640 ACRES ALBERTA, FOUR MILES from Daysland, on C.P.R.; gently rolling, all open prairie, all fit for crop, half-mile from school, well-settled district, a choice piece of land. Would consider an exchange for few acres and good house near school. Fourteen per 640 ACRES SOUTHERN ALBERTA. all open prairie; in the district where fall wheat grows to perfection; the choice district in the west; English-speaking community and a good class of neighbors. Thirteen per acre.

SOUTHERN ALBERTA BIDS FAIR to be the greatest farming country in America. Farmers are coming in as never before in the history of this country; prices are rising and values increasing. This is warranted on account of the continued bumper fall wheat crops harvested from year to year. Can you imagine land selling at only thirteen to twenty dollars per acre which produces from forty to sixty bushels of number one hard wheat? The early buyer will profit by the spring advance. I have only a few choice sections left. For particulars apply:
