eavy Track and Fields Are Reduced to Half Original

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6.-There was tittle to the program at the Fair Grounds after the scratching was finished. Every event suffered more or less from the blue pencil, which reduced most of the fields to half their original size. Hammock Boy, at 8 to 1, won the first race in a gallop from a field of nine horses, with Lady Leota second. The fifth race resulted in an upset to the talent. Amber Jack, at 15 to 1, won by a good lead over Dry Dollar, at 20 to 1, second, and Padre at 20 to 1, 3. Weather clear, track heavy.

A satisfactory condition of affairs in connection with the club was shown by the report of the recretary. Twenty-six members and non-resident members who were in arrears with their subscriptions had been stricken off the list of membership on the suggestions made at the last general meeting, with the result that the arrears this year were only $512 instead of $1033 as in the previous year.

Extensive alterations to the property of the club house had made the expenditure for the year heavier than usual, with the result that surplus of revenue over expenditure was $12.42 only.

Improvements had also been made in the harbor which had been deepened with the assistance of the government dredge and a better anchorage secured for yachts. Improvements had also been made to the club pier.

A small profit was reported on the gasoline tank which had been installed early in the season. A considerable profit was expected from the same source during the coming season.

TROPICAL FLORIDA

Florida is the Riviera of America. It offers the first outing of the year. It is the summer land of our winter. You may bask in the sunshine of next summer's fashion at the splendid resorts of the East Coast, you may loaf under the orange trees along the Indian River, you may seek the wily tarpon in the sounds, the elusive bass in the lakes and rivers, or shoot in the uplands, or live in a tent. Either course is yours, according to your bent. Florida is not only a land of perennial green and summer sun; it is a land full of life and action. And there is novelty there, too, in picking tropic fruits direct from the trees.

In any event, the Pennsylvania Railroad Fortnight Tour of February 18 is your opportunity. It is under personal escort, and the rate is only $52.10 from Buffalo, including round-trip transportation, and Pullman berth and meals on special train between Washington and Jacksonville. Buffalo patrons will leave on the evening of February 17.

It is a very attractive trip to a very attractive clime. The party is limited. Bookings should be entered at once by addressing B. P. Fraser, P. A. B. D., 307 Main Street, Ellicott Square, Buffalo.
