

A Night's Worth of English Inspiration

is ety and Creative Writing on Campus are hosting "A Night of Inspiration," a party to be held on December 14th, at 8 pm. at the North Church, 5657 North Street.

The idea of the party is to have people from all over Halifax who wish to perform, to do so. Musicians and Actors from the Music and Theatre Departments at Dalhousie will be able to perform their pieces before an audience in advance of performing them in front of the judges for their upcoming exams. Also, writers from SMU, Dalhousie, and members of the Nova Scotia Writer's Federation are invited to read their pieces. Bands from around town will be able to play.

Society Party

A Night of Inspiration hosted by the Dalhousie Undergraduate English Society & Creative Writing on Campus December 14th, 8:00pm The Church, 5657 North St.

The wonderful aspect of this is that creative individuals will meet and see other creative individuals, and will have the opportunity to pair up and create something completely new. There will be a bowl in which anyone who places their name will have the chance of being called out during the evening with another person who has put their name in, and together will he Dalhousie Under- be asked to come up with some graduate English Soci- piece of performance. It isn't to create masterpieces, but to break down barriers of your art form, have it combined with someone else's, and together gain a perspective, or have an inspirational experience that will benefit your art, and of course inspire the audience. The opportunity is for the fiddle player to accompany the poet, or the dancer to accompany the theatre troupe, or the singer to accompany the dancer, or the mime to accompany everyone! The possibilities are endless. And hopefully, the informality of the bowl will be replaced by impromptu pairings, triplings etc., in which individuals, who have become inspired by another's piece, will approach and suggest ideas of how their art could be mixed with the other's. Art forms will no longer be isolated onto themselves, but be in a forum in which ideas will influence and inspire other ides.

> Halifax is the perfect city for something like this to happen. Everyone knows of each other and connections are easily made. The diversity of talent combined with the compaction of population are the perfect ingredients for a cultural explosion. Get ready to be blown away!

> Please contact Ramona Ryan at 424-9645, if you know you will be performing before the night of the party.
