

DUTIES OF LIBRARIAN.

28. The Librarian shall take charge and proper care of all books belonging to library; receive the library fee from the borrowers; collect all fines and donations in connection with the library and pay the same over to the Treasurer, taking a receipt for same. See that the Secretary accredit the library fund with the proper appropriation and keep an accurate account of the library fund. He shall receive all books and donations, and keep an alphabetical catalogue of all the library books, and see that the same are properly numbered. He shall attend all meetings of the Society to lend books and receive them when returned. He shall keep a correct list of all the borrowers, and the books they have in their possession, and the date when the books were borrowed. And give an annual statement of the financial standing of the library fund, the number of books borrowed, etc.

AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS.

29. Any by-law may be amended by a two-third vote of the members present at a special meeting after notice in writing has been given to the Secretary, which notice must be read at a regular business meeting, preceding said special meeting.

30. This Society cannot be dissolved as long as five members wish to continue it; and none of its funds or property shall be devoted to any other cause than the carrying out of the aims and objects of the Society.