Daniel 3 : 13-28. Study Daniel, ch. 3—Memory Verses, 17, 18.

Golden Text—The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.—Hebrews 13 : 6.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments.

22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire. 27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. 28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Sha'drach, Me'shach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

THE LESSON RETOLD

Now Nebuchadnezzar, who had caused the four Jewish boys to be trained for his service, worshiped idols, and he set up on a wide, level plain in his kingdom a great golden image. Then, gathering together all the great men of his kingdom, he commanded that every one should fall down and worship the image; whoever would not do so, was to be cast into a fiery furnace.

Amongst those gathered on the wide plain, were Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, the three boys who had been trained with Daniel, and who were now young men and helped Nebuchadnezzar in ruling over his kingdom.

When the sound of the music, which was the signal for every one to bow down to the idol, rang out, these three young men stood looking straight before them, for they were servants of the one true God and could not worship idols.

Then some of their enemies came to Nebuchadnezzar and told him how the three young Jews had disobeyed him. Nebuchadnezzar was very angry, and said, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, if you fall down and worship the image I have made, well. But if not, you shall be cast immediately into the
