Nine Game World Series.
Chicago, Sept. 2.—Because of the unprecedented demand for World's series seats this fall the National Baseball Commission reported that the series be increased to nine instead of the usual seven. The proposal was sent tonight to the club owners of the American and National Leagues for immediate ratification. Under the proposed plan, the rival clubs would share in the receipts of the first five games instead of the first four, as in former years. The victorious team would have to take five of the nine contests to win the world's championship.
Heretofore the championship was decided when one of the clubs won four of the seven games. The players would divide their apportioned share of the five game receipts on sixty and forty per cent basis, sixty per cent going to the winning club.

All-Cape Breton Team in Tie.
Halifax, Sept. 2.—The All-Cape Breton baseball team played Stellarton today the match ending in a tie, 5 to 5, ten innings being played. The game was stopped on account of darkness. They will play Springhill tomorrow and probably be at Amherst on Thursday. A day will be spent in New Brunswick and on Saturday they will come to Halifax where they will meet the best team that can be put on the diamond here.

THE KENNEL
Arranging for Show.
An important meeting of the N. B.
Kennel Club will be held tonight in the club rooms to complete arrangements for the coming show. Indications are now that this year's show will be the largest and best ever held by the club.
The show opens on the 10th, and entries will close on Tuesday next, the 9th.

THE TURF.
Postponement at Hartford.
Hartford, Conn., Sept. 2.—Rain caused postponement of the grand circuit races here today and four events will be put on tomorrow, the two-year-old trot, 2:06 pace, 2:08 trot and the 2:06 trot. The Charter Oak stake will be raced on Thursday.

Veteran Turfman Wins at Presque Isle.
Presque Isle, Sept. 2.—Aroostook speed club two of the three races on the card for the start off day of the northern Maine fair which had fine weather and 500 more people on the first day of last year. The sensation of the day was the win of the veteran turfman, Scott Locke, all the way from Concord (N. H.), with his fast little trotting mare, Myleaf who cleaned up the home talent in the 2:28 trot in three straight. Bravos won his race after "dropping" the first heat and Peter Setzer had the speed of the 2:30 pace.

TRAP SHOOTING.

Shooting at Yarmouth.
The full list of events in which the local trapshooters participated in the Guides' Sports at Yarmouth on Saturday shows some very creditable performance by the St. John team. J. L.
McAvity getting first place in two events and Messrs. Warren and Berry also figuring in the honor column. The full scores in the team shoot for the trophy show a slight difference from the scores as first reported, the Yarmouth club's winning margin being eighteen instead of two. The summary of the events is as follows:

Team Shoot, 50 Birds Per Man.
St. John—Yarmouth—

LACROSSE.

New Westminster Wins Cup.
Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 2.—New Westminster won the Minto cup and the professional lacrosse championship of the Pacific coast yesterday, when they defeated Vancouver 3 to 0, and took the scheduled series by 7 to 5.

BASKETBALL.

Rainbows Win Again.
The basketball game on the South End diamond last evening resulted in a victory for the Rainbows over the Pats.
The score was ten to four. This is the third successive victory for the Rainbows.

AQUATIC.

Miss Driscoll Won.
A competition for a silver medal offered by William Hawker for the best exhibition of floating was held yesterday afternoon at the Marble Cove swimming scows. Three young ladies had entered for the contest. Miss Edna Driscoll, of Rodney street, West End, Miss Constance Carney and Miss Hatch. Whatever position was assumed the start had to be maintained until time was up. Miss Driscoll changed her position and thereby under the rules governing the contest was the winner. Some objection was raised, and Miss Driscoll, when asked by the judges said she had not understood the one position must be maintained and Miss Carney, with good spirit offered to have the contest over again. This time it was decided that the one making the best showing for one minute would win and the judges decided in Miss Driscoll's favor.

Only one contest took place between pupils of the North End and West End scows. This was a hundred yards dash, the entries being A. Ready, representing the West Side, and Fred Bryant, of the North End. The race was won by Mr.
Ready, the time being: Mr. Ready, 1:08;
Mr. Bryant, 1:07.

THE RING.

London, Sept. 2.—Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight champion, knocked out Eddie McGorty, of Oshkosh (Wis.), in the seventeenth round of their scheduled twenty-round bout at the Olympia tonight.

LADY DECIES OPENS HER HOME AS HOTEL

British Woman Gives all a Chance to Associate With Nobility—Has a Record For "Fads"

London, Sept. 3.—It is now possible for anyone to become the guest of a real live peeress—for a consideration.
For those who live outside Debutts' exclusive circle week-ends with the nobility and gentry are not easy to come by, but class barriers are gradually breaking down, and it is Gertrude Lady Decies who has struck this shrewd blow at the conventions.

She has turned her country house at Sunningdale, Berkshire, England, into a comfortable residential hotel, the Scotwood Golf Hotel, where at three guineas a head all and sundry, prince, profiteer and publican, may stay with her lady-ship from Saturday to Monday.

There is no dissimbling about it. Her name will be on the bill, "Proprietress, Gertrude Lady Decies, tennis, croquet and clock golf, cigars and cigarettes." Beneath her coronet Lady Decies (who is not American, but a sister of the late Sir John Willoughby of Jameson's Raid fame), carries an active business brain, which is forever leading her into fresh and unusual activities.

Years ago it was prizefighter, blue Persians and Angoras, and the pots and medals she won would take a lot of moving. After the cats came the dogs, and no Crufts Show was complete without a display of her ladyship's blue-blooded Pekingeses.

Turned to Real War Work.
Then came the war, and these frivolous things and sports which Lady Decies went nursing. Not putting flowers in vases or cooing over convalescent soldiers, but real nursing.

Over by a shell and suffered severe concussion. Next with Dr. Elsie Inglis, where cholera at last sent her home.

But not to her cats and dogs. Habbits were the next venture, an attempt to start rabbit breeding for wounded soldiers with the object of capturing the German trade in furs.

Now comes the hotel, to be run under her ladyship's personal supervision. It has just been opened and already the business is booked up to the end of September.

Scotswood is a modern house standing in forty acres of beautiful grounds.
There are Japanese gardens, lawns, pinewoods, lily ponds and a most shady and sentimental "Lovers' Walk," with only the blackbirds for eavesdroppers.

And when these rural delights pall there is a gramophone in the writing room with a box full of the jazziest kind of records.

At present there are only seventeen bedrooms, accommodating twenty-two persons, but if the venture is a success a new wing is to be added.

Early Risers Can Pick Open Eggs.
All of the vegetables, fruit, milk and butter will come from the model farm in the grounds, and early rising guests who like their eggs fresh will be able to go out and choose them while the cackling is still going on.

Lady Decies herself is to live in a tiny cottage close to the hotel, from which she will manage the whole affair.
"All the comforts of home without any of its discomforts," is how her lady-ship describes it. "Radiators, central heating, billiard table, bridge and perfect treasure of a chef. And all within ten minutes of Sunningdale station."

There are four golf courses within walking distance of the hotel, and hunting with four packs of hounds in the neighborhood.

Judging by her tariff, Lady Decies is an ideal housewife. She gives you a cup of tea in bed for twelve cents, a fire in your sitting room for sixty cents, a hot bath for twenty cents and a fireproof safe free of charge.
The charge a day is $5 a person, with electric light and bootcleaning thrown in, or you can board with her ladyship for $85 a week with no allowance made for occasional absences."

MISSION OUTING DELIGHTFUL.
The City Mission held a very enjoyable picnic on Labor Day on the grounds of the Edith Avenue Mission Hall, East St. John. The scholars met at the City Mission, Brussels street, at one o'clock and were conveyed to the scene of the festivities by motor trucks. The afternoon was spent in amusements of all kinds, sports and races for both young and old. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches, tea and coffee were served in the mission hall. The outing was a great success, every one having a good time.
Miss Alberta Morrison, assisted by Rev.
W. W. Howes, A. E. Whelpley and many of the mission workers, had charge of the picnic.

QUEEN ANNE RIFLE FOUND IN LONDON

Earliest Rifle Known to Have Been Made in England

London, Sept. 3.—There is likely to be a revival of the one-time hotly fought question as to whether the British only learned their art of rifle shooting after their experience of the deadly shooting of the backwoodsmen in the War of Independence.

A rifle said to have been made during the reign of Queen Anne by a master gunsmith in London, is the earliest known to have been made in England, and it is also the earliest known English breach-loading flintlock rifle.

The weapon is a long, slightly bell-mouthed rifle made in London by a master gunsmith named William. It is a solid silver butt-plate, carved silver escutcheons and sideplates, and is loaded from the breech by uncuswing the trigger-guard. The rifle must have been made between 1700 and 1720.

A certain amount of interest attaches to the discovery of the rifle. The owner, a well-known collector and authority on firearms, bought it for a few shillings in a curiosity shop because he saw it was a breach-loader of early pattern. Not until he had carried it home and cleaned it thoroughly did he discover that all the mounts were of solid silver and that the piece was actually a Queen Anne rifle.

As the only rifle known in England till 1775 were imported continental arms the discovery of an indubitable Queen Anne rifle made in London and bearing proof marks of the London Gunmakers' Company was a matter of considerable surprise.

The following day he went to a well known arm and firearms dealer in Mo-nborn and told him of his find. The dealer suggested that a breaching Queen Anne rifle was an impossibility, "I thought so too," said the collector, "but it is pure Queen Anne, just as much as this pistol."

He leaned forward and picked up an old silver mounted cannon barrelled pistol that lay on the dealer's desk. "What do you want for this?" said the collector, examining the pistol.

The dealer said so many pounds, and the collector wrote out a cheque at once.
By this extreme degree of coincidence the pistol was the companion piece to the rifle, and was signed by the same maker and decorated in the same style.

The rifle is of extreme interest to experts, as it has a folding aperture back sight, identical in principle with modern aperture sights. Its interest to historians will be more so owing to the date placed upon it.

THIEVES GET IN AND STEAL $70,000 GEMS

Enter Summer Place at Asbury Park and Get Jewels

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 3.—The summer home of Joseph Paterno in Allen-hurst, N. J., a contractor of New York, was entered early in the day and jewels to the value of about $70,000 stolen. The winter residence of the Paternos is in the Riverdale, N. Y.

Servants told Mrs. Paterno that they heard no sound in the house during the night. Mrs. Paterno had removed the jewels from a safe deposit vault in the Merchants National Bank and wore them at a masked ball at the Allenhurst Hotel, and had intended to wear them at another ball at Deal Beach Inn.

Mr. Paterno said that while the money value of the jewels was about $70,000, the sentimental value was priceless, as he began giving the jewels to Mrs. Pat-erno during their engagement days, and continued to give them up to the present time.

The stolen gems include a diamond and sapphire, containing 125 to 130 diamonds, valued at the time he bought them as $18,000; several diamond dinner rings; a three stone ring, a large carat solitaire diamond ring, a bracelet studded with diamonds, and a lavalliere.

Mr. Paterno declared he had faith in his servants, most of whom he brought with him from New York. He said, however, that he had had trouble with other servants, and had discharged them.

The police have advanced the theory that the thieves may have read an announcement that Mr. Paterno had taken out a $1,000,000 insurance policy and ac-cided on the ground that the Paterno home would be a good field for their operations.
