GOOD PLAYS AND SIX VAUDEVILLE NOVELTIES

Strong Popular Price Attraction For Opera House Next Week

The popular Young-Adams Company, headed by H. Wilmot Young and Margie Adams, comes to the Opera House on Monday next for a limited engagement, presenting a line of standard comedies and dramas. Two good plays will be presented each week, changing on Mondays and Thursdays. The engagement opens with a presentation of the big New York success. "The Great John Ganton." a business comedy drama written by J. Hartley Manners, who also wrote that best of all plays, "Peg O' My Heart."

"The Great John Ganton" is a dramatization of the celebrated novel, "Ganton and Co." which ran into several editions and was accounted one of the "best sellers." This play will be offered on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee, followed by a production of "St. Elmo," for the last half of the week.

As an additional feature, the company offers six good vaudeville noveltles at each performance, making a continuous programme.

Miss Adams is said to possess the finest wardrobe of any actress on the stage today, carrying several trunks filled with the latest Parisian models and takes pride in the fact that she never wears the same gown twice during an engagement.

New England League Changes.

Louis Pieper, who will manage the Lynn team in the New England League next season, has made a proposition to W. W. Sargent, president and superintendent of the Fitchburg and Leominster Street Railway Co. and other business men to take over the franchise of the Haverhill team, now controlled by Daniel Noonan of Lawrence. He said the franchise and players could be purchased for $3,200.
