The party ended up at the King street Y. W. C. A. for a self-serve supper, after which they were addressed by Prof. Mel G. Brock of Western University, who outlined the big interscholastic athletic and literary program now being worked out. The address aroused much enthusiasm in its outline of the closer relationship of all schools the program will usher in.

TORONTO, Jan. 9.—In their first appearance at the Toronto Arena, Hamilton's professional hockey team Saturday night defeated St. Patricks Hamilton's professional hockey team Saturday night defeated St. Patricks by 3 to 2, after five minutes' overtime play. The teams were well matched and the game was a good exhibition. St. Patricks seemed to be in better condition than their opponents, but this was not sufficient to depress the scale in their favor. This was the Tigers' third game within a week, Vernon Forbes was in the nets for St. Patricks, and was a vast improvement over Mitchell. Stewart, the Amherst, N.S., player, did not make train connection at Montreal and was not in time for the game.

Hamilton scored twice in the second period, and in the third Dye scored twice for St. Patricks, the second goal coming when only 30 seconds of play remained. The "babe" was temporarily the most popular man in Tesented and parademonium reigned.
