The CHRISTMAS NUMBER OF "THE CAPITAL." (Major Cropley, Fredericton, editor and publisher), just issued, consists of twenty-four pages. Among the Articles which it contains is a Full Narrative of the CONSECRATION of the FREDERICTON CATHEDRAL, in August, 1863. This makes six pages in Brevier, 3 columns to a page. It is illustrated by large Half-Tone Engravings of

The MOST REV. JOHN MEDLEY, D. D. The VERY REV. DEAN PARTRIDGE, D.D. "RIGHT REV. H. T. KINGDON, D. D. "CHRISTCHURCH CATHEDRAL.

Next year will be the fiftieth anniversary of its consecration. It also contains a large illustration of the Officers of the 71st "York" Regiment in Camp at Queen's Square, Fredericton, in 1897, with the Military History, Rolls of Offi-cers, etc., of Fredericton and York County from the settlement of Fredricton until the present time.

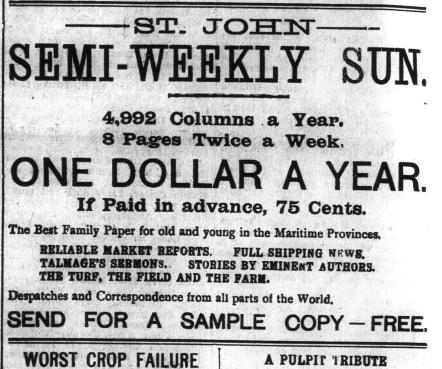

Another interesting feature is a large illustration of the members of the "Silsby" fire engine company, of which Mr. Frank McPeake was captain, and a history of the Fredericton fire department with reminiscences from the earliest period until the present time.

There is considerable other interesting reading matter, including an article on Khartoum.

Khartoum. This number of "THE CAPITAL" is of great historical value, especially to mem-bers of the Church of England, and is the finest thing ever published in Fredericton. This issue of "THE CAPITAL" is printed on Heavy Art Book Paper, and in Mr. Cropley's very best style. The Subscription Price of the paper (which is published Monthly) is 50 cents per
