

REPORT OF SESSION, 1889-90.

The past session, of which a report has now been submitted, whilst not presenting any very salient features for notice, was yet one of steady work and progress. In common with too many other persons and institutions, the College did not escape the prevailing epidemic, which fell upon most of its members with such severity as, in two or three instances, to involve the loss of the session, but happily without greater detriment.

The opening service was held on Tuesday, October 1st, the address being delivered by the Rev. Dr. MacKinnon, of Bowden, Manchester, in response to the invitation of the Board, and the College is under great obligation to him for the valuable service thus rendered. A pleasing incident of the proceedings, was the presentation to the Secretary, in accordance with the recognition of his services during the past 26 years, as Secretary of the College.

The following applications for admission as students were received from :—

- (1) William A. Gerrie ; Garafraxa, First Church.....Full Course.
- (2) Robert Adams ; Sarnia Church.....Full Course.
- (3) James R. Adams ; Bond Street, Toronto.....Full Course.
- (4) Alexander Macauley ; Sarnia Church..... Theological Course.

These applications were received on probation, on the completion of which, three were admitted as regular students ; whilst the other was recommended, on the ground of inadequate preparation, to withdraw his application.

Leave of absence was granted, on grounds satisfactory to the Board, to Messrs. Hamilton and Horsey, who will resume their attendance next session.

Messrs. Bessey and Kenyon have been permitted to withdraw from the College.

The sessional roll, therefore, stood as follows :—

- (1) F. W.
- (2) James
