

Prices of Food In Boston, Mass.

Quotations on All Articles in the Food Line Given in Boston Paper - Can be Compared With Prices Paid in St. John.

The Boston Post yesterday had the following concerning the prices of food in that city which can be compared by the St. John housewife with what she pays in this city: Fresh fish is obtainable every day, but because the fishing industry as a whole is tied up, prices are a little higher. There is, however, plenty of fresh cod and pollock at 12 cents a pound, flounders and haddock and fisherman haddock at 16 cents, fresh scup at 20 cents, butterfish, eels and tinker mackerel at 25 cents a pound, West Indian salmon, large mackerel and halibut at 35 cents, swordfish at 45 cents, boiled lobster at 40 and 50 cents, and live lobsters at 40 and 45 cents a pound.

Isoprich steaming clams are 75 cents a peck, crab meat is 75 cents and $1 a pound and scotch herring are $1.50 a dozen. The best butter is 64 to 66 cents a pound, while eggs remain at last week's prices of 75 to 80 cents a dozen for selected breakfast eggs, 70 to 75 cents for Eastern eggs and 60 to 65 cents for Western eggs of good grade. Meat prices for the mid-week are just what they were a week ago, with the possibility that beef will be considerably higher in time to affect the price of the Sunday roast. Rib roasts are 55 and 60 cents, rump roasts, whole, 33 to 40 cents, best faces of the rump are 50 cents, rump steaks 70 to 75 cents, sirloin steaks are 60 and 65 cents and top of the round is 50 cents a pound.

Lamb is 48 cents for short legs, 40 cents for legs and joints and 25 to 28 cents for forequarters. Kidney chops are 55 cents and rib chops 40 cents. Corned beef is in demand, fancy brands pieces bringing 25 cents and end and at other pieces 23 to 27 cents a pound. Fresh fowl and young chickens are 40 cents a pound, ham is 45 cents, white legs of veal are 35 and 38 cents.

ENRICO CARUSO'S FOOD RATIONS THE SAME AS PEASANTS His Expensive Automobiles Commandeered by the Gov't and His Larder Raided by the Populace.

Florence, Italy, July 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Food is now being allotted to Enrico Caruso, opera singer of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, whose picturesque baritone voice is situated on the heights of Signataro, nine miles from the city on the same ratio as to the peasants in this section. The new deluxe American limousine he imported was commandeered by the military authorities, while the Italian motor car he owned was requisitioned by the prefect of the commune of Signataro. The Work Committee of the district had had their eyes upon his villa for many days and, when the outbreak against the high cost of living occurred here a few weeks ago, made an inventory of his cellar and pantry, told him he had far too much for one man and his small family, live upon and serve some of the wine in his cellar, scribbling the affair Signataro Caruso said to the Associated Press correspondent.

It was visited by a distinguished commission of men and women, conveyed up these hills in two luxurious automobiles decreed in real streams. These roads to my mode of life in Italy and I have since been forced to live under their hands.

"You know we have not starved here, though. We have had enough to eat. We have divided our supplies with the people in the red automobiles and have managed to get along. I do not know just what I will do in the future. I pay the Italian government more than a million lire taxes a year, but I can ask for little protection for my property. I have given two years' work during the war to the cause of the Allies and, therefore, to the cause of Italy."

AUSTRIAN GOVT WILL TAKE OVER GOLD AND SILVER Vienna, Austria, July 12.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The government has decreed that it will take over all gold, silver, jewelry, foreign bonds and forests which are in the possession of private individuals who will receive compensation for them. One of the government's objects is to obtain funds to purchase coal and raw materials in order to provide work for the people, incidentally to buy foodstuffs, without which the starvation conditions of last winter will be horribly accentuated this fall.

It is predicted that unless the Allies occupy Budapest and end the present communist regime the country's crops will be wasted and the people will starve in the coming winter.

The first effect of a kind of American established by a force of American soldiers along the Austrian frontier of Hungary will be to prevent money, or materials which represent money from flowing out of the country, for it is known that the communists are sending money abroad for propaganda purposes.

The Americans are experiencing great difficulties in controlling an immense amount of contraband traffic that has sprung up in small border towns like Bruck, through which the communists are smuggling their money and Hungarians who fled to Vienna are trying to bring out their buried treasures and bonds. There is said to exist a special smuggling service carried out by airplanes by means of which hundreds of millions of crowns have been conveyed out of the country.

WAR ROMANCE CULMINATES IN HAPPY WEDDING

Sacred Heart Church, Red Rapids, Scene of Brilliant Wedding Event Yesterday.

Andover, Aug. 6.—At the Church of the Sacred Heart, Red Rapids, the marriage of Miss Sylvia Pauline Cronkite, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cronkite, of Ardenville, to Gratien Langlais, of Amqui, Quebec, took place at nine o'clock this morning. The ceremony was performed with musical mass by Rev. F. C. Ryan. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a beautiful gown of white Georgette with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of gladioli and sweet peas. Miss Mary J. Cronkite, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid was attired in a dainty gown of pink embroidered Georgette with pink pansy veil and hat with pink ostrich plume, and carried a director's staff with pink sweet peas. Little Misses Mary and Madeline McLaughlan as flower girls, looked very sweet in white embroidered dresses, and carried baskets of sweet peas. The groom was supported by Mr. Cyril Dionne, of Edmundston. Appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered during the service by Mrs. Phillip Dionne and Mrs. A. M. Chamberlain.

After the ceremony about 250 guests repeated to the home of the bride where the wedding breakfast was served by the girl friends of the bride. Immediately following the reception the wedding party motored to Perth, where Mr. and Mrs. Langlais took the train for Metis Beach where they will spend a short honeymoon before going to Amqui, where they will make their home. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge with blue silk hat to match. Besides a number of friends from Andover and Perth the guests included Mrs. Wm. Plie, Misses Ruth and Jane Plie, Dr. and Mrs. Loomis Sawyer, of Fort Fairfield, Me., Mrs. J. O. Langlais, father of the groom, of Amqui, Que., Miss Josephine Dionne, Edmundston; A. M. Chamberlain, Grand Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith, Mrs. Heneberry, Miss Fern Smith, Miss Hope McKinney and Mr. Preston Boyd, Fort Fairfield; Mrs. Mollie Lingley, St. John, and Mrs. J. L. White, Grand Falls. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful wedding presents including silver cut glass, china and several substantial cheques. Mrs. Langlais for several years has been stenographer for Porter Manner Co. Ltd., at Perth, and has made many friends with whom she will be greatly missed.

The groom is a former soldier, having enlisted at the beginning of this war, going over with the first contingent from Valcartier. He was taken prisoner by the Germans at the Battle of St. Julien, and after several attempts succeeded in making his escape. A Christmas box received from the bride shortly before his escape from Germany was the beginning of a romance which culminated in the wedding day.

If Appended to a Cheque? Kansas City Star. Proceeding further in the matter of the alleged ignorance, Mr. Ford says he never writes letters, and seldom signs those written by his secretaries. This statement ought to make Henry Ford autograph worth going miles and miles to obtain.

GROTESQUE PARADES FOR PLEASURE OF KING FERDINAND

In quaintness, originality and color the Parades for the Benefit of King and Queen Could Not Be Exceeded. Hermannstadt, Transylvania, June 20.—(Correspondent of The Associated Press.)—Ethnographic parades in which the people were dressed in clothing of a thousand varieties, were some of the picturesque features of the recent visit of King Ferdinand and Queen Marie to Transylvania, formerly part of Hungary, but lately conquered by Rumanian troops. Four edition Rumanians of Transylvania had looked forward for years for this time to come when the country in which they lived would again be reunited to Rumania and they saw in the coming of the King and Queen evidence that this was accomplished. In quaintness, originality and color the parades held in many cities and towns for the benefit of the King and Queen could hardly be exceeded. The clothing worn by the peasants had changed but little with the passing centuries. Some looked as though they had stepped out of the Bible. They wore sackcloth, homespun, leather, wooden shoes, the loose shirt with flowing sleeves worn by the old Rumanians, leather girdles for carrying weapons, highly colored sashes and shawls, beaded aprons, and beakskin moccasins. Queen Marie, radiant and happy was the idol of all. Besides her stood her favorite child, the little Princess Beata, a prototype of her beautiful mother. King Ferdinand was dressed in the uniform of the general. The first application will make your hair and scalp look and feel 100 per cent better. The grounds were prettily decorated with flags and lit with electric lights. Over $70.00 was realized, which goes toward St. Mary's Church. Many people attended the lawn party and also from Rexton, among the number was Mrs. O. Palmer and two daughters and the Misses McDevitt of St. John.

BALANCE OF THIS WEEK AND ALL OF NEXT SHOULD BE DEVOTED TO SUBSCRIPTION GETTING

Three Days of Special Prize Contest Have Passed and the Prizes Will Be Won on Saturday, August 16th—Candidates Should Send in Their Subscriptions at Once and, If Desired, May Have the Votes Held Until the End of the Contest—Persons Subscribing Want Their Paper Started So Report Subscriptions at Once.

There is a Double Incentive for All Candidates to Hustle At This Time.

SPECIAL PRIZES. First Prize $100.00 Second Prize 75.00 Third Prize 50.00 Fourth Prize 25.00

The above Special Cash Prizes will be awarded to the four highest vote-getters on subscriptions between August 16th and 30th. Now is the time for the candidates to get in their best efforts in the way of subscription-getting if they want to share in the distribution of the Special Prize of Gold to be awarded on August 16th, to the four highest vote-getters on subscriptions irrespective of district. There is no reason, if you put in your very best efforts, why you should not find yourself just one hundred dollars better off at the end of next week than you are today. If you miss on the first prize of $100.00, then there are three other prizes, one of which you surely ought to win, that is if you make any kind of a determined effort to capture one of these prizes. If you sit back and wait, you will have no regrets when you will be building up a solid foundation for the Grand Prizes at the end of the contest. The main thing to keep in mind at the present time is the securing of subscription votes between now and August 16th. It is a certainty that you will not win one of the Special Prizes, if you do not get in your best efforts. It is a certainty that you will not win one of the Special Prizes, if you do not get in your best efforts.
