Many Important Matters Laid Over for Week-Pay Employe Full Amount.

In a thirty-minute session, the shortest this year, if not in many years, the board of control yesterday got thru with considerable detail business, holding important matters over until next Tuesday when it is expected a full board will be present.

Controller O'Neill, and Controller Cameron, who is in Chicago, were the cameron, who is in Chicago, were the despatch from Basie to The J ness, holding important matters over absentees and questions relative to the policy of the board and to various works were held in abeyance, in order that the opinion of all may be ascer-

The question of an interlocking device on the grade on Lansdowne avenue was one of the matters postponed, also the consideration of tenders for also the consideration of tenders for certain supplies.

It was decided to pay Private T. Montgomery, an employe who enlisted before getting the permission of the head of the department, the amount he would be entitled to had he observed the regulations. This is a special case and does not constitute a precedent.

Latest Means That Cross Seats Have Been Rejected For Use on Street Cars.

In a letter to the board of control yesterday, Works Commissioner Harris dealt with the confusion which has arisen over the many orders issued by the Ontario Board regarding the type of car to be used by the Toronto Street Railway Company in Toronto. He explained the steps which have beer taken and draws attention to the fact that the latest order means that the board has rejected cross-seated cars in favor of the longitudinal seats.

Stirring Address From Throne at Prorogation of British Parliament.

NO PREMATURE PEACE

King's Message Regarded Answer to Overtures of Germany.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—Parliament was prorogued this afternoon by King den has arrived in Switzerland, to re- George. The address from the throne, closing the historic session, concluded with these words:
"We shall not lay down our arms until we have vindicated the cause which carries with it the future of The King's emphatic words were regarded by his hearers as an answer to Germany's expressed willingness to discuss peace terms "compatible with the dignity and safety of the empire. Firm Determination.

The speech of the King probably was the briefest on record on such an oc-casion, but his references to the war were regarded as highly important. "For eighteen months my navy and army have been engaged in concert with brave and steadfast allies, in defending our common liberties and the public law of Europe against unprovoked encroachments by the enemy,"

"I am sustained by the determination of my people at home and overseas to carry our flag to a final decisive victory

Will Vindicate Cause. "In this struggle, forced upon us by those who hold in light esteem the liberties and covenants which we regard as sacred, we shall not lay down our arms until we have vindicated the cause which carries with it the future of civilization.

"I rely with confidence upon the loyal and united efforts of all my subjects, which have never failed me, and I pray that Almighty God may give us His blessing."

The King thanked the house of com-mons for the ungrudging liberality with which it has provided for the heavy demands of the war. The speech was read by Baron Buckmaster of Chedington, the lord high chancellor.

MEMBER FOR TYRONE DEAD.

LONDON, Jan. 27.-Andrew L. Horner, unionist member of parliament for south Tyrone, died yesterday at Crewe. ed on the county council today and asked for a vote of $8000 a month to keep up patriotic work in the county.

FELL FROM STREET CAR.

While standing on the rear vestibule of a Dundas car, on Dundas street at 7.30 last evening, Mrs. Emma Forret, 333 Western avenue, was thrown to the pavement, receiving a slight scalp wound. It is stated that she was at-tempting to get off the car and the sud-den joit of the car threw her to the street. She was attended by Dr. Scott and later removed to her home.
