

RUNNING ELECTION WITH AS LITTLE MONEY AS POSSIBLE

Something Along These Lines
Talked Of in Committee
Rooms—May Be No Hostings Speeches, But Opposition Announces Some Campaign Addresses.

The talk about the ward committee rooms for the local by-election to be fought with the least possible use of money. There is no agreement to this effect, so far as can be learned, but there appears to be a disposition to have such an understanding and it may be something will be arrived at this week.

It was said last night that there was an idea for both sides to agree to have only two teams at each polling booth, and to have the booths manned by volunteer workers instead of paying men as usual. Then, too, there will be no long list of agents of nomination papers—trouble and expense will be saved in that respect—and the papers of each candidate will be signed by all thirty electors.

It is possible, too, that the hustings speech making will be done away with for this election. There was also an idea that perhaps no speeches at all would be made during the campaign—at least it was intended on the government side not to take the stump unless the opposition did so first—but the opposition this morning announced meetings and speeches for this week, so likely the government forces will also be heard from.

Borden Club Meeting.

A special meeting of the R. L. Borden Club held Monday in the rooms of the St. John Conservative Club, Breeze's Corner, was largely attended. President Armstrong explained the meeting was to decide what stand the club would take in the coming local contest. After some discussion the following resolution was moved by Milton Price, seconded by Earl Logan and carried unanimously.

Resolved, that the R. L. Borden Club of St. John, which was organized in the interests of good government, and which has been in the coming provincial election on behalf of the opposition party, whose object is to stamp out opportunism, which is so characteristic of the present administration, and all those other evils which are the cause of the basic principles of responsible government, and whose policy in general is to promote the welfare of the community at large, irrespective of the pretensions and special interests of individuals whether in public or private life.

The following resolution, moved by W. H. Harrison, was carried unanimously:

Resolved, that the action of the local government in bringing on the present election at the end of the year just three days before the new year's day, was a deliberate attempt, thereby preventing a large number of young men from casting their votes, and that the young men in these constituencies and in the other constituencies of the province, who are so young and so full of life, should be encouraged to vote.

The meeting was then addressed by J. D. Hazen and Robert Maxwell. All members of the club are requested to attend the next meeting. The club will meet again on Thursday, January 6.

An opposition meeting will be held in Temple Hall, Main street, Thursday evening next. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock sharp. The meeting will be addressed by Robert Maxwell, the candidate; L. P. D. Tilly, Harry O. McInerney, and J. D. Hazen, M. P. P.

On Friday evening next a grand rally will be held in the committee rooms, Breeze's Corner. Addresses will be delivered by Alderman Maxwell and others.

George Calen, general baggage agent of the I. C. R., has been appointed vice-president of the New England Association of General Baggage Agents.

The year 1905 will see the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the business now conducted by the W. H. Hayward Company, Limited. The business was established in 1855 by the late William Warwick and W. H. Hayward, the store being situated in Water street.

John Rhea has made public correspondence between License Inspector Jones and himself relative to the enforcement of the provisions of the law that say there shall be only one door to a bar. Mr. Rhea observes the law and asks that others be compelled to. A meeting of the commissioners will be called to deal with the matter.

The friends of Florence B. McCarthy, of Bath & McCarthy, tailors, will sympathize with him in the death of his sister, Miss Katherine T. McCarthy, which occurred Sunday morning after several weeks' illness. She was the youngest daughter of the late Daniel and Ellen McCarthy. Her funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from her late residence, 24 Pond street. Her brother and two sisters survive.

Anderson, the Swede who, as reported some time ago, was brought here from Winnipeg last week to be deported on the steamer Lake Erie, was one of the passengers—though an unwilling one—on that steamer sailing from Saint John Saturday. The immigration agent who brought Anderson here from Winnipeg also brought word that the Swede was being deported for pocket-picking in the western city, a resident of which he had been but a few weeks. While detained here, Anderson has been in charge of Immigration Agent Lantlam.

Judging from present indications it is believed the new ferry steamer, being built in Hillyard's yard, North End, will be finished within contract time—by the first of April. Mr. Burney, the inspector, superintends the work of construction, and he is well satisfied with the work being done. It is expected that in about a week the hull of the boat has been set up in place. Forty men are employed, among them many carpenters. Much of their work has consisted in having the timbers to be used for the hull, but yesterday they began to piece wood.

REV. MR. ROACH VERY LOW

Solemn Scene in Main Street
Baptist Church as People
Prayed for Dying
Pastor.

Rev. Howard H. Roach was very low Sunday evening.

The service Sunday morning in his church (Main street Baptist) was of a most impressive nature. The heartfelt prayers of the congregation were offered in behalf of the pastor who had so firmly established himself in the affections of his people; and in the sermon, preached by Rev. Perry J. Shackleton, a chaste and tender and sympathetic character were made.

Just prior to the opening of the service, the pastor, Mr. Roach, was very low, and a few minutes of silent prayer on the part of the congregation, the hymns sung during the service were Holy, Holy, and Lord Kindly Light.

At the close of Sunday school in the afternoon Superintendent McAlary summed up the teachers and it was unanimously resolved to postpone the service to take place next Sunday, also the (Christ) mass supper arranged for the 29th inst.

Rev. Mr. Roach's father has arrived here from Clarence (N. S.) and it is expected that his brother, who is connected with the detective service of Massachusetts, will be sent for. A sister was in the city on Saturday.

All yesterday there were many inquiries regarding Mr. Roach. In his comparative brief pastorate here he has formed many enduring friendships, for his rare qualities of heart and mind have been widely and deeply appreciated. Not only in the homes around Haymarket square and Marsh bridge, but throughout the city some these duties.

The small epidemic of a few years ago cannot be forgotten. Regardless of personal considerations, he placed himself at the disposal of the families of the afflicted, and the utmost self-sacrifice marked all of his labors during that memorable period.

In Main street church, his pastorate of the families of the afflicted, and the utmost self-sacrifice marked all of his labors during that memorable period.

Rev. Mr. Roach is suffering from heart disease with serious complications.

The condition of Rev. H. H. Roach was about the same up to early Monday night. About 10 o'clock it was reported that he was sinking. He was not conscious. Hope for his recovery.

And the physicians in attendance believe that he can hardly survive another day.

ORPHAN BABY DEAD

Little One Succumbs to Diphtheria in Orphanage—Only One New Case.

The outbreak of diphtheria at St. Vincent's convent assumed quite a serious aspect on Saturday and some twenty-five or thirty of the children are suffering from the disease, the majority being mild cases.

Sunday, however, thanks to prompt treatment by Drs. McInerney and McCully, the children were nearly all reported to be progressing very well. From the outset the case of little Edna McInerney gave Doctors McInerney and McCully the operation of incubation was performed in an effort to save the child's life. Nothing availed, however, the little one's strength was not equal to the strain, and she passed away yesterday afternoon.

Baby Edna was but two and a half years old—the baby of the institution.

The malady spread, it is thought, from a little one who was taken into the home last week. None suspected sickness and it had obtained its hold before anyone was aware. There are eighty children in St. Vincent's and every care has been taken to keep those suffering from diphtheria completely isolated. The more severe cases are kept by themselves and the milder ones are also in a separate ward, while the remainder of the children are so placed as to prevent the infection spreading.

A number of the sisters have been detailed and devote their whole time to nursing the little sufferers and the arrangements for the comfort of all concerned are as complete as possible.

A number of the sisters who are teachers at St. Joseph's school, Sydney street, have taken up their residence in the Mater Misericordiae Home so that they may continue their duties.

The St. Vincent's convent has been closed.

NEW BRUNSWICKER
BLEBETED ALDERMAN

Westmorland county readers will be pleased to learn of the success of Thomas W. Sutherland, a native of Shadash, who on Dec. 13 was elected to the position of alderman in ward one, Sonerville (Mass.) by the largest vote ever polled for a Republican candidate in that ward. The following is from the Boston Transcript:—

"A gentleman who appears to have all the necessary qualifications for a strong and able member of the council, and who is a native of Shadash, who on Dec. 13 was elected to the position of alderman in ward one, Sonerville (Mass.) by the largest vote ever polled for a Republican candidate in that ward.
