

Social Notes of Interest

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. John O. Sheppard on last Friday evening when members of the Coburg street Christian church tendered them a novelty shower in honor of the first anniversary of their wedding. Many beautiful gifts were received testifying to the popularity in which they are held. A very pleasant evening was spent, at the close of which dainty refreshments were served and the happy gathering dispersed leaving every good wish for many happy years to come.

Mrs. Frank Cano, who has been visiting here from Montreal, with Mr. and Mrs. J. Lupton McAvity, Hazen street, will leave this evening for her home, after a pleasant visit among her former home friends, by whom she has been greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Cano was at home with Mrs. McAvity yesterday afternoon, when many took advantage of the opportunity to call upon her and bid her good bye.

Mrs. Walter C. Allison received for the first time since her marriage at her residence, "Woodside," Rothesay, yesterday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock. The house was pictureque in its decorations of yellow chrysanthemums, placed artistically and adding to the glow of the dancing wood fire on the shining brass andirons. Mrs. Allison wore a gown of powder blue canton crepe, beaded prettily and trimmed on the sleeves and draperies with chin-chilla fur. She wore a lovely string of pearls. Mrs. William S. Allison, who received with her, was gowned in a handsome ruse georgette, heavily beaded. The dining room was a bower of blooms, the table being centered with yellow and rose chrysanthemums, with small vases at intervals among the dainty confections in cake and sweet tarts that were served to the guests by fashionably gowned young girls, friends of Miss Helen Allison, daughter of Mr. Walter Allison. H. F. Puddington and Mrs. John H. McIntyre presided over the tea and coffee and Miss Donville and Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Jr., replenished. Mrs. M. A. Pooler and Mrs. Alex. Wilson served the ices; Miss Puddington and Miss Dorothy Purdy ushered the guests.

Those serving were Miss Marion Henderson, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Gertrude Ewing, Miss Betty Thomson, Miss Annette Holly and Miss Florence Puddington. Little Miss Octavia McIntyre, in a pretty brown velvet beaded frock, and little Miss Louise Allison, niece of the bride, in a dainty white frock with floral embroidery, opened the door as the guests entered the house.

Among the many who went out from the city were Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Mrs. W. I. Fenton, Mrs. Frank Tilton, Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. W. A. Harrison, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, Mrs. G. Heber Vroom, Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Mrs. Howard P. Robinson, Miss Laura Robinson, Mrs. C. J. Coster, Mrs. W. E. Bowman, Mrs. A. P. Peterson, Mrs. W. A. Henderson, Mrs. Harry C. Rankine, Mrs. H. Mrs. A. C. Currie introduced her debutante daughter, Miss Mabel Currie into society yesterday afternoon at her reception 107 Leinster street, with a reception that was largely attended and particularly noted for its exquisite decorations. There were 174 guests invited. Notes in different shades of pink were used in profusion, with many flowers on the same shades banked about the reception room. The tea table was centered with the roses in a silver basket set on a plate glass mirror, which gave a lovely reflection. Pink candles and pink icing on the small cakes made the table temptingly dainty. The debutante was pretty in a girl.

One thing that we never stop emphasizing about our children's shoes is "careful fitting." Of course there must be durability—but while our good shoes give long wear, the fact that they're shaped right is still more important, for growing feet must have perfect support.

EXPERIMENT AT Y. W. C. A. CENTRE

The Y. W. C. A. this week is trying a new experiment. It has opened a buffet in the recreation centre at which it will serve light meals for women and girls who are to have the privilege of the use of the recreation centre. It was felt by the members of the board that there must be many girls and women in the city who would welcome a place where they could enjoy recreational privileges and have a nourishing meal at low cost. The buffet was opened yesterday but the patrons were lacking and if it appears that the girls and women of the city have no need for the new enterprise it will be abandoned after the close of the trial week. The new department was not intended to be a revenue producing enterprise but it was believed it was something that would be heartily welcomed by the girls and women.

FAIRVILLE NOTES.

Miss Isabelle Wilnot, of Salisbury, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dane Crosby, Fairville, has returned home. Miss Carrie Wilnot, of Fall River, Mass., who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. B. Wilnot, of Salisbury, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dane Crosby. She left for Boston last evening, accompanied by Miss Mary Foster, of Salisbury, who will visit Miss Wilnot in Fall River. The young women were accompanied by little Miss Mildred Crosby, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, who will visit Mrs. H. B. Durkee, of West Newton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gould and little son Angus, are visiting for a few weeks in Richibucto, the guests of Sheriff and Mrs. B. J. Johnson.

Mrs. Annie Cochrane, of Annapolis Royal, N. S., who has been visiting Mrs. Oliver Stinson, has gone to Hampton to visit other friends. She will return to Fairville before going home.

The Sewing Circle of Baxter Lodge, L. O. B. A., has begun its winter activities, holding a largely attended meeting on Tuesday evening of this week in their hall, Church street, Fairville.

SCOUTS INVESTED.

There were 11 Scouts invested as Tenderfoots of the newly formed St. George's troop last night when Harry Lister, district commissioner, and L. L. Johnson, district secretary, were present and conducted the proper ceremonies. Scout Master N. Lambert and Assistant Scoutmaster D. W. Colwell, took the Scout officers promise also and the new troop is now well on the way to become one of the most flourishing in the city. Some members of St. Jude's troop were present and in all 18 boys were assembled for the ceremonies. Mr. Lister gave a very fine demonstration of knot tying and explained to the boys what the Tenderfoot test implied. Games and songs passed the remainder of the evening very pleasantly. Amongst those present were Rev. W. H. Sampson, W. W. Dymohoe and W. Sanderson, Scout committee men; H. Tapley, who has given the Scouts much assistance, and S. G. Olive, who is St. George's Rover Scout Master.

A recent census shows that of the 2,964 counties in the United States, only 184 have a library of 5,000 or more volumes.

ARRANGE FOR SCOTTISH NIGHT

Arrangements for the Scottish night to be held on Dec. 1, were made at a meeting of the committee of St. Andrew's Society held yesterday afternoon with C. B. Allan, president, in the chair. For the last two years the local society has celebrated St. Andrew's day by holding a banquet and this year it will hold a Scottish night instead, having a program of music and speeches to precede a dance. The celebration will be held in Pythian Castle and the members may bring guests. Various committees in connection with the celebration were appointed yesterday.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, of Clover Valley, were given a delightful surprise on the occasion of their fifth anniversary of their wedding. Thanksgiving Day, in honor of which several friends and relatives assembled at their home to celebrate the event. Many of the guests motored from a distance and enjoyed games, music and dancing. An old-fashioned barn dance was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon were presented a substantial purse of gold, the presentation being made by Hilding Bartell. "Be With You Till We Meet Again" was sung before the guests left a home. Many good wishes for health and happiness were intermingled with the greetings for the bride and groom of 54 years ago.
