

EXTREME ...LOW... PRICES.

On Tea almost ruined the tea industry. Very often to help make up for the low prices, the growers sent out teas that never should have been used.

When you buy any grade of English Breakfast Teas you are getting excellent value. In our 60c grade we have one of the finest flavored teas ever sold. It is not so strong as the others, but then its FLAVOR in tea that costs and what tea drinkers want.

ENTERPRISING FIRM

Northwood & Co. have purchased the confectionery business of Miss Annie Wigzell. Stock is being taken to-day and the transfer will be made at once. Northwood & Co. will continue their wholesale business as before, but in addition will conduct a retail store also. They will probably erect a large warehouse in the rear of their new quarters. Miss Wigzell has been in poor health for some time and has not been able to give the splendid business she has built up all the attention she thought it needed. Miss Wigzell decided to retire from active business and take a well earned and needed rest. As soon as she has rested a little, Miss Wigzell will take a trip to Banff and other points on the Pacific Coast.

The Wigzell store was one of the most popular in the city. The business was purchased from W. J. Watson by Miss Wigzell. By careful attention and enterprise, she succeeded in building up a splendid trade and made her mark in the city as a shrewd young business woman.

TO CHATHAM

Probability that the Big Scotch Picnic will be held in the Maple City

Quite a large representation of Scotsmen and their friends gathered at S. O. S. lodge rooms last night and discussed the advisability of bringing the Scotch Picnic to Chatham on the 13th of August. Mr. A. Samson, of Blenheim, who has been the secretary and masterhand of this fathering of the clans since its inception, was present and gave those in attendance the benefit of his experience, and placed himself right in line to again manage the project.

A strong committee, composed of Messrs. W. D. Sheldon, Robt. Gray, Archie Park, P. D. McKellar and Dr. Russell, was appointed to consult and canvass the merchants and business men of the city.

Mr. Samson, as usual, has several large attractions awaiting an answer. Among others, the famous 48th Highland Band, of Toronto, with pipers and dancers, who have just returned from an extensive tour of the U. S. A.

Some of America's famous scullers are also ready to come, and as the gathering of the clans is held in Detroit on the 12th of August a great many from the east will lay over in Chatham on their way home.

It is estimated that not less than 12,000 people will be in Chatham that day and it behooves every citizen to do all in his power to provide entertainment for those present.

It is proposed to give notice on the bills that Chatham business places will be open for business and the factories for inspection. Our citizens need not be ashamed to invite people to view their city now, as it is a credit to Canada, and for tidiness and beautiful store fronts puts in the shade many larger places.

ASIATIC LABOR,

MR. CHAMBERLAIN FRANKLY
GIVES HIS VIEWS.

Would Not Consent to it For Transvaal so Long as Public Opinion is Hostile.

London, July 28.—During the course of the debate in the House of Commons, on the second reading of the Transvaal loan bill, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, referring to the proposal to introduce Asiatic labor into South Africa, declared that so long as public opinion was hostile to the proposition he would not consent to it. He believed, however, that opinion on the subject was changing, and if the majority demanded the importation of Indian coolies, he would not object to it. In regard to Chinese labor, Mr. Chamberlain said that not a single suggestion looking to the employment of Chinese in South Africa had ever been officially brought to the notice of the Transvaal Government.

DESPERATE CONVICTS.

Successful Fight for Liberty at Folsom, California.

Sacramento, Cal., July 28.—A despatch from Folsom says: Thirteen desperate prisoners, confined in the Folsom Penitentiary, made a successful break for liberty at the breakfast hour. After a fierce fight in the captain's office, during which Turnkey Cochran was fatally stabbed, Guard Cotter was killed and Officer Palmer was cut on the head, they seized their arms and ammunition, and, using the warden and other officials as shields, escaped. To-night, it is believed, they are making for the Bald Mountain. State troops, ordered out by Governor Pardee, have gone to the scene. The fight took place after the convicts had gone to the office of R. J. Murphy, Captain of the Guard, and seized Warden Wilkinson, his grandson, Harry Wilkinson, Captain Murphy and several other officers and guards. The convicts were armed with knives and razors, and with these they assaulted Warden Wilkinson and his officers. The warden's clothing was slashed into shreds, but he was not wounded. Turnkey Cochran fought the convicts with a chair, raining blows upon them right and left. Finally he was felled by a knife-thrust in the back. Guard Cotter was dismembered by a cut in the abdomen, and died a few hours later. Palmer was severely cut. The floor of the office was covered with blood.

The officers were outnumbered and soon relieved of their arms. Then, using the officers as shields, the convicts started for the armory on the outskirts of the penitentiary grounds. They passed a Gatling gun on one of the walls, but the guards were afraid to shoot for fear of killing the prison officials. When the armory was reached the officers there attempted to interfere, but were quickly overpowered, and the convicts took a supply of weapons and ammunition and made a dash for the country. The convicts marched beside Wilkinson, and the officers were told if any of the pursuers took the life of one of their number that they would retaliate, life for life. At Mormon Bridge, about a mile from the penitentiary, the warden, his grandson, and Captain Murphy were released and sent back. Others were marched along with the convicts. Further on the convicts went to a farmer's house, seized his four horse team and wagon, robbed the house, took the farmer with them as a driver, and headed for Bald Mountain.

People with competent servants as a rule are easily done for.

Time spent in courtesy is never wasted.
