The horses were unre-mittingly whipped up the entire ascent mittingly whipped up the entire ascent with but one stop, when it was not even in horse nature to go further, and the exhibition was a disgrace to civilization. In conclusion, I am anxious to pay tribute to the many splendidly cared-for working horses of the city, notably those in the service of the Chas. Rogers' Co., but there is also a deplorably large number whose languid gait and hollow sides plainly speak of insufficient food and rest, old age and broken health, dying by inches.

There is surely something to be done for the relief of these noble animals, who show such patient endurance and render such faithful service while unable to speak on their own behalf.

The Leading Ladies.

Among the leading Toronto singers who will sing the leading roles in the performance of the great musical extravaganza of college life, Prof. Napoleon, at the Princess Theatre, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a matinee on Saturday, for the benefit of Western Hospital, are Miss Violet Hunt, Mrs. James Roberts, Misses Helen C. The students of Toronto University spectacle is thoroly a college theme, students, faculty, sports of college life, the inevitable yells and all the other

The plot of the spectacle is clearly defined, and centres about Sagehurst College. Richard Fiske, a student, has neglected his studies and devoted his time to writing a novel, and Professor

Napoleon falls asleep and dreams that the theory is true, assisted by a wonderful wizard, who converts all the old alumni of Sagehurst College into school boys and girls again, and they re-enter college. Inez Fiske, the lord's granddaughter, however, becomes an old woman in their place. They immediately begin all sorts of pranks, bando serenades, Indian masquerades, etc., and the poor professor, himself now a boy also, is driven almost distracted.
He is relieved to awake, and find it all a dream, and to learn that Richard's novel has proved a success.

A SOFT LEATHER

One of the 14"

A horrible thing is coarse, brittle, hard leather, and most of it answers to that description. It rubs the tender feet of the gentler sex into blisters, coms, etc. It will almost blister a horse's hoof.

The Dolly Varden Shoe is made from a soft silken leather. Arduous and costly experiments resulted in "Velvette" Kid. a leather as soft as velvet but as tough and unwear-outable as cowhide. It is not frail and papery, but firm and silky.

The counters and uppers of all Dolly Varden Shoes are made exclusively of this cloth-like leather, which can be found in no other feminine shoe in the world, as we control all rights, while the soles are of oak-tanned cowhide, the pliant and wearing qualities of which are widely known.

The Dolly Varden store will gladly show you this soft shoe, which is as comfortable at the first fitting as at the last wearing. Purchasers or investigators equally welcome. $4.00 to $5.00 in Canada and the States. Every pair Goodyear welted.
