

ANN

BOA

A

The annual meeting of the reading-room was very numerous. Among the members present were H. W. Welch, W. G. Wurtele, W. Fraser, C. Tetu, L. Thomson, J. F. T. Roche, R. Hamilton, &c., &c.

The Pansy Club was incorporated and an election of a Council was held. Their attention was called to several of them who enlarged upon their duties for itself. He mentioned changes in the Council. Mr. Stevenson, who was elected. The vacancy created by the election of Secretaryship by Mr. C. nine new members, inasmuch as many of the small villages in the district had been drawn from the hundred and fifty who were not members, which existed in (Laughter.) He directed to the