

NOVEMBER.

LEGAL REFORM—PRACTICE IN THE COURTS BELOW.

There's a reform coming, boys,

A reform coming :

No matter what the "Big-wigs" say

This is the only real way

In the reform coming.

Then legal lies shan't bully truth,

For justice will be stronger,

And honesty wout be afraid ;

Wait a little longer.

There's a reform coming, boys,

A reform coming ;

There's a reform coming, boys—

Wait a little longer.

There's a reform coming, boys,

A reform coming :

Law in all men's eyes shall be

A monster of iniquity.

In the reform coming

Clients shal not quarrel then,

To prove which is the stronger :

Or let their cash the lawyers take—

Wait a little longer.

There's a reform coming, boys, &c.

There's a reform coming,

A reform coming :

When poor debtors shall not be

Punished for their poverty,

In the reform coming.

When the poor the rich will help,

The weak lean on the stronger,

Things as strange have come to pass—

Wait a little longer.

There's a reform coming, boys, &c.

There's a reform coming, boys,

A reform coming :

Silly people will rot till

For cash the legal pot to boil.

For the reform coming.

When old Nick his ladle wields,

To see which is the stronger,

Every one will say he's right—

Wait a little longer.

There's a reform coming, boys,

A reform coming ;

There's a reform coming, boy—

Wait a little longer.

Give the Devil his due.
