rev. Father Ryan in Teronto Seems to Have Pronenneed Views.

Rev. Father Ryan of Toronto lectured last Monday on papal infalliblity and the place of the priest in politics. As reported in The Catholic Register, he said: "Personally, I think the less a priest has to do with politics the better. He has quite enough to attend to in the work of his ministry. And he has to be the pastor and minister of religion to men of all parties and so should make enemies of none. But I do protest against any man regustry the right to a priest to haze

SINOD OF TORONTO AND KINGSTON.

SYNOD OF TORONTO AND KINGSTON

I profess with still stronger emphasis against professional politicians and newspaper editors impertmently assuming that they are the only true patriots.

"As to Canadian political parties, the priest who is wise will not trust much to either, but will utilize both, making politicians understand their duty, which is to be honest, faithful servants of the people who elect and pay them."

TO INVESTIGATE THE TRAFFIC.

The United States Coagress Proposes to Be it with $19,000.

Washington, May 13.—Mr. Morse (R. Mass.), from the Committee on Alcoholic Liquor Traffic, reported to the House to-day, with the recommendation that it pass a bill providing for the appointment by the President of a committee of five persons, whose duty it shall be to investigate the al-There are 41,498 Scholars Enrolled.

Rev. Dr. Robertson of Winnipeg made a very enthusiastic and encouraging address on the progress of the mission work in the Northwest, for which he was voted the thanks of the economic, criminal, moral and scientific aspects in connection with pauper ism, crime, social vice, the public health and general welfare of the people, and also to inquire into and take testimony as to the practical results of license and prohibitory legislation for the prevention of intemperance. An appropriation of $10,000 is made to defray the expense of the enquiry. Newburyport, Mass., May 13.—In the Euperior Court to-day a verdict was returned by the judge in the cases arising from the recent Haverhill prize fight, as a result of which Richard Ingraham met his death. Arthur A. Bradley was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter, but not guilty of prizefighting. The mercy of the court was recommended by the judge. Five others, charged with being present and advising and encouraging the fight, were discharged.

The United States and Cuba. Washington, May 13.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations this morning discussed Senator Morgan's joint resolution recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents, but no action was taken, and the sentiments of the members were not disclosed by the discussion. The meeting was not largely attended, and the matter was postponed until next Wednesday.

Washington, May 13.—The action of the President in summoning Alexander W. Terrell, United States Minister to Turkey, from his Texas home to Washington, was not based on any new or serious developments in the Turkish situation. His presence here is desired for purposes of consultation, and the inference is given that the matter concerns an official appointment.

NSPECTION OF THE "CENTURY

This Means Alone Its High Value as a Work of Reference Eest Becomes Apparent-Hundreds Daily Visit The Mail and Empire-Century Headquarters.

The Mail and Empire's distribution of the celebrated Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia has become a veritable iterary and educational event.

literary and educational event.

Everyone who appreciates what is most worthy in the way of books seems anxious to add to their valued possessions the ten magnificent volumes which The Mail and Empire, in co-operation with the Century Co., is able to turn over to readers and their friends, on terms so exceptionally favorable.

The confidence of the people in The Mail and Empire's announcements regarding the work has been extremely grafffying.

It is not desired, however, that those interested should take anything for granted regarding the high value of this great reference library.

It is rather hoped that everyone will call and inspect the volumes, the more critically the better, and for this purpose headquarters have been opened at 28 Adelaide-atreet east, where all are welcome.

The different bindings may also be examined, and full particulars obtained from those in charge.

in appointing an elder moderator was brought up, and after a discussion of some length was sent on to the Gen-mission work in the Northwest, for which he was voted the thanks of the Synod.

A somewhat lengthy report on the Sunday schools was presented by Rev. W. Farquharson. A glance at the report shows the extent of the work of the schools in the bounds of the Synod. There are 41,498 scholars enrolled in 459 schools and ministered to by 4746 officers and teachers. The report was ordered to be transferred to the clerk of the General Assembly.

At 4 o'clock the Synod adjourned to accept the invitation of Manager Burton of the North Shore Navigation Company for a trip around the bay on the steamer City of Midland. On the return trip a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Burton.

Lindsay was chosen for the place of meeting in May, 1897.

At the evening sederunt the committee reports on the books of the different Presbyteries were presented and agreed to. The Synod will probably conclude their labors to-morrow evening.

The Royal Arcanum.
