Base Ball

(By the Sporting Editor)

The Waterdown Juniors lost to Flamboro Centre on Saturday last. The playing of both teams was ragged, more errors than runs. J. Wells batting for Flamboro Centre featured winning the game in the ninth inning. Umpire Kerr of Flamboro Centre came in for some undeserved comments from the home players. However anyone who knows Jack Kerr knows that he calls them as he sees them, playing no favorites. Umpire baiting must be stopped or names will be mentioned. The score by innings was:

Waterdown..... 0 0 1 1 6 1 1 0 2-12
Flamboro Cen. ... 0 0 3 3 0 2 2 0 3-13

Holiday Games

Waterdown Juniors got even with Flamboro Centre for the defeat of Saturday, beating them by the score of 11 to 10. Good baseball in spots kept the large crowd of spectators in good humor. Gordon's first attempt in the box proved him a comer. The score was:

Waterdown..... 1 0 6 0 2 2 x-11
Flamboro Cen. 6 1 1 0 0 2 0-10

The Seniors stacked up against Millgrove in the second event, and put up a very interesting game. The old time boys from Millgrove can still give the boys, in any of the districts, a run for their money. W. Carey fielding and batting in real old time form. A decision by the umpire in the last half of the tenth inning ended the game. Millgrove could not see it the way the umpire did, so called their team from the field with the score standing 9 to 8 in their favor.

It is the intention of the Overall Club to stage a hair pulling contest in the rink at an early date, for the championship of Waterdown and East Flamboro. It is said that the scalps of several of our local gladiators have become so tough from constant practice that it would require a stilliard stumping machine to remove even a small bunch of hair from the scalp. Several challenges have been received at the office from young ladies who are anxious to try conclusions with their male friends, but it has not as yet been decided whether females will be allowed to compete or not. Even the barbers are complaining of the toughness of the hair they are called upon to remove, which is caused no doubt by the constant abuse it is subjected to.

Be a Booster

One of the most striking lessons taught Col. Simpson on his recent tour of Western Canada was the limitless spirit of boosting animating every man, woman and child in the west. The same has been experienced by every citizen who has visited that portion of Canada and come in contact with this marked difference as compared with the spirit of the average dweller in Ontario.

Here we have almost everything that the westerner lacks, but because it has become part of our lives we see nothing to boast about. The westerner, on the other hand, has less to boast about, but he certainly does infinitely more boosting for the place in which he lives. You never hear one of them do any knocking. The water may be bad and the public service execrable, but never a word of complaint; instead, it's boost and boost all the time.

It's that sort of spirit that's making Western Canada go ahead, for nothing can hold a municipality where every inhabitant is out plugging for all he is worth. We need to think more about this sort of thing in Waterdown than we have in the past. Boosting isn't necessarily boasting, though it means the same thing, and it certainly does go a long way when visitors come into a town and hear nothing else but praise and remember only the immense advantages that this town has. We have everything here that ought to make for success, we haven't had it in such measures as we might have had, it is because the people have lacked faith in themselves and pride in their town.

Let us try and overcome this defect and not only boost Waterdown but boost everything and everyone that is in it. There would soon be no holding Waterdown back if this were the case.

To Mrs. E. F. Peterson

We are sorry dear to lose you,
But our loss is some one's gain,
And we look with pleasure forward
To our meeting you again.

As you leave us now to enter
Thru this life a different sphere,
May you hold in kind remembrance
Many friends who miss you here.

May Life's storms blow lightly o'er
you,
And no cloud your pathway dim;
And may your cup of destiny
Fill with gladness to the brim.

Thru our paths thru life may differ,
Hope leads each one bravely on
Thru the gloom of changing struggle
Eagerly we wait the dawn.

As you face the trying problems
In this world's perplexing din,
May the One who watches o'er us
Give you grace and strength to win.

May God bless you with his spirit
And earth yield a bounteous store;
Then in that great Home re-union
We will meet to part no more.

A. M.

Luck

Luck means rising at 6 o'clock in the morning, living on a dollar a day if you earn two, minding your own business and not meddling with other people's. Luck means appointments you have never failed to keep, the trains you have never failed to catch. Luck means trusting in God and your own resources.

The paper hanger is busy in this vicinity.

A certain Lady from the royal city Guelph was visiting in the country near the noted town of Mountsburg and wishing to explore the town and vicinity started out of a Saturday eve to view the landscape o'er. Landing in the town she decided to hire a Jitney that was there, and with some friends started out for their joy ride. Now this Jitney being a Ford it would sound unreasonable if I said it had baulked, but oh me that wasn't the trouble, the Ford remained true as long as it was on the road but the Jitney driver got the Saturday night blues and became baulky and on reaching his own gate drove his car into the garage leaving the occupants to hoof it back to the old town. Now this lady wishes that anyone intending to hire a Jitney in this town to take warning of this and be careful who they hire and not take chances with a Ford Car any more.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle believes "there may be alcohol in the next world", and we agree with him, there may be in one of them.
