Mr. Martin Alleged to Have Obtained Campaign Fund From President Hill.

For Which Government Road Would Be Leased to Great Northern.

Premier Denies Having Received Any Money From the Railway Magnate.

(Special to the Times.)

Vancouver, June 7.—The Province today publishes affidavits from E. C. Gardner and C. G. Anstin, stating that on May 4th, R. A. Dickson, of Grand Forks, B.C., with whom Gardner became acquainted last year, came to Seattle and told them that the object of his visit was to make some arrangement with President Jas. Hill, of the Great Northern, or Mr. Kendrick, of the Northern Pacific railroad, to obtain a sum, at least $100,000, for a campaign fund.

return for which the Martin government would use if returned, to build a road from Vancouver to the town of Republic, Wash., and lease it to President Hill for a long term of years, practically free.

Gardner told Dickson that the N.P.R. would not be likely to do anything, and advised him to arrange a meeting with C. Hughes, solicitor of the Great Northern.

This was done and Dickson was introduced by Hughes to President Jas. Hill, of the Spokane and Northern, son of the president of the G.N. That gentleman at once took Dickson, on May 5th, to his private car and they proceeded to use all his influence with his father.

Dickson showed not only letters from Martin to Mr. Hill and Mr. Kendrick, but a big document in which Mr. Martin agreed, if his government set in, to fulfil his offer to the railway magnates.

Mr. Dickson returned to his home in St. Paul and told the affiants he had been highly successful, that Mr. Hill alone was all the backing they required, and that he had already forwarded $25,000 and would send another $25,000 and more if necessary.

Questioned this morning Mr. Martin specifically denied that he was allured by Dickson to the $25,000 and gave a straight denial to the statements in the affidavit. He says he received no money from the Great Northern and does not expect to. There is no truth in it at all.

He added that contributions, no matter how large or small, to his campaign were always taken provided no strings were attached.

Hon. Mr. Yates, when questioned in regard to the above, said that he was allured by Dickson to the $25,000 and gave a straight denial to the statements in the affidavit. He says he received no money from the Great Northern and does not expect to. There is no truth in it at all.

The autopsy revealed swollen glands and the funeral was interrupted by the health officers, who cremated the body. Two more quarantine stations will be established at Hilo and Kahului.

Arrangements are being made by the citizens for a grand celebration of Territorial Day. Governor Dole is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the Legislature to meet prior to the regular session.

Premier. Makes Another Great Speech Amid a Scene of Utmost Enthusiasm.

J. H. Bourassa Objected to Address of Congratulation to The Queen.

Spoke Amid Hisses of Members—Repudiated by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

(Special to the Times.)

Ottawa, June 7.—In the House of Commons today Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in moving an address to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, added another great speech to his many noble, lofty and patriotic utterances. No one in Canada can do this as well as he.

The purport of the address was to congratulate Her Majesty on the near approach of the end of the war. The British flag, said Sir Wilfrid, now floats over Pretoria, and the statement was received with cheers. The Premier said that in the early part of the war, when the balance was trembling in the scale, the Canadians were glad to be actively in turning that scale in favor of British arms. (Cheers.) Before Her Majesty died, he hoped that she would yet see her Dutch subjects in South Africa among the most loyal of all her subjects in the Empire. (Great cheering.)

Sir Charles Upper seconded the address, speaking of the growth and unity of the Empire and joining with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in believing that at no distant day the Dutch of South Africa would be loyal and devoted subjects of the Queen.

Sir Charles also referred to the good work done by Canadians in South Africa.

J. H. Bourassa dissented against the address because the act was not that of Her Majesty which brought on the war, but ambitious financiers. (Hisses.) Bourassa, continuing, said that the war did not add one cent of glory to the British crown, but it added a million and a half of "Shame." He claimed he was as loyal as those who hissed him.

J. Charlot followed and gave a terrible rebuke to Mr. Bourassa for his speech. He hoped that the member for Labelle would yet see the error of his way.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier followed Mr. Charlot for the purpose of saying a few words on the unfortunate incident that had happened. He said that Mr. Bourassa had a perfect right to his opinion just as he (Laurier) had, and in the opinion of the Premier, there never was a time when there was a more just and righteous war, that he believed in his heart. He would ask Mr. Bourassa if that was the proper occasion to ventilate his opinion. Supposing he (Bourassa) was opposed to the war, surely he could not oppose an address to Her Majesty that the war was a more just and righteous war. He said that he did not speak for French-Canadians.

The address was then adopted. Mr. Bourassa being the only one who dissented.

TRADE OF PHILIPPINES. (Associated Press.)

British Consul at Manila Says Restoration of Law and Order is a Difficult Task.

London, June 6.—The report of the British consul at Manila, Mr. Harford, on the trade of the Philippine Islands for 1899, was received at the foreign office, May 7th.

He says the collapse of the insurrection and the reopening of the ports has restored confidence and produced a complete revival of the country. His report, however, he added, was dependent upon circumstances, for though the ports were safe, the interior of the islands was quite the contrary, and it will depend on the state of the country whether further exports are forthcoming. He explains that the immense size of the country renders a restoration of law and order a difficult task, as the influence of the leaders appears strong enough to prevent the otherwise willing natives from surrendering.

Mr. Harford then proceeds to comment on the greatly enhanced cost of living in Manila, saying house rent, all kinds of labor, and everything connected with shipping, owing to the immensely increased demand, command their own prices. Improvements, he also says, are visible in every direction, and he refers to the work of draining the filthy town, the ditches and stagnant pools of which, he asserts, may possibly entail an epidemic.

"The recovered land of the city, walls and most wall" Mr. Harford further remarks, "provide building sites which American enterprise well knows how to utilize, and though Manila has never become a fashionable watering place, it may become a great commercial power in these waters before the first quarter of the century has passed."

Situation Serious

Russian Troops Have Been Ordered to the Neighborhood of Peking.

Rebels Are Approaching Tien Tsin—The Town is Under Arms.

(Special to the Times.)

London, June 5.—The Daily Mail correspondent at Shanghai is telegraphing yesterday, says: "The 'Boxers' are within three miles of Tien Tsin. In addition to the marine, the defensive force includes volunteers under the command of Major Higgs, late of the 10th Lancers. The town is practically under arms."

The Daily Express has a dispatch from Shanghai dated to-day which says: "Russian troops have been ordered from Port Arthur to the neighborhood of Peking to punish the 'Boxers' for killing two Cossacks and wounding two."

London, June 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Tien Tsin, dated June 4, says: "The situation is very serious. The 'Boxers' are approaching Tien Tsin on all sides."

The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: "In official circles here it is believed that the situation in China has grown worse. The powers are now exchanging dispatches regarding the appointment of a special commissioner for the United States squadrons."

The London morning papers have nothing from China regarding the attack upon Tien Tsin, but the Times in an editorial discussing the situation, says that everything was ready for such an emergency as the situation being protected by gunboats along the wharf of the Pei Ho river. The Times goes on to say: "The Chinese troops who are supposed to be putting down the rebellion, have been placed under the orders of a general, whose soldiers have been for months past a sitting target to the snipers of the foreigners in the province of Pe-chi-Li. This merely adds a touch of impudence to the sinister force which is being played under the eyes of Western diplomacy in the Chinese capital. Peking itself is thought to be safe, and though no doubt in any case the foreign detachments which have been sent up to guard the legations, may be trusted to give a good account of themselves, the safety of the city may presumably be attributed in an equal measure to the regard of the Empress Tsin Hszil for her own personal convenience."

The Daily Chronicle suggests depositing the Empress Dowager, the re-education of Emperor Tsai Kuang Su, if still alive, under European advisers.

The Morning Post considers the situation alarming, and the problem an urgent one for Great Britain.

The Daily Telegraph regards affairs in China as "serious in the extreme."

The Peking correspondent of the Times, telegraphing Tuesday, says: "The murder of Mr. Norman was undoubtedly due to the complexity of the Chinese government in the disturbances caused by the 'Boxers,' a secret edict issued two days ago forbade the soldiers to fire upon the 'Boxers.' The soldiers who were killed at Huang Tsun offered no resistance, and were simply guarding the railway."

Berlin, June 5.—The latest news regarding the 'Boxers' has reached here by both private and official telegrams, all of which think the situation black and alarming. The German foreign office considers an encounter between the 'Boxers' and Russians an event probably fraught with the greatest danger. News has also reached here that several German and Catholic missions at Shantung have been pillaged by mobs, supposed to have been incited by the 'Boxers' agitation.

London, June 7.—The following dispatch from Peking dated yesterday appears in the Morning Post: "Report says that the court party is collecting inside the city, consequently there is increased uneasiness."

A special from Shanghai, dated yesterday, says: "The members of the British legation at Peking are sending their families away. It is also said that prominent Chinese residents are leaving the city. There is an unconfirmed report that two Russian engineers have been murdered at Yu Chow Fu, northwest of Port Arthur. The total damage done to the Chinese railroads by the Boxers is estimated at $5,000,000."

Missionary's Statement. (Associated Press.)

London, June 6.—The Rev. Mr. Sowerby who has been working for twenty years in China, and who has just reached London from Pao Tung En, said to a correspondent of the Associated Press today: "The Boxers are the scum of the population. They have no uniform organization, nor any official leaders. Formerly they carried broad swords, but now they have well managed modern weapons, undoubtedly supplied by the Imperial family. Before drilling, they throw themselves on the ground, work themselves into a frenzy and then believe themselves invulnerable. The Empress Dowager, who becomes more intensely anti-foreign as the time passes, was greatly annoyed by the work of the Germans at Kiao Chau. She desires to use force to stop the reform movement and is ready to defy the European powers. If the Boxers are permitted to invade Peking the result will probably be disastrous to the foreign missions, which are isolated and spread over a large area."

More Marines Wanted. (Associated Press.)

Peking, June 6.—The situation is growing steadily worse. Events move with such rapidity and affairs, owing to the excitement of the natives, are so critical, that the foreign ministers hold frequent meetings. They feel the need of a free hand for energetic action without a perpetual reference to home governments.

Sir Claude Macdonald, the British minister, is wiring for 75 more marines. Native employes who have returned from Feng Tai say they left the Boxers openly drilling in the adjacent villages.

Black Knife Also. (Associated Press.)

Berlin, June 6.—German official circles continue to regard the Chinese situation as grave. This is shown by the additional number of marines landed from the Tils and from the fact that the large protective cruiser Harbin, leading the commander of the Far Asiatic squadron, Rear-Admiral Bendemann, has been ordered to proceed to Taku.

Official reports have been received that the Chinese have been forcibly stopped by the systematic attacks of large numbers of the Black Knife, a secret society in Shantung similar to the Boxers.

ARMY AND NAVY BAZAAR

Was Formerly Opened in the A. O. U. W. Hall Yesterday Afternoon—A Great Success.

The A. O. U. W. hall presented a beautiful sight yesterday afternoon when the grand army and navy bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of St. John's church was formally opened by Mrs. Beaumont, Admiral Beaumont and Mayor and Mrs. Hayward were also in attendance.

The ladies had been most industrious in installing the decorations, and they have certainly demonstrated artistic ability of a very high order. The visitor on entering the hall is confronted by a spectacle of unparalleled splendor, in which redstonee sconces with red and white and blue predominating, vie with the bunting and other elaborate arrangements in producing the general grand effect. Patriotism is the key note to this event, and that fact is demonstrated in no uncertain manner by the many pictures of the famous generals who are to-day maintaining British prestige in South Africa, subordinated to several representations of the Queen and Empress.

The booth near the entrance to the hall bears the name of Warspite in honor of the flagship of the North Pacific squadron, while on the right hand side are booths bearing the names of the Leander, Virago, Sparrowhawk and Parakeeburg of glorious memory. On the opposite side of the hall are stalls bearing the name of Maresk, containing the picture of Major-General Baden-Powell; Kimberley surmounted by a picture of the Queen; and Ladysmith, Parkeberg of glorious memory. On the other side of the hall are stalls bearing the names of the Empires, and tastefully arranged evergreens. Japanese lanterns have been placed in position and enhance the beautiful appearance of the scene during the evening. "Business" has been "rushing" at the different booths and the ladies showed that they can perform their duties behind the counter as efficiently as in the line of decoration.

Last evening the following programme was rendered to a large and appreciative audience: Selection, Mr. Longfield's hand; selection, the Mandolin Club; song, "The Old Gray Mule"; fancy dance, Mandolin Club; finale, Mr. Longfield's band.

There is still a large quantity of ornate and useful articles, and this evening the attendance promises to equal that of yesterday. Proceedings commenced this afternoon, the admission price being 10 cents.

The reception committee consists of Mrs. A. Rooke Robertson, president; Mrs. Jenns, vice-president; Mrs. Saunders, vice-president; Mrs. I. W. Powell, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Janion, Mrs. Blackwood, Mrs. Blacklock.

The stalls and their attendants were as follows: Flower Stall—Mrs. Croft, Miss Harvey, Mrs. Burton, Miss Pooley, Miss Keeler.

Fancy Work—Mrs. Tharks, Mrs. Griffiths, Mrs. Ridgway-Wilson, Miss Devereux, Miss Eberts, Miss Janion.

Apron Stall—Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Burns.

Candy Stall—Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Belyea, Miss Gowan, Miss White.

Paper Stall—Mrs. Powell, Miss Johnson, Miss Bechtel.

Tea Room—Mrs. Ken, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Blackwood, Mrs. B. E. Seabrook, Miss Harrison, Miss Heisterman, Miss M. Grahame, Miss Potts, Miss Galley, Miss Baner, Miss Hall, Miss Jenns.

The programme for the evening is as follows: Selection, St. Cecilia Orchestra.

Song, "Mule of Silver Grey," Miss A. Stoddart.

Song, "Mule of Silver Grey," Miss A. Stoddart.

Violin Solo, Mr. E. A. Powell.

Song, "Hen Conventions Show," Rev. E. G. Miller.

Rainbow Light Effect.

WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic, and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liverman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa.
