Mr. Landers cited the fact that there an hour the parson-editor kept on saywere 67 bankers and lawyers in the last house who lined up with the railway corporations all the time. He also cited the instances where W. F. Maclean was endeavoring to secure a low-er passenger rate only to be snowed under by the government and receiving no sympathy from the opposition. Mr. Landers said, "Take the G.T.R. two cents a mile on its entire road in the States and three cents in Canada. Americans buying tickets in Detroit for Montreal buy them at two cents a mile, while Canadians buying them just across the line at Windsor to the same Point pay three cents a mile."

The inauguration of the rural mail delivery system took place on Saturday afternoon at the forks, the junction of the Dundas and Ancaster reads, some distance west of the city. Owing to his inability to be present, Rudolph Lemieux comm George Ross of Toronto, chief postoffice superintendent, to open the vice. The first letter was posted by W. O. Sealey, the Liberal candidate for Wentworth, and it was addressed the postmaster-general. In it Mr. ealey congratulated Hon. Mr. Lemix on the progress of his department, particularly in regard to the new sysmi, and thanked him for the honor conferred on Wentworth County installing the first system in that county. Addresses were delivered by Adam Brown, local postmaster; W. O. Sealey, Hon. Thomas Bain, Daniel Reed, M.L.A.; R. A. Thompson, John Ira Flatt, Mayor Moss and others. There were only two prisoners in the cells to-night. A number of drunks were roped in last night, butthey were nearly all bailed out.
