RECRUITING JUMPS WITH NEW YEAR

Total of Men Offering Nearly Double of Previous Week.

AMNESTY EXTENDED

Absentees Are Given Until Mid-January to Return to Their Regiments.

Three hundred and sixteen volunteers for active service came forward for enlistment in Toronto during the "five-day" week just ended, a total of 143 of them being accepted for military duty. Both the number offering and accepted was a marked increase as compared with any recruiting week during the two preceding months.

On Saturday 37 men offered and 14 were accepted. The Special Service Co. obtained three new men, and 255th Battalion, Army Service Corps, Medical Corps, Signallers, two each; Engineers, Skilled Railway Employes, and Welland Canal Guard, each one.

Men absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Forces have been granted an extension of time to surrender, the Annesty Act's authority now is good until Jan. 15. The official announcement states:

"That owing to existing circumstances, such as the removal of the absentees to distant and out of the way parts of Canada and the United States, the proclamation in their behalf could not soon reach many of the absentees, and they would not be apprised in time to enable them to surrender by Dec. 15, therefore, the time limit for surrendering under the terms of the proclamation is extended to Jan. 15, 1917."

New Classes Formed.

Large N.C.O. classes are being established by the Toronto militia regiments. It is thought in some quarters that this is a step foreshadowing the putting into force of the Militia Act, or something, perhaps, similar to it. It is also rumored that the government will shortly grant permission for officers of the militia regiments to attend courses at the schools of instruction.

The 'Scots and men of the 70th Battery, Exhibition Camp, gave a dinner on Sunday afternoon, and invited as guests Mayor Church, Lieut.-Col. Arnold, Lieut. S. Jordan of Kingston, Lieut. Gordon Balfour, commander of the battery, and other officers. The messrooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion, and a splendid dinner served by the wives and friends of the men. Speeches and song kept up the event most of the afternoon.

The names of 48 soldiers were posted at the week-end in district orders as "struck off" the strength of their units on account of their being "illegally absent." In adition, twenty-two soldiers are discharged on account of physical unfitness.

Peel Regiment Does Well.

The good total of 20 accepted recruits were obtained by the 234th Peel Battalion in last week's recruiting campaign. Yesterday the battalion held a church parade to St. John's Anglican Church, West Toronto. The 234th's fine skating and hockey rinks are now in operation. Every Saturday night from 7.30 to 10 o'clock the public will be permitted to attend the rink. On the first three days of this week the unit is putting on entertainments in the Beaver Theatre for the purpose of strengthening the battalion's funds.

Lieut. S. B. Harris of the 90th Regiment, assistant officer in command at the bayonet fighting and physical training instructional courses, has been detailed for duty with the third and fourth brigades, with headquarters at Hamilton.

Pte (Dr.) Alfred Bowes of the base hospital, who died on Friday of pneumonia, was laid to rest in Prospect Cemetery on Saturday afternoon. Full military honors were accorded him. Capt. (Rev.) A. MacLuarg conducted the funeral service. Eighty soldiers from the base hospital acted as the escort.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED.

The complaint of A. Weissman, that his restaurant at 191 Queen street west, was broken into on New Year's morning by soldiers, will be investigated by the police. The window, he says, was smashed in and tobacco and pastry was taken. His loss, says Weissmann, was $200.

BRITISH FORCE WILL INVADE PALESTINE

pushed on beyond there, how far is not known.

Good Chance of Winning.

The British are today further east of Suez than at any time since the war broke out. The czar's army in the north has been reinforced, and the Tigris army has been reorganizing and is pushing up the valley. Everything points to excellent chances of success, if a combined effort from three directions is made against the Turks.

The Turkish censorship has closed down tightly on all news from Palestine, particularly from the Lebanon district, where it is evident preparations are being made to resist such a move.

Djemil Pasha, governor of Turkey in Asia, has cut himself free of control from the central government at Constantinople, according to official information. This action, it is understood, was taken with the consent of Enver Pasha and Talaat Bey, who reserved to themselves the direction of affairs west of the straits.

It is suspected on excellent grounds that there is not the most perfect harmony between the governments of the two divisions. Part of the trouble that the United States Government has had with Turkey has been due to this division of authority. It has been found impossible to get relief for Americans in Smyrna thru the central government at Constantinople the American ambassador has been told that he must apply to Djemil Pasha direct.

In spite of the fact that this condition has produced great irritation between the United States and Turkey, the Turkish Government has been unable to correct it. Djemil Pasha is apparently an absolute dictator at Smyrna, and the United States has been forced to appeal when American rights in that region were infringed.

Whether this condition reflects division of sentiment in the Turkish Government as to the war policy cannot be made from the information available here. It is considered more than likely, however, that such is the case.

Turkey alone of the central powers has no national ambitions that can be gathered by victory in this war. The Young Turk government, of which Enver Pasha, Talaat Bey and Djemil Pasha are the chiefs, is working thru Germany only to keep together what is left of the Turkish Empire.

The prospects of a separate peace between Turkey and the allies, therefore, are considered not altogether visionary. It is even possible that Turkey could be induced to turn against her present allies if convinced that they were using her as a catspaw.

Germans have indicated more than once here in Washington that Turkey probably would be the great sufferer among the central powers if the war should end in a draw. On the other hand Turkey, by changing sides, might come out of it advantageously at the expense of Bulgaria.

Turkey at the present time has lost much territory to the allies, and has gained none in return. On the basis, therefore, of military accomplishment alone she is not entitled to great consideration from the quadruple alliance.

Sold Borrowed Clothes to Pay Employes Their Wages

Samuel Lipman, 122 West Adelaide street, was taken into custody late Saturday afternoon, on a warrant charging him with the theft of 40 children's coats from D. Fabriac. Lipman conducted a clothing factory on Elizabeth street, and is charged by Fabriac with having borrowed the goods and sold them without paying him any money. Lipman says that he sold them in order to pay ihs employes their wages.

At the battle of Zillebeke he won the D.S.O. for leading the attacking line of his battalion, altho wounded in the head.

Lieut.-Col. Wm. R. Turnbull, who arrived at his home, 42 Ontario street, Hamilton, on Saturday, to convalesce from wounds received at the front in August, was second in command of the 19th Battalion, while it was at Exhibition Camp, but succeeded to the command when the unit went overseas. Lieut. George T. Scroggie, son of George E. Scroggie, 24 Starr avenue, and brother of James Scroggie, is mentioned in General Sir Douglas Haig's report. He went overseas with the Eaton Machine Gun Battery, being transferred to this unit from the 19th Toronto Battalion. In his letters home he had made no mention of any brilliant action, but has been in a number of stiff encounters with the enemy. He attended Parkdale Collegiate Institute and Toronto University. For five years prior to the war he was a member of "K" Company, Q.O.R. Previous to enlistment he was with the Central Loan and Savings Company.

Capt. Charles E. Kilmer, of 171 Crescent road, who was invalided home five weeks ago, is now mentioned by General Haig for distinguished service. He went overseas with the 19th Battalion and was wounded after ten months' service on the firing line. Capt. Kilmer was educated at St. Andrew's College and the School of Practical Science. He is a Q.O.R. man and an active member of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

CITY HALL PRESS MEN DINE WITH ALDERMEN

Unique Dinner Has Amusing Features and a Serious Presentation.

The friendly relations existing between the mayor and aldermen and the newspaper men, in spite of occasional bickerings, found exemplification on Saturday evening at the banquet, held at the Carls-Rite Hotel, under the auspices of the city council of 1916 and the members of the municipal press gallery. It was attended by practically all members of the old and new council, chief civic officials and newspaper men who have been or are associated with civic affairs. Mayor Church presided. The proceedings, which followed the only toast, that to "The King," were of a unique character. In reality it was a burlesque on the proceedings of the city council. Ald Maguire was appointed chairman of the committee and succeeded in keeping things running merrily. Mock presentations were made by Mayor Church, Controllers Foster, O'Neill and Cameron, and special medals were handed to aldermen defeated at the recent election.

Perhaps the greatest joke of the evening was the mock court-martial of Capt. Joe Thompson for having "deserted public life without the consent of the people." After his arrest he was arraigned before Jacob Cohen, J.P. Evidence in support of the charge having been given he was found "guilty." The punishment meted out was the presentation of a gold-mounted cane, suitably engraved, the gift of the members of the press gallery.

An excellent musical program was rendered by Ald. MacGregor, Jules Brazil, Harvey Lloyd, and others. The numbers included topical songs written for the occasion, in which those present were freely caricatured. The decorations of the banquet room resembled the streets during election time, as a rare collection of election cards issued by candidates at various periods during the past 25 years, adorned the walls.

THE CHERNIAVSKY TRIO IN TORONTO.

The Cherniavsky Brothers, the famous trio of musicians, who, in their recent tour in the northwest, captured music-lovers everywhere, will give a concert in Toronto this week. When in Winnipeg, so great was their success it became necessary to engage another hall and hold an overflow concert. All through the west, as will be the case in Toronto, a Heintzman & Co. piano was used exclusively

PREPARING FOR BIG CAMPAIGN

Organization for Patriotic Fund Appeal is a Week Ahead.

DECORATE BUILDING

Will Handle Subscriptions Rapidly at Old Nordheimer Offices.

In two or three days most of the members of the campaign committee of the Patriotic Fund's $2,500,000 appeal to Toronto will have settled down to hard work in the campaign headquarters. Organization is advanced a good week ahead of former campaigns. Headquarters building has been decorated and arranged in an inspiring way; it looks as if a stage manager had set out to secure fitting "atmosphere," and had accomplished the task successfully.

Four floors have been fitted up in the former Nordheimer Building at 15 King street east. The ground floor is set with counters for cash subscriptions and as a public room, with desks for the campaign committee men, the Rotary Club and the 50,000 Club. The women's committee has a very attractive office at the rear of the ground floor, from which will be controlled the activities of the thousands of women workers under Mrs. Plumptre. The second floor will be a roomful of dynamic energy. Here the team captains and their three or four hundred hustlers will hold sway.

On Third Floor.

The departments of system, accounting and cashiering will use the third floor, and the fourth is being set up as the lunchroom for the team workers who will meet at noon on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and at six o'clock on the last of the campaign days, which begin on January 23.

A week ago the "stage manager" took over the building, which was loaned for the campaign thru the kindness of the Nordheimer estate and the Toronto General Trusts Corporation. In that week he has installed a lighting system, righted the heating arrangements, decorated the four floors, and put in all the furniture needed. The telephones are being installed now. The number given by Mr. K. J. Dunstan of the Bell Telephone Co. is Phone 7,500,000.
