Carruthers-Stevenson.

A pretty wedding took place at six o'clock Wednesday evening, Dec. 30th, at the home of Mr. George Stevenson, Ekfrid, when his daughter, Ethel Minnie, was married to Thomas H. Carruthers, son of Mr. Jas. Carruthers, of Caradoc. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Baker, of Toronto, former pastor of the bride, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. At the hour appointed the piano sounded forth Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by the younger sister of the bride, Miss Myrtle-Stevenson, and the groom took his place under a floral horseshoe of white narcissus, roses and smilax. Then followed the bride, leaning on the arm of ber father, looking most charming gowned in ivory charmeline trimmed with brilliants and lace, wearing a bridal vefl and carrying a bouquet of white spees, lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns. After the ceremony and congratulations the company repaired to the dining-room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride's travelling suit was navy blue with black velvet hat with plume. The presents to the bride and groom were numerous and beautiful. The happy couple left on the evening train for London and Toronto.
