Dyment, M.P., These and and west sides of Yonge-street from King to Wilton-avenue, was held last night in the rooms of the Retail Merchants' Association, 155 Bay-street, Medical Building, to protest against the large increase made in the assessment of their Yonge-street property. W. B. Rogers presided. The in crease was shown to range all the way vited the Grand Lodge to meet there next year. Toronto and Sault Ste. Marie are from $200 up to $600 per foot, and the all justifiable. The tenants claim that the present rentals are all that the merchants can afford to pay, and the owners say that any additional tax will wipe the earning power of the property right out.

After considerable discussion the follow ing resolution was unanimously carried: "That this meeting recommend that all merchants and property owners on Yongestreet whose assessments have been i street whose assessments have been increased, do enter an appeal against the same at once, and that a committee consisting of Messrs. W. B. Rogers, /R. S. Gourlay, B. Kent, W. Dineen, E. M. Morphy and E. J. Cummings be empowered to prepare a plan to lay before the next meeting, whereby the merchants and property owners can take united action in the matter."

An example of inequality was shown in court house.

The upstairs room in the courtshouse was transformed into a commodious lodge room, with large platform for the grand master and—officers. The Grand Lodge opened this afternoon, with the grand officers and delegates present in full force. The officers are:
