

FINGERPOSTS TO FORTUNE.

Create a personality. This is perhaps one of the greatest secrets which lead to success. Amongst your own little circle let your influence be felt, gradually the circle will be widened, and you will have a larger field to exert that influence. Never neglect an opportunity. There are many people to-day who know that they have not won either wealth or fame because they were afraid to venture, afraid to take the path which suddenly opened out to them. To succeed wants courage. If an opportunity suddenly looms before you, there is no time to ponder as to whether you have the necessary qualifications to undertake it. The place is there ready to be filled; it must be taken, and you must at once resolve to fill it. Make no enemies. This at first, may seem impossible, but nothing is impossible to him who wills. "If you have friends, you have enemies," is the popular belief, but that is not so.

GETTING RIGHT.

Possible Boarder: "Ah, that was a ripping dinner, and if that was a fair sample of your meals I should like to come to terms."
Scotch Farmer: "Before we gang any farther, was that a fair sample o' yer appetite?"

Mr. Kipling's Canadian Tour.

Ontario and all Eastern Canada is deeply disappointed that Mr. Kipling, upon the occasion of his recent visit to Canada, should have only seen "The West from a Car Window" and the East not at all. The older provinces are always proud and never jealous of the West, into which they are sending their shekels and their sons. With all his powers as a word painter, it is hardly to be expected that Mr. Kipling can do justice to all of Canada. He has not seen the thriving cities and towns of Ontario, with its splendid railways, mills, and manufacturing industries. He had only a fleeting glimpse of Toronto, and saw nothing of the score or more other industrial centres of the Dominion. It is too bad, Canadians believe, that he should have spent the most of the time which he was able to give to the study of conditions in the Dominion to the troubled shores of the Pacific. With no desire to minimize the seriousness of the labor disturbances out there, or to disguise the fact that Canada is in sore need of more men to carry forward the work in hand, Canadians would have been proud of some pen pictures by Mr. Kipling of the industrial East, where the people are prosperous and happy. This conviction is by no means local—it is widespread, universal. ("Canada," London, Eng., Nov. 16th, 1907.)

He: "Mabel, you grow more beautiful every day!" She (pleased): "Oh, Jack, you do exaggerate!" He: "Well, then, every other day!"

PLACED AT THE BACK OF THE SPINE. The D & L's Mental Plaster allays nervous excitement. They are equally as efficacious in pain, backache and muscular pains.

An old gentleman finding a couple of his nieces fencing the other day with broomsticks, said: "Come, come, my dears; that kind of accomplishment will not help you to get husbands." "I know it, uncle," responded one of the girls, "but it will help us to keep our husbands in order when we have them."

In Nature's Storehouse There are Cures. — Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is held by some that Nature provides a cure for every disease which neglect and ignorance have visited upon man. However, this may be, it is well known that Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, distilled from roots and herbs, are a sovereign remedy in curing all disorders of the digestion.

HER ONLY HOPE.

Tess: "Mary Brown is spelling her name 'M-a-r-y' now."
Jess: "Let her; that's about the only chance she will ever get to change her name."

ITCH. Mange, Psoriasis, Scabies and every form of contagious Itch in human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Wolford's Sanitary Lotion. It never fails. Sold by all druggists.

REAL STICKERS.

The teacher had been reading to the class about the great forests of America. "And now, boys," she announced afterward, "which one of you can tell me the pine that has the longest and sharpest needles?"
Up went a hand in the front row. "The porcupine, ma'am."

ISSUE NO. 49-07.

DOCTORS THOUGHT BABY WAS CONSUMPTIVE.

A LETTER TO ANXIOUS MOTHERS is written by Mrs. F. W. Kittle, of Kirkdale, P. Q., who says: "My little 4-year-old boy suffered since he was 18 months old from a bad leg. I tried many salves and had doctors attend him, but none did him any good. The doctors told me it was in the blood, and he was in consumption. I only wish now I had had more faith in Zam-Buk, for it immediately healed the boy's leg. He is now nearly 4 years old and looks far from being consumptive. He is now a strong, healthy boy, thanks to Zam-Buk. I hope this letter will help many anxious mothers."

Mothers Take Heart. Don't be discouraged because everything has failed to heal your child until you have tried Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk is Nature's Healing Balm, and quickly overcomes and removes all skin diseases. It is equally good for young and old.

For all skin diseases Zam-Buk is without equal. It cures ulcers, festering sores, ringworm, cuts, bruises, chapped hands, boils, eczema, etc., etc. All stores and druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50 cents a box, or post-paid from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

CURING IT.

"He doesn't spend much time at home, you say?"

"No, he has become so grouchy of late he puts in his time at his club and leaves his wife at home alone."

"Why, he used to dote on her?"

"Yes, but now he's using the club as an anti-dote."

A cure for Costiveness.—Costiveness comes from the refusal of the excretory organs to perform their duties regularly from contributing causes usually disordered digestion. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, prepared on scientific principles, are so compounded that certain ingredients in them pass through the stomach and act upon the bowels so as to remove their torpor and arouse them to proper action. Many thousands are prepared to bear testimony to their power in this respect.

"Have you broken off your engagement, old man? What's the matter?" "Well, I was hard up, you see, so I quarrelled and had all my presents returned, and was able to realize upon them. Couldn't possibly have raised the money any other way."

MARK THIS DISTINCTION: A purely local disease of the skin, like barber's itch, is cured by Weaver's Curative. But where the blood is loaded with impurity, such as Salt Rheum, Weaver's Syrup also should be used.

A striking example of presence of mind had just occurred in the history lesson, and the teacher considered it an opportune moment for inculcating upon her class the many advantages of resourcefulness. "Now, children," she said, "supposing a tiger were to seize one of you in its hungry jaws and carry you off into the jungle, what would you do?" No reply. "You tell me, Tommy," she continued, pointing to one of the brightest youngsters. Tommy hesitated. "Come, Tommy," she said. "Would you cry for help?" "No, ma'am," said he; "mother says little boys shouldn't speak at meal times."

He—"Tell me, confidentially, how much did that bonnet cost you?" She—"George, there is but one way in which you can obtain the right to inspect my millinery bills." He popped.

Often what appear to be the most trivial occurrences of life prove to be the most momentous. Many are disposed to regard a cold as a slight thing, deserving of little consideration, and this neglect often results in most serious ailments entailing years of suffering. Drive out colds and coughs with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the recognized remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

"Do you know, my husband had a terrible habit of sleeping in church, but he broke himself of it." "How?" "Gave up going."

WHAT DO PEOPLE NEED who are run down, anemic, pale, listless? "Ferrovia," the best tonic. It builds, makes strong, it gives new life. There are many tonics but only one "Ferrovia."

"Your daughter is a skillful performer on the piano, is she not?" asked the family friend. "Yes," answered Mr. Cunningham. "The way she can play for hours without getting an earache or a sprained wrist proves to me that she's uncommonly expert."

Holloway's Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts and only costs the small sum of twenty-five cents.

ROBBED UNCLE BY SMART TRICK.

His Nephew Impersonated Him to His Notary.

Marcel Laurent, aged 17, was sentenced at Nancy, France, to eighteen months' hard labor, and a fellow-student, Emile Vincent, to three years' penal servitude, for defrauding Laurent's uncle, who had promised to keep a sharp eye on his wayward nephew. Marcel, after a few weeks at his uncle's house, discovered that he had $4,000 worth of stock at a certain bank. Knowing that every afternoon the uncle went to a cafe, the two youths bought a white beard and wig, and Vincent succeeded in making him up to look like M. Laurent. Then Marcel went to his uncle's notary and said, "My uncle is very ill, and requires your presence this afternoon."

The notary arrived. The door was opened to him by Marcel, who conducted him to the supposed sick man's bedroom. The windows were closed and the curtains drawn, darkness being relieved only by a night light. In the bed lay Vincent, who, in a feeble voice, broken with terrible fits of coughing, explained that he wished the notary to prepare a power of attorney to enable his nephew to draw the $4,000 worth of securities from the bank. The notary, who said he was completely deceived, and feared that his client might expire at any moment, drew up the document. The nephew obtained the securities, and decided to go to Paris to negotiate them, when the notary accidentally exposed the plot by meeting one of M. Laurent's friends, and asking him if he were still alive. The youths were arrested at the station.

It is better to trust to your faults than to be false to your trust.

Trial Proves its Excellence.—The best testimonial one can have of the virtue of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the treatment of bodily pains, coughs, colds and affections of the respiratory organs, is a trial of it. If not found the sovereign remedy it is reputed to be, then it may be rejected as useless, and all that has been said in its praise denounced as untruthful.

Teacher—"The trunk is the middle part of the body. Freddie—"I say, teacher, I think you'd better go to the circus and see the elephant!"

IT'S EASY TO LET a cold hang on. Each night and day we are sure it will be gone, but it stays with us. Allen's Lung Balm will check its advance and restore health.

She: "I'm surprised at your kissing me in the conservatory just now." He: "My dear Miss Peachleigh, it's a failing of mine. I'm a chronic oscillatory kleptomaniac!"

There is nothing equal to Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator for destroying worms. No article of its kind has given such satisfaction.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

Joakley: "There's a fellow who gives himself dead away every time he starts talking."

Coakley: "You don't say? What's the trouble?"

Joakley: "He makes his living by posing as a deaf and dumb beggar."

Mrs. Fondma—"There! Isn't baby the image of his father?" Oidchum—"Absolutely! Same lack of expression, same red nose, no teeth to speak of—and, by George, prematurely bald, too!"

Shiloh's Cure for the worst cold, the sharpest cough—try it on a guarantee of your money back if it doesn't actually CURE quicker than anything you ever tried. Safe to take, nothing in it to hurt even a baby. 34 years of success commend Shiloh's Cure—25c., 50c., $1. 315

THE VALUE OF COD LIVER OIL

No physician would dispute the value of COD LIVER OIL in nervous and pulmonary diseases, if the nauseous grease did not so derange digestion as to more than counteract the good done by the therapeutic principles of the oil. In "BRICK'S TASTELESS" there is no grease. It increases the appetite, stimulates the digestion, invigorates the nerves by nourishing them, and CURES Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis. Its timely use is an insurance against serious consequences, as the weakened system is a prey to germ diseases, such as Tuberculosis, Typhoid and Typhus, Fever, and Dysentery. Brick's guarantee with every bottle is an evidence of our faith in this matchless Preparation. "BRICK'S TASTELESS" is put up in light (3 ounce bottles, retail price fifty (50) cents, and in twenty (20) ounce bottles, retail price one (1) dollar.

There is something wrong with the bride who doesn't select a homelier girl than herself for her bridesmaid. "Does your husband sleep sound?" asked Mrs. Cobbs, in the course of a call upon Mrs. Dobbs. "Sound?" responded Mrs. Dobbs. "Well, I should say so! I don't believe you or anybody else ever heard such sound, it's enough to stop an alarm clock!"
