

6. A standing shall be given for class work, for written examinations, and for oral examinations. The class standing shall be given for faithful attendance upon class instruction, earnest effort put forth to perform all the work assigned from time to time during the College year, and for the knowledge and mental discipline acquired in performing this work. The standing in this case shall be ascertained by the application of such tests as each professor or teacher may deem best. The written examination standing shall be given for written answers to questions prepared as provided for in By-law, and shall be determined by the person who reads and values these answers. The oral examination standing shall be given for oral answers to questions proposed orally. The standing given in this case shall represent the joint opinion of the professor or teacher and associate examiner who conduct the examination.

7. The rank of a student in each department of study shall be determined by the standing he receives. A student will be ranked in the third class on a standing of 40%; in the second-class on a standing of 60%; and in the first-class on a standing of 75%.

8. The standing on which a student will be ranked as passing in the third, second or first class shall be ascertained as follows:

(a) The standing in each department below the senior year of a course shall be determined by dividing by two the sum of the class standing and the written examination standing.

(b) The standing in each department of the senior year of a course shall be determined by dividing by three the sum of the class standings, the written examination standings, and the oral examination standings.

9. All standings shall be reported to the Secretary of the Senate, on blanks provided for that purpose. Class standing must be so reported at least two days before the written examination commences. No professor, teacher or associate examiner shall be at liberty to divulge the standings reported to the Secretary of the Senate.

10. No information shall be given to any student until after graduation regarding the percentage obtained in any examination; but each graduate shall, on his own request, be furnished by the
