A Christian Solution to the Present Depression

In a statement to the Canadian perses; which we produced in full in Four last issue, under the heading "How to bring back prosperity", Mr. A. J. Nesbitt, the senior partner in well known financial house of A. Nesbitt Thomson and Company, urged more dependence on the Divine Will in the present world depression of the maintains in all sincerity that "the moment this nation turns to God there will be a heaven-sent revival sweep this land, and the fear and distrust and hate now prevalent will give place to faith and hope and love; industry shall improve and prosperity and peace shall follow." Such a statement coming from one of the keenest business minds of the country cannot help but arrest the Such a stafement coming from one of the keenest business minds of the country cannot help but arrest the attention of all men however interested they may be in their own business affairs ifor to advance in very positive terms, as Mr. Nesbitt has done, the Christian doctrine of man's redemption through faith as the real solution for our present economic ills requires courage of a high order, and we, like countless thousands of others, respect and admire him for the brave stand he has taken, and this notwithstanding the fact that the appeal will find its echo in the heart of every right thinking man and woman.

Lest we forget it would be well to remind ourselves that Christian because in acceptance adopted the same principles which underlie the British cauctoriance with the residue in accordance with the trackings of Christ Himself.

Canada's manhood, in comm. A with the rest of the world, is being tested. There is a strain everywhe the between self-interest and the interest of the world, is being tested. There is a strain everywhe the standard of the world, is being to the rest of the world is being to the rest of the world, is being to the rest of the world, is being to the rest of the world, is being to the rest of the world is being to the rest of the world is being to the rest of the world, is being to the rest of the world is being to the rest of the world, is being to the rest of the world is being to the rest of the world is the rest of the same principles which the real principles of true liberty and real justice in accordance with the teachings of Christian british condains and with the responsability of the countries of the world is the responsability of the principles and the responsability o d woman.

Lest we forget it would be well remind ourselves that Christiaty is the basis of our moral code; at through its teachings the old domonic code of "an-eye-for-an-eye-f Adomonic code of "an-eye-for-an-eye" was changed to that of the "brotherhood of man", the fundamental principle on which the British Empire has been built. All her institutions and her very constuttion are based upon it. This Christian-derived strength has permeated every part of the empire; it has created a sense of security in the minds of people steeped for ages in the lowest depths of slavery and superstition, and given them confidence in a new ideal of national life. It has made white men exile themselves for the best part of their lives to the uttermost parts of the earth so that the British flag might be respected through their sense of Christian duty. And the self-governing dominions are drawn by this
