It will not be easy to forget the thrill and subduing effect of the opening.

A Waldenesian delegate, Prochet, gave an intion building. The concourse was literally overflowing. Flags of many nations, symbols consecrated by proud recollections and historical associations bung from the front of the gallaries, and were alluded to amid rapturous applause, by more than one eloquent speaker. Dr. Adams was followed by the introduction of Lord Alfred Churchill who read the address of greeting from the British Alhance. Lord Churchill's power is not shewn to much advantage in an audience so large; but the genial spirit which be manifested and the allusion made by him to the feeling of cordiality existing between England and the United States, excited enthusiasm. Dr. Stoughton, a well known and very able congregationalist minister of London, followed in a similar strain, expressive of the pleasure he experienced in mingling with all classes in the United States — was particulary delighted by a visit to one of the public schools in which the girls naturally as if "to the manor born" "sang "God save the Queen," and then with a pause" sentatives, as for the conditions and requirements by Dr. Hodge, of the conditions and requirements of Christianity.

According to the programme the next part of the subject: "The communion of saints, modes and manifestations," was to have been taken up by Bishop Simpson of the Methodist church. The frequent eulogies one hears of the eloquent and earnest Methodist bishop made some of us exceedingly desirous of hearing him, and great was the disappointment when the announcement was made that an editor, Dr. Crook's, was to take the place of the Bishop Dr. Crook's address was really admirable and he made some capital points, and had be come for himself there would have been no one more welcome. Some how the Methodist, Baptist and Episcopalian churches of the United States have not appeared to advantage in their representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or representatives, as for the churches of the same or represen Dr. Adams was followed by the introduction of Lord Alfred Churchill who read the discount of Lord Alfred Churchill who read the discount of Lord Alfred Churchill who read the discount of continuous and requirements of continuous from the Reitish Allenge. to the same tune sang "God bless our native land." Time would fail to tell of the venerable Dr. Fisch of Paris, who has suffered much for the truth, and who felt at home in a land rich with Hugenot memories; of the Rev. F. Conlin of Geneva, a tall, dark Swiss, whose imperfect acquaintance with English words, made him wish there was only one language as there was in christeadom but one faith; of Prof. Dorner, a white haired, square because intellectual-looking gentlemsn from browed, intellectual-looking gentlems from Berlin, who did not quite meet the expectation produced by his fame and soholarly appearance. Prof. Christfliet, who said that in the use of Prot. Christfliet, who said that in the use of the English tongue, he felt like young David girding on Saul's armour, but whose splendid physique, massive brow, and the impression of reserve force which his manner conveys, tell powerfully upon the audience, and when as a German he took the hand of the French Pastor Fisch by the hand, and wished to forget on Smith does not strike one as refined and Smith does not strike one as refined and German he took the band of the French Pastor Fisch by the hand, and wished to forget on that platform all national and political differences, the enthusiasm of the meeting reached its height—most sprang to their feet and some waved their hats. The Rev. Cohen Stuart regretted that he was the only representative from Holland. The two last speakers, who were certainly not least, were the Rev. Narayan Sheshadri, a native Brahmin, who appeared on the platform in native costume, white turban &c., speaks the English language gith great correctness, the most remarkable thing being a decidedly Scotch accent; and Charles Reed, a fine looking English gentleman, member of the British Parliament and son of the late medical Dr. Reed ot London.

An opening prayer by the venerable Dr. Hodge, of Princeton, embodied the faith of the Prstestant Churches in acknowledgment of the Triune God, the Eternal Father, the Only bogotten Son, and the ever-blessed Spirit. The 17th Ch. of John was selected, and seemed so fitting to the surroundings that one almost felt that in uttering those precious words on the ever of his cross and passion, the Omniscient eye of Josus looking along the ages, rested upon some such assembly of his fellowers, seeking the ac-

MESSES. R. C. MARGESON & Co.—Dear Sirs: Please accept this testimony from one who has been suffering for upwards of five years from Gravel and Stone in the Bladder, and was advised by my friends to try your Calculifuge. I did so, and am happy to say that after using the two bottles you sent me last summer, it entirely cured me. I passed five stones the size of small peas, and upwards of a wine-glassful of smaller ones and gravel, and will send them to you by the first chance. I would advise all that are suffering with the same complaint, to secure your valuable medicine at once, as it has been the sole means of curing me. I will take pleasure in giving all the information I can to all that will call to see me at my house.

Messes. R. C. Margeson & Co.—Dear Sirs: I was a great sufferer for upwards of eighteen years with that most distressing complaint. the Gravel. Tried many kinds of medicine as well as different Doctors, but got only temporary relief at short intervals. I saw your medicine advertised called Calculifuge, as well as different certificates from those who suffered, with the same complaint. Feeling encouraged, I resolved to try it, and after taking three bottles, I found myself nearly cured, and am of the opinion that the fourth bottle will make a final cure.

Wishing you every success, I remain yours, (jy23—3m) JOHN DUMBRACK, SENE. HALIFAX, July 18, 1873.
