

A communication was received from Mr. A. Philip, of Vancouver, containing a proposition for the publication of a weekly paper in the interests of the work of the Church within the bounds of the Synod. After deliberation, the following resolution was moved by Mr. A. B. Winchester:—That this Synod expresses its commendation of the scheme proposed; appoints as a Publishing Committee, Messrs. Logan, Philip, and Jas. McQueen, of Vancouver; and a preliminary Editorial Committee, consisting of Mr. J. A. Logan, Conv., Messrs. D. McG. Gaudier, A. B. Winchester, E. C. Gallup, and S. H. Gray. The Synod demands full oversight on the part of the Committee, as well of the advertising as of the literary matter; and that it refuses to accept any financial obligation in connection with the scheme. The motion was seconded by Mr. Thos. Menzies, and agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Robt. Frew, seconded by Mr. Gavin Hamilton, it was agreed that the Printing Committee shall consist of the Clerk, with Messrs. E. D. MacLaren and A. E. Vert, and that 400 copies of the minutes be printed.

The Synod then adjourned to meet this evening at the hour of eight o'clock, of which intimation was made, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

NINTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the same day,
and at 8 o'clock p.m.,

The Synod met, as per adjournment, and was constituted with devotional exercises and prayer, led in by Rev. Mr. Langford of the Methodist Church, and the Moderator.

On motion of Mr. A. B. Winchester, seconded by Mr. J. Knox Wright, it was agreed that the minutes of the Eighth and Ninth Sederunts be taken as read.

The Moderator announced that the topic for discussion this evening is—"The Sabbath School and Other Religious Influences among the Young."

Stirring addresses were given by Messrs. A. B. Winchester, J. A. Logan, W. H. Moody, J. P. Grant, and W. Hudson.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, it was, on motion of Mr. R. Frew, agreed to sit until the business of the Synod is completed.

The Synod, on motion, requested the retiring Moderator, Mr. J. K. Wright, to furnish a copy of the sermon with which he opened the Synod, for the press.

It was moved by Mr. J. Knox Wright, seconded by Mr. R. Frew, and agreed, that the thanks of this Synod are due and are hereby tendered to the Session and Managers of Knox Church, Calgary, for placing their commodious building at its disposal; to the choir of the church for their attendance and valuable help; to the friends who have so kindly opened their homes for the entertainment of members; to the friends who arranged and made provision for the very enjoyable drive about the city and into the country; to the Editor of the Herald, for his excellent reports of proceedings; and to the transportation companies, for the courtesy extended in reduced rates of travel; to Principal Hogbin, for courtesies extended to members while visiting the Indian Industrial School; also, to Revs. J. C. Herlihan and S. H. Gray, and those asso-
