

The 50 acre piece of land on Nicks Island is outside the dike and subject to flooding in high water and is rather a speculative parcel to count on farming. When the water is high the land cannot be cropped but in years of low water it is excellent farming land.

J. D. Caldwell
J. D. Caldwell,
Acting Indian Agent.

