Hundreds See Unveiling of Statue at St. Peter's Church

The new statue of the Guardian Angel was unveiled yesterday at noon in front of St. Peter's church with a very large number of people present. At 10.30 o'clock there was solemn high mass and a sermon was preached by the Rector, Rev. Father Duke. The Angels, was the subject of the discourse. Immediately after the service the congregation proceeded to the front of the church to witness the unveiling of the statue. The statue was blessed by Rev. Joseph Borgmann, and he was assisted by Rev. Father O'Regan and Rev. Father Holland. A number of the smallest children in the Sunday school were also present. At a given signal they pulled a cord and the statue was revealed. The teachers in the Sunday school with the larger scholars were also present. The City Cornet Band under the leadership of Prof. Waddington, played a prelude, after which those present recited "Holy, God we praise Thee." As the statue was being unveiled the band rendered "God Save the King."

DR. TORREY SPEAKS ON EXCUSES MADE

Better to Spend Little Time in Church With Hypocrites on Earth Than Eternity in Hell With Them.

Dr. Torrey addressed two large audiences yesterday. In the evening the rink was crowded, and the doors had to be closed to keep the people out. An incident that created some interest, occurred during the afternoon meeting. When the preacher asked those present who wanted to come to Christ to stand up, there was no response, and one girl seemed to be much amused. Dr. Torrey in a prayer which followed, expressed surprise that any one should laugh on such an occasion and asked that the girl might be redeemed. In the evening the evangelist preached on "Excuses."

Another man says, "I have an excuse and a good one. There are so many hypocrites in the church." "What shall I say to that excuse?" I say without hesitation that that is the most absurd excuse a man can make. "What," you say, "are there no hypocrites in the church?" Of course there are. The Bible tells us that there will be hypocrites in the church. In the passage which I read tonight Jesus said that there would be hypocrites right up to the judgment day. "Many will say in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Thy name, and in Thy name have we cast out devils, and in Thy name do we many wonderful works?' And then I will profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from Me ye that work iniquity."

One Out of a Hundred. Then again, if there are hypocrites in the church (and I have no doubt of it), there are a great many good people in the church. Of course I use the term church not meaning any one denomination, but the whole body of believers in Jesus Christ. There are a great many people in the church, in fact, all the best people are there. But if there were a church or chapel consisting of a hundred members, and ninety-nine were good, straight, upright, downright, Christian men and women, and there was one poor, miserable hypocrite, you would overlook the ninety-nine good, straight, men and women and fix all your attention on the one poor, miserable hypocrite. Yes, you would! And do you know why you do so? It is because you are a hypocrite yourself. You are a hypocrite outside the church, and therefore you are looking for hypocrites inside the church to hide behind.

One more word before I leave this matter. All the hypocrites are going to hell. The Bible says so, and if you go on rejecting Christ you are going there, too. Now, will you ask me a question: Which is better, to spend a few years with the hypocrites in the church here on earth (and with all the good people at the same time), or spend eternity with the hypocrites in hell, with all the bad people? "Well," you say, "that excuse is absurd, and I will never make it again." I hope you never will. You will not if you have any common sense.
