

COMPLETELY LEFT ME"

Thomas Stephenson after
g GIN PILLS

O those who have suffered, year in and year out, from the dragging misery of Kidney Disease, anything that will relieve the pain is a blessing indeed. That is just what a well-known resident of Lachute Mills, Que., and his wife both found in GIN PILLS.

"I was troubled for many years with Kidney Disease, and a friend told me to take GIN PILLS. After taking a few boxes, I was greatly relieved, and after finishing the twelfth box, the pain completely left me."

My wife is now using GIN PILLS and finds that she has been greatly relieved of the pain over her kidneys.

"I can safely recommend anyone suffering from Kidney trouble to give a fair trial to GIN PILLS." THOMAS STEPHENSON.

Would you welcome such a relief? Then take GIN PILLS. They go right to the spot—ease the pain almost at once—neutralize the Uric Acid which is causing all the trouble—strengthen the kidneys so that they will be able to keep the blood pure—and quickly take away that weakness and tenderness of the back which undermine the energy and vigor of manhood and womanhood.

A trial. Every box is sold on the positive assurance of directions, do not help you, your simple if you write National Drug and Chemical

Lady Marjorie's Love

"You know what it is!" She faced him defiantly. "I am engaged to my cousin."

"Oh, that?" He laughed. "Oh, yes, now that you mention it, of course I know that! Her ladyship told me the other day that in a sort of fashion she believed it was dragging on still. But that's nothing—doesn't amount to anything. If he hasn't backed out yet, he will before long, that's certain."

"What do you mean, sir?"

"Mean?" He laughed again. "Why, I mean that he will," he said deliberately, "that's all. It was all right before Marlingford played up such a blessed game of ducks and drakes, no doubt, but now when he hasn't a penny and you have just about as much—well, he simply couldn't afford it, you know, and that's the long and the short of it. And you may rely upon it that he doesn't mean to try either, not he. That sort of thing isn't in Mr. Loftus Bligh's line. I take it, and so the Countess takes it too. I should think not—rather. Quite the reverse."

There was no answer, even though he scoffingly laughed again, for sheer choking rage held the girl dumb. Had he been between her and its brink, Mr. John Jocelyn might have found himself floundering in the river. Marjorie just at the moment was furious enough for anything, and had he stood so that one passionate thrust of her hands could have sent him there backwards into the river he would have certainly gone. But he was a little behind her, at her shoulder, and he could not see her face. He bent his head close to hers in speaking again.

"Come now, Marjorie, be sensible! That's the plain state of the case."

WOMAN ESCAPES DREADFUL OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." —Mrs. J. E. MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SUPPOSED SPY AT PORTSMOUTH

Sensation in England When Hunchback German Is Captured.

The authorities attach the greatest importance to the arrest of Wilhelm Klare, a young German, charged at Portsmouth on Thursday with an offence under the Official Secrets Act.

Klare, a short man, with broad shoulders and hunch back, appeared in court neatly dressed in a bluish grey suit with a three-quarter overcoat and Alpine hat. His appearance was altogether distinctly foreign.

The only witness was detective-inspector Savage, of the Metropolitan Police, stationed at Portsmouth. He explained that he was acting under instructions from Scotland Yard, whom he believed to be in communication with the Public Prosecutor. At 4.40 on Wednesday he was in company with Chief Inspector Sly and Sergeant Simpkins, of the Metropolitan Police, and Chief Superintendent Moore, of the Portsmouth Borough Police, in Queen street, keeping observation.

He saw Klare going in the direction of Edinburgh road, carrying a handbag. Klare was stopped by Sly, who spoke to him, whereupon witness arrested him under the Official Secrets Act. Prisoner said, "That's good" and on passing the shop of Rosenthal, who was standing at the door at the time, Klare turned to him and said, "This is clever. This is very good of you."

Witness took from Klare's bag a novel book on torpedoes (No. 212), and said, "You will be charged with respect to this." (The book was produced in court).

Witness, continuing, said Klare stated: "Rosenthal incited me. He has done this thing before." At Klare's address witness took possession of a number of documents.

Witness had known Klare to have been in the town for the past fourteen months, and Klare himself said he had been there for ten years. He described himself as a dentist, and certain indications in the room went to show that he had carried on dental work there. He had no shop.

Witness asked for a week's remand and Klare offering no objection, was remanded accordingly. It is stated that further charges may be preferred against Klare.

An official story of the arrest speaks of it as the exciting culmination of a smart police trap. Klare had been living at Portsmouth for several years, during the last two of which he has been under supervision by the Metropolitan Police on duty in the Dockyard. For the past six months Detective-Sergeant Simpkins has had the accused man under special observation.

The police learned some months ago that Klare got into conversation in the street at Portsmouth with a hairdresser named Rosenthal, who carries on business in Queen street, Portsmouth, near the Dockyard. Klare told Rosenthal that he wanted submarine plans—the very latest—and that there was no lack of money.

Rosenthal pretended that he was able to get the plans, and told Klare to call at his shop. The man did not call until a month later, when he apologized for the delay, and said he would write a letter. He further stated that the man who brought out of the Dockyard the signal book which he wanted—would get thirty pounds, whilst he (Klare) and Rosenthal would each get thirty-five pounds. The latter arranged to meet Klare at a restaurant opposite Rosenthal's shop.

The meeting took place on Wednesday, when Detective-Inspector Savage, of the Metropolitan Police, and other officers, were concealed in the restaurant. As soon as a signal book was brought in by a man acting under police instructions and handed to Klare the latter was arrested and taken to the Dockyard.

Could Not Heal The Wound

For many years Dr. Chase's Ointment has had an enviable reputation as a means of healing ulcers, sores and wounds, which refuse to yield to other treatments.

In this letter you will read of a case in which doctors failed to heal a wound made in operating. All sorts of treatments were tried in vain, until Dr. Chase's Ointment came to the rescue and made a cure.

Mr. C. E. Little, brakeman on the C.P.R., and living at Grand Falls, N.B., writes: "I have given Dr. Chase's Ointment a most severe test, and do not believe there is any treatment so successful as a healer of the skin. I was operated on for a tumor, which refused to heal, in spite of many preparations tried. Dr. Chase's Ointment healed the wound rapidly. So thankful am I for the cure that I want others to know about this wonderful ointment."

Lemon Rind.
The "zest" of lemon is the very thinnest possible grating of the yellow outer rind. If any of the white underneath is added the whole will become bitter.

A Kitchen Hint.
If you use a tin funnel as a twine holder in your kitchen, try cutting a notch in the small end of the funnel where the end of the twine comes through. Sharpen the edges of this notch with a small file, when the twine will cut easily.

Jamaica's Wood.
Jamaica has a great deal of valuable wood in its interior, but the streams are not large enough to bring it to the coast.

"CSACARETS" FOR A SICK SOUR-STOMACH
GENTLY CLEANSE AND REGULATE YOUR STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS WHILE YOU SLEEP.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be rectified until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a new box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

$3.50 RECIPE FOR WEAK MEN FREE.

SEND NAME AND ADDRESS TO DAY—YOU CAN HAVE IT FREE AND BE STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood, and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow-men to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting, restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-POUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 3732 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.
