LET'S TALK IT OVER.

THE THIRTEENTH COMMANDMENT.

I have just finished reading a book with the above arresting name. It is not a new book, but its moral is one of the best. Do you know what, according to Rupert Hughes, the thirteenth commandment is? "Spend less than thou earnest." The story tells of a couple who did not keep this commandment, and the consequent unhappiness which came upon them. As they say women are always personal, let us put this question to ourselves: "Am I spending more than I earn?" Perhaps you are not a wage-earner, but one of the great army of unpaid workers who have to ask for every cent or dread the day when the monthly accounts come in. If this is so, are you spending more than you ought to be earning, or than your husband is making? By the way, do you know the difference between a housekeeper and a housewife? The first is paid a stated salary, and the second is dependent upon her husband's generosity—a virtue which is sometimes lacking.

In the plot of Rupert Hughes' story the man made a common mistake. He did not insist upon his wife's understanding the situation, but forgave her for her first extravagance, and then blamed her bitterly for the succeeding ones. Surely a woman who comprehends the state of her husband's finances is half-way towards keeping them in the healthy condition they should be. Many a woman has run into debt through ignorance, and her indulgent partner only makes it easy for this to occur again.

As to the girl on a salary, does she know, I wonder, the joy of saving in order that she may have a spending fund? This may sound paradoxical, but I do not think I have reached the pinnacle where I could save for the more knowledge that it is right and prudent to do so. I do know that the dime bank habit has helped me to have a little store wherein I can dip when there is a need. Is there a birthday in the family? How pleasant to be able to give a really nice gift! Is anybody not just feeling up to the mark? One can send them away on some whim which may give the desired charge, and make the world look lots brighter on their return. And then the appeals to be met? The little bank will fill all the more quickly again if you open it for the relief of brave soldiers, or those who have suffered. And if you really need something for yourself, or want to be really extravagant, you can take from that little hoard and do without something else. It is nobody's affair but your own.

By and by you will find that you will not spend those ten cents, and rejoice over every one you discover in your purse at night.

Another good way of keeping this thirteenth commandment (which is far from being an unlucky one), is to take from your salary a fixed sum, no matter how small, and pop it in the bank. It may add to the troubles of the bank's accounts, but it adds to your peace of mind also, and it grows into a substantial amount before you know where you are. This method requires strength of mind, but it is strongly recommended as a worthy habit.

Money in itself is something so useless, but when one thinks of all you can do with it, it becomes something to strive for—something too glorious to throw away.

What do you think about it? MARGUERITE.

Home Complexion Peeler Works Wonders

To keep the face, neck, arms and hands truly beautiful and youthful in appearance, the treatment which seems most sensible is one which will actually remove the skin itself immediately it begins to age, become discolored. The only known treatment which will do this, aside from a painful, expensive surgical operation, is the application of ordinary mercurized wax, which is as harmless as it is effective.

The wax is put on at night, just as you apply cold cream, and is washed off in the morning. It absorbs the dead and half-dead surface skin in almost invisible daily particles, a little each day, so discomfort being experienced. With the disappearance of the old outside, the newer, healthier skin underneath gradually appears, richly beautiful with the flush of youth. This mercurized wax, which you can get at any drug store in original package, is indeed a veritable wonder-worker.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mislified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of this that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Quick, Painless Way To Remove Hairy Growth

(Helps to Beauty)

Here is a simple, unfailing way to rid the skin of objectionable hairs: With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to cover the hairy surface, apply and in about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This is quite harmless but to avoid disappointment be sure to get the delatone in an original package.

WEDDINGS.

Mrs. Lewis.

The wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at 10.15 of Miss Edna Irene Lewis, youngest daughter of James Lewis and John Henry Marr, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Marr. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Britain street.

The bride and groom left on the noon train for a tour of the Maritime Provinces. On their return they will reside at No. 6 German street.

Campbell-Russell.

A wedding of much interest took place yesterday morning when Miss Helen Boyd Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, Douglas Avenue, became the wife of Kenneth Innes Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilfred Campbell, Leinster street.

MANY MOVIE MEN LEAVE FOR HALIFAX

Convention Opens This Afternoon—Important Business To Be Transacted—Sam Spedon Joined Party Last Night.

A delegation of moving picture men, film renters and exhibitors, left last night on the Halifax Express, for Halifax, where they will hold their third annual convention in the sister city.

Last evening's party included L. E. Quimmet, Montreal, manager for the Imperial Theatre, and Arthur Callen, of the local Pathe offices; R. G. March, of the local Pathe offices; G. A. Margetta, and wife, of the Universal Film Corporation; R. J. Komney, of Vitaphone; Mitchell Bernstein, of Paramount Corporation; E. Teal, of the Royal Company; E. English of the Regal; Manager W. H. Golding, of the Imperial Theatre, and Arthur Callen.

When the Boston train arrived, a general surprise was in evidence, when Sam Spedon, one of the chief writers of the Moving Picture World, stepped from the train, en route to the convention. Mr. Spedon was nearly shaken off his feet, so enthusiastic were the other movie men in their salutations. He made a hit in St. John two years ago, when attending a conference of motion picture men here, and was warmly greeted last evening again.

W. W. Panety, Fredericton, came in on the same train.

The convention opens this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, for the ensuing year. This evening a banquet will be held in "Tally-Ho Cafe," which promises to be up to expectations. The convention lasts until Thursday evening. The delegation will return to their respective homes on Friday morning.
