Game With Hamilton Was Postponed Yesterday-Catcher Tree Reports to Manager Keenan - Game Today Begins at 4 o'Clock.

Frank Shaughnessy's Hamilton crew day has the game was postponed in the morning by the London officials. The visitors were all ready to leave, when they received word not to come.

The London players held a practice game in the afternoon, and a large crowd of fans turned out expecting to see Shag's team and the London Tecumsehs in action.

Catcher Tree reported to Manager Keenan will likely use Gilbert in the box this afternoon against the Detroiters. Tree will catch behind the practice game. He has been training with Bill Crystall's Bay City team for the past two weeks. Tree signed two contracts, but was ordered to report to London by President Jackson at the meeting of the Michigan-Ontario Baseball League held Sunday last.

Detroit Cuban Stars will play a three day series beginning this afternoon. The games will be called at 4 o'clock frew time). The Stars put up a first class exhibition of baseball on Tuesday afternoon with the locals, and the London to the constant will have other opportunities to see the Stars on the field again.

Manager Keenan will likely use Gilbert in the box this afternoon against the Detroiters. Tree will catch behind the player Keenan received from the Toronto Leafs, went into the box yesterday and pitched a few innings of good ball. Hill is an outfielder, but the London leader may make a real hurler out of him.

Catcher Frank Hess did not train yesterday, as he has a sore hand which he is taking care of.
