Weary and sad, she turned her eye,
On the Doctor by her bed.
'Is there no cure for this aching pain,
Must I so soon be dead?''
The Doctor cleared his husky throat,
And unto her he said: "Facts are facts," sobbed the man of pills,
"You'll soon be free from toil;
In the meantime take from this little phial
A dose of Coa Liver Oil—
It will ease your chest, relieve the pain,
And we, King Death, may foil."

Into a spoon, of silver bright,
He poured the stream of gold,
Sheswallowed the draught, and gasping asked,
"Oh, where is this mixture sold;"
It comes in casks from Newfoundland,
And in bottles here is doled. (n King street, number twenty-four-Sign of the perfame case-Stands the Pharmaceutical Pharmacy, And here we slacken pace, We enter in, supply our wants, And smiles light up our face. Grul'y trears its mas ive head,
