DIVIDED HIS MONEY THINKING HE HAD DIED WITHOUT WILL

Matter of Nathaniel Shepperd's Estate Came up in Probate Court Today

In the probate court the matter of the estate of Nathaniel Shepperd, carpenter, came up. By his will he gives to Rev. R. P. McKim the sum of $50 and the real estate to his sister Mrs. Eliza Dunlop, in trust to be used for the benefit of his mother, Mrs. Louisa Shepperd, of Poole's Island, Newfoundland, and nominates Rev. R. P. McKim as executor. Both witnesses to the will being theological students at Wesley College and they were issued by Rev. T. R. O'Meara, the principal of the college, to the will. There is no real estate.

The deceased, before his death which took place on September 5 last, withdrew from the Savings Bank here his money and went on a visit to his former home at Poole's Island where he died and subsequently it is believed that what money he had with him was divided among his relatives at Poole's Island, they being under the impression that he died intestate. The estate which is left here consists of an amount which is to come from the Carpenters' Union, some $300. Messrs Hanington & Hanington are proctors.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BANQUET.
In the league-room of Carleton Methodist church last evening a happy gathering assembled when the committee of management and the workers of the Sunday school sat about a banquet table loaded with good things by the ladies of the school. It was prettily decorated with cut flowers. After a dainty but substantial supper a few hours were spent in the discussion of Sunday school work. Rev. H. E. Thomas, pastor of the church, presided, and gave a short address, as did Alfred Bunley, school superintendent; Enoch Thompson, and Mr. Magee, superintendent of the Wesley Memorial Sunday school, of Moncton. The gathering was a pronounced success, and is expected to be productive of much good.

A HAPPY GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anderson, of South Bay, were agreeably surprised last evening when friends called at their home and presented to them many useful articles of household goods. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have been married only a month, and their friends wished to assist them in their home warming. Among the presentations made were a handsome parlor suit, and other parlor furnishings. The presentations were made by H. B. Allingham and both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson replied. Speeches were made by Dr. Ruddock, James Lowell and Councillor Donovan, refreshments were served and a programme of dances was enjoyed.

WEDDING THIS MORNING

The paragonage of the Portland Methodist church was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning when the pastor, Rev. H. D. Marr, united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Bright of Carleton, Newfoundland, and Jordon H. Brown of Upper Gagetown. The wedding took place at 6:30 o'clock. The bride was handsomely attired in a dress of blue satin with lace trimmings and wore a large white picture hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lena Bright, who wore a cream tulle suit with lace trimmings. The groom was supported by John Green.

After the wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Peckham, in Moore street, aunt of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the steamer Major for Upper Gagetown, where they will reside. The bride's going away dress was of blue serge, with a large picture hat to match. Many handsome presents were received by the bride and groom.

WATER FRONT NOTES

It is expected that the new tugboat Neptune will be in commission the first next week. No disposition has been made as yet of the hull of the old Neptune.

It has been decided to take the bucket and dipper off one of the four screws of the dredge New Brunswick, which are ashore near Hampton, N. S. This screw is located nearer than the others to Hampton. For the present no effort will be made to get any of the screws off shore. A further examination has shown them to be in a pretty bad condition.

AUTO ACCIDENT BRINGS FIRST SOUND FROM DUMB BOY

Further Particulars of Fatality in Which Dr. Cass and His Wife Met Death

On Monday the Times published news of the death of Dr. and Mrs. James Cass in an automobile accident in Stoneham, Pennsylvania. The sad news came to a brother of Dr. Cass in Sackville.

Further particulars, received yesterday, are that the automobile was crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks when a locomotive came along and struck the car. Dr. and Mrs. Cass were instantly killed.

Their eight-year old son Fred, who rode in the machine with his parents, was hurt fifty feet, but was not severely hurt. Until the accident he had never uttered a sound in his life, but as he scrambled from a ditch and saw his dead father and mother lying near the wrecked automobile he screamed several times for help. Physicians now believe that he may be able to speak.

MORE HUNTSMEN IN FROM THE WOODS HAPPY

Bring Home Moose and Birds—Association Looking Into Reports of Game Law Violation

Local sportsmen and those from other provinces and the states are practicing their assertions that this year has been one of the best in New Brunswick for an abundance of wild game of all kinds, and there are few who went into the woods for big game who did not return reporting success in securing a moose and deer. Smaller game such as partridges and ducks, particularly the former, are reported as being very plentiful throughout the province as a whole, including many sections of St. John county.

Frank W. Fowler, of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., and Wm. Smith, of Vancouver, who have been on a hunting trip to Newcastle Bridge, Grand Lake, returned last evening, bringing back with them a fine big moose and a bag of birds as well.

G. G. Vincent and A. G. Pearson, of St. John, Railway Co. employ, with Clarence Pearson, returned this week after a successful hunting expedition in the woods about Carleton Place. They were accompanied by Fred and Chas. Coles as guides. They brought back two fine specimens of the moose family. The antlers of one measured fifty-four and a half inches, with nineteen points, while the other measured fifty inches with thirteen points. They spoke highly of the work of the guides, who have met with much success not only this year but in other seasons in taking hunting parties into the woods for big game.

Several cases of violation of the game laws have been reported to the N. B. Fish, Forest, and Game Association, and inquiry is being made. There are reports of instances wherein mooseheads have been shipped without the proper tags accompanying them, and this is a matter which it is intended to try to stop. It is probable that officials on the railways will be notified that this violation of the game laws should not be further allowed.

EXPECT APPLE SHOW TO BE BEST YET

A. G. Turney Speaks of the Exhibits—The Programme—Opening Next Monday

That the seventh annual convention and fruit exhibition of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association, to be opened next Monday, in St. Andrew's Rink, will be the best of its size held anywhere in Canada, is the opinion of A. G. Turney, provincial horticulturist, expressed today.

The entries are more numerous than usual, consisting of 100 plates of apples, 160 boxes, sixty barrels and twenty-three cases. There will, he said, be several special exhibits, two from Carleton county and one from Albert.

The Agricultural department are exhibiting 200 boxes of apples and these will form a solid wall across one end of the rink. The department will also show a fine exhibit of apple jellies and they will also establish an information bureau, at which bulletins will be distributed. It has been decided to offer apples for sale, in boxes, barrels and baskets, or even by the single apple. There will also be an exhibit by the department showing fruit grown as the result of the demonstrations in Albert, Sunbury and York counties.

There is to be a banquet in the Victoria Hotel on Tuesday night when it is expected there will be a large number of the wholesale and retail fruit dealers present. Prominent business men have also been invited and it is planned to have among the speakers the judges from Ontario. The following is the exhibition programme:

8 p. m.—Opening of the exhibition, Vancouver, J. K. Fleming, addresses by Hon. Dr. Landry and others.
