Graham captures a bronze medal at the Ryerson Open
The Yeomen wrestling team went up against some stiff competition this past weekend when they took part in the Annual Ryerson Open. Veteran Jonathan Graham was the only successful York wrestler as he captured the bronze medal in his 158 lb. weight category.

Yeomen are in first despite loss to McMaster
York remains in first place in the OUAA hockey league despite their 7-4 loss to McMaster last Friday evening in Hamilton. After ten games the Yeomen have an impressive 6-3-1 record with 56 goals for and 37 against. The Yeomen have two players, Claudio Lessio and Alf Beasley in the top five of the scoring race. Beasley is fourth with a 5-13-18 record while Lessio is fifth with a 9-7-16 record.

Shortstops

This weekend on campus...
The hockey Yeowomen (3-2) host the Queen's Golden Gaels (1-3) at the York Ice arena on Saturday, December 5 at 2 pm. The field hockey Yeowomen host an indoor tournament on Saturday also. The action begins at noon in the Tait McKenzie gym. The 4-0 basketball Yeowomen take on the defending Ontario champions, Laurentian Voyageurs, in a regular season OWIAA game on Friday, December 4 at 8 pm. in the Tait McKenzie gym.

Yeowomen synchronized swim team finish fourth
York finished fourth in their initial OWIAA regional meet here at York on the weekend. "We have a green team this year. We'll get better as the season goes along," said coach Pat Murray. "Nervousness played a large part in their placing. We need a bit of time to pull ourselves together." Andrea Whiteacre finished 3rd in the senior figures and 2nd in solo.

Yeomen conquer the east

The York Yeomen continue to dominate the OUAA volleyball league, especially the eastern teams. The Yeomen are in first place in the east with a commanding 8-0 record following three victories during the past week.

The Yeomen disposed of the Ryerson Rams in easy fashion as it took them 34 minutes to post 15-3, 15-5 and 15-5 scores.

Travelling to Sudbury over the weekend, the Yeomen took two straight games from the Laurentian Voyageurs. But their final match against the Voyageurs was not so easy.

After losing the opening game 15-5, York fought back to even the set at 1-1 with a 15-10 victory.

They went on to win the final two games by 15-11 and 15-8 scores thus continuing their undefeated OUAA season.

Veteran Mark Ainsworth led the team to their victory as he set a team record with six service aces. He also contributed defensively with a game high 13 digs and 7 blocks.

Offensively, Ainsworth added 10 kills while teammates Larry Simpson and John May notched 13 and 16 kills respectively.
