

by the Prince Rupert Police, put aboard an outgoing steamer for her home village, on Queen Charlotte Islands, where she was placed under the eye of the Massett council.

Birth-rate. Not having statistics I am unable to report on this subject.

Buildings. The Indians continue to make splendid progress in the matter of building, most of their earnings going to competitive home making. I am pleased to report that in their homes the Indians seem to be happy and industrious.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Charles E. Taylor
Indian Agent.
