Business.

The better value we give you, the more business you'll give us. That's business. Our business grows. Competition invites prices. Lower prices mean—a lowering of quality. That we will not do. So we take small profits and make quick sales. Business spreads among the smaller grocers—and we are glad to have it so with "Gold Dust." Clean—evenly cut—golden yellow "Gold Dust." The corn meal that always satisfies.
