And Vest Were Fished Through a Hole in the Roof

And His Phoney Diamond Swiped While He Was Telling His Troubles to Carrots.

James Duncan, charged with breaking into the domicile of Edwin R, Lang, and this with intent to rob and despoil the aforesaid Lang of his goods and chattels with burglarious intent and a fishing pole, took up the attention of the court and a jury in the territorial court this morning.

The story as told by Crown Prosecutor Wade in opening the case was to the effect that the accused had gone upon the roof of the Standard theater while the versatile and unsuspecting Lang was suffering on the stage in the throes of "49," and by means of a brace and bit removed a section of the roof, and be the same as in the other, then with his little fishing rod, to the end of which had been attached a sharp wire book, the Izaak Walton of the Yukon, began fishing for things in the room below.

were not working at the time, as he Osborne House made up their minds to was wearing overalls as became Old remain to the end. The cold was in-Porty-nine, and these were left in his tense, and a few favored ones sought room upon a chair and were angled for shelter in the royal lodge, just inside, with some degree of success by the lone where they waited in absolute silence. fisherman on the roof.

be the entire property of Mr. Lang, as take the message the chief of the he has two diamonds, one of which is a queen's police emerged from the darkproduct of mother earth and the other a very good imitation of the same. The real stone was at that moment at 6:30." being worn, and the imitation hidden in the room beyond the ken of the man then shrill whistles and ringing of the with the fishing tackle.

began speaking in low dulcet tones, and was asked to use the same tones he used when addressing Carrets.

He complied with the request and dashed from Osborne. told how his pants and vest had been removed from their wonted place and apparently rifled and dumped back upon at East and West Cowes fully 15 minthe bed in the center of which was an utes before it had been announced to accumulation of saw dust and shavings. Then he discovered the hole in the borne house. The streets were already roof and raised an alarm.

The accused had been property man at the Standard but had been discharged some time previous to this, but continued to hang around the stage.

The "phony" diamond, Mr. Lang says, he is not wearing now because it vanished from his vest pocket on the night his room was used as a fishing tank. Court adjourned with the testimony of

At 2:45 this afternoon the jury brought in a verdict of not guisty.

GUILTY AS CHARGED.

(Continued from Page 1.)

after which the jury retired to the room above to deliberate, but after a quarter of an hour's absence sent back word that it would be 8:30 before a verdict could be rendered and court adjourned till that hour in consequence, reassembling to hear the decision of the

Promptly on time the jury came down, and much to the surprise of most of those who had heard the judge's direction, a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy, was returned by the foreman.

Nearly everyone expected a verdict be told from his actions or looks, thing more than natural nervousness.

The courtroom was filled to overflow-George Thomas St. Cyr.

asked Clerk McDonald, Then there followed a painful silence of nearly a minute's duration, during plainly heard anywhere in the courtroom. This silence was finally broken by the prisoner, who in a husky voice, though betraying no other sign of emotion, said:

Yes, I have," "What have you to say?" asked the

"I have to say that the gun went off y accident."

replied the court, "and I must say reducing the supply of hootch on the that your defeuse has been ably con-local market, become "d and d" yesducted, and no possible move has been neglected which could have been turned to your advantage, and the verdict of was forthcoming. the jury is such that it leaves me no alternative but to pronounce the sen-

Attorney Black made formal motion for a suspension of sentence on the same position as that occupied by James Slorah, previous to the commutation of his sentence, and it is believed by many that the action in this case will

News Spread Quickly.

Osborne House Gates, Isle of Wight, Jan. 22, 7:05 p.m. - When the 4 p. m. bulletin announced that the queen was Mr. Lang has a pair of trousers which sinking all the watchers at the gates of The telephone bell rang at 7:05 p. m., The trousers must not be supposed to but before a royal servant had time to ness and with bared head said;

"Gentlemen, the queen passed away

All present reverently uncovered, and bells of bicycles in waiting were the Lang was the first witness called and signals for messengers to race to Cowes with the news. In a few moments the place was deserted, Simultaneously deceased was interested in mining mounted messengers on white horses

On their arrival at Cowes the correspondents tound the news known both those in waiting at the gates of Osfilled with sorrowful crowds discussing her majesty's death.

Matinee Saturday.

next Saturday afternoon at the Savoy theater. Miss Tracie has been confined to her room for several months with a lingering illness and conse-

as during the Sunday night concerts.

A splendid program has been arranged and the full force of the Savoy theater handwritings. company will be in evidence, as well as outside volunteered talent.

Now, Be Still.

There have been many complaints against the railroad company for not having opened the line for traffic more promptly after the recent storm. These directly the opposite to this, or, at the people do not stop to consider that the worst for the prisoner, a decision, that railroad company is far more anxious the was guilty of manslaughter.

No attempt was made today to clear away the debris of the White building, away the debris of the White building. hat St. Cyr himself thought could open, for they have been to five times the expense during the cessation of the only indication of feeling on his traffic than would have been the case part was the constant clasping and un- had the line been kept open throughout classing of his hands, but as this had been his habit throughout the trial it could be done has been done by the officulty went to Grays station tonight could not be taken as indicative of anythat, too, in the face of one of the Sentence was reserved till 10:30 this severest storms ever experienced in the Dugas, which all knew could have but that they will be paid 30 days' pay for one meaning to the prisoner at the bar, 12 days' blockade does not in any sion. It is believed he will die. measure compensate them for the hard-"George Thomas St. Cyr, have you ships they have endured. Those who, anything to say why the sentence of in former days complained because way company is unable to perform that which a dropping pin could have been if they were given a free ride to Skagway at 60 miles an hour because pos-sibly there might not be storm cleats on the palace car door which carried tonight.

We fit glasses. Pioneer drug store.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

"What you have said concerning that has been said before during the trial."

Actor Fred Breen played a short engagement before Magistrate Rutledge this morning for having, by materially this morning for having, by materially

For the past four or five weeks a man alternative but to pronounce the sentence of death, which I will now pronounce.

"George Thomas St. Cyr, it is the sentence of the court that you shall be too. He was brought into court this taken from this court to the place of morning when, on the statement of confinement there to be confined till the 7th day of June next, when you shall be taken to the place of execution and hanged by the neck till dead, so help your God."

Dr. Hurdman, assistant police surgeon, he was discharged, having apparently regained full possession and control of his mental faculties. Watson was formerly employed on Gold Run to which place he announced his intention of starting today. starting today.

Chas. Chesley, the man who was be-fore the court last Friday on the charge ground that an appeal was to be taken of vagrancy and whom the evidence of on the grounds that the verdict of the jury was against the weight of evidence.

Tom Chisholm and nearly all the balance of the Second ward failed to convict, will have another inning on the same charge this afternoon. When the convict was then discharged, not so much through leak of much through lack of convicting evidence as on his promise to get work and benceforth refrain from making an unmitigated nuisance of himself, he came to the Nugget office and asked to have his name suppressed on the ground that he did not want "non ov dis yer poperlarity." But, alas for Charles! He did not go to work, nor did he, as the police say, make any effort to secure work. If the evidence this afternoon is of the nature to convict, Charles will be relieved of the task of looking for work. The mountain will come to

Chris, McDonald Dead.

Christopher McDonald died at St. Mary's hospital at 9:30 this morning from the effects of a complication of ailments which finally terminated in heart disease. He was 49 years of age and single. Christopher McDonald came to this country in May of last year with his brother-in-law, the late Peter McDonald. He was born and raised at Antigoish, Nova Scotia, but for some time previous to coming to Dawson had been engaged in the hotel business in British Columbia. His brother Colin McDonald, is one of the best known men in Dawson, and with him property on Hester creek. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced.

Sounded "Out" Whistle.

The fire department was called out the corner of Third street and Sixth avenue yesterday evening about 5:30 o'clock, but a bucket of water had reached the spot and the fire was out before the alarm was through sounding. Two minutes later an "out" Miss Marion Tracie is to be tendered whistle was blown and everybody knew a benefit by her theatrical friends on the danger of a conflagration was Tried to Extort Money.

Fort Madison, Ia., Jan. 22.-George Wolf of West Point, this county, was quently has been unable to appear in landed in jail here last night, the warpublic. She has made a large number rant having been sworn out by Fredof friends here not only by reason of crick Krickenbaum, president of the her exceptional ability but by her re- West Point bank, charging him with markable intellectual power as well. an attempt to extort money. Kricken-Miss Tracie is suffering from nervous baum received a letter ordering him to prostration. It is to be hoped that a deposit $5000 at a certain place under large attendance will witness the mati- the Pitman creek bridge, a short disnee Saturday. The Savoy bar will be tance from town, on a certain date. closed and the house is to be conducted The letter stated that unless the money on that occasion in the same manner was forthcoming certain properties

True to Her Lover.

Corbin, Ky., Jan. 17.-Reports were received today of armed men massing outside the town, representing the factions in the feud that caused so much trouble last night. The special train with troops from Lexington is due at 3 a. m.

wrecked last night by dynamite. Everyone kept within doors, fearing further trouble between the Shotwells and Whites before the troops arrived.

Fifty of the Chadwells from Clay county went to Grays station tonight,

Sheriff Sutter has sworn in a large force of deputies. The Shotwells ochistory of the company. Nearly all the cupy the hills near the town, while the employes on the snowbound train and White forces are mostly in Corbin. ing this morning, mostly by the curi- rotary plows have been working night All the residences were barricaded. ous, to hear the sentence of Justice and day since January 10, and the fact Roch White is crippled, and will lose both eyes, as the result of the explo-

The trouble between the two tamilies, which was precipitated by Raleigh White killing old man Shotwell, has death should not be passed upon you?" there was no railroad, are now among been brewing many years. Mary Shotthe strongest kickers because the rail- well and young White have been engaged, and, notwithstanding the fact which is impossible. They would kick that her father is dead, she expresses sympathy for White.

Mrs. White, the aged mother of the White boys, is in a serious condition

Early this evening a number of mountaineers who were unknown in Brewitt makes fine pants. crt town, fired their Winchseters and then Corbin rode to the outskirts of the Round steak 50c at P. O. Market. rode away.

Sheriff Sutter attempted today to arest the Shotwells, but was held off at point of Winchesters. He states that he will arrest all the boys tomorrow, when the troops arrive, and he will have over 100 deputies of his own. The Shotwells will be charged with blowing up the White restaurant.

A puble meeting at the town hall tonight was addressed by ministers and Sharkey and Maher.

Louisivile, Ky., Jan. 22.—Tom Sharkey and Peter Maher were today matched to meet in a 20-round contest before the Louisville Athletic Club Front street. Dawson. Telephone No. 89. during the month of February. They will meet at catch weights.

Notice is hereby given that an appli-cation will be made to the parliament of Canada, at the next session thereof for an act to amend the act respecting the Dawson City Electric Company, Ltd., and to extend the time limited for the commencement and completion of the electric railway and tramway by said last mentioned act authorized to be constructed.

BELCOURT & RITCHIE, Solicitors for the Applicants.
Dated at Ottawa, this 10th day of December, 1900.

Robinson the well known merchant tailor of Vancouver is here now to take orders for gentlemen's spring clothing and ladies' tailor made dresses. Mr. Robinson is stopping at the Hotel Mc-Donald, room No. 10.

Clean and New.

The Rainier lodging house recently burned out is now refurnished and opened for business. Clean, warm beds. are advertised at 50 cents a night. Opposite Standard theater.

At the present rate of consumption, the white fish the Pacific Cold Storage Co. brought in for the lenten season will all be gone long before Easter.

S-Y.T.Co.

Rececececececece

LOST AND FOUND

LOST-Tortoise Shell Lorgnette. Five do reward for return to this office. FOR RENT

FOR RENT Finest office rooms in the Newly painted and papered. Enquire C. Co.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYERS CLARK, WILSON & STACPOOLE—Barrister Attorneys, Notaries, Conveyancers, et Office Monte Carlo Building, First Avenu-Dawson, Y. T.

MACKINNON & NOEL, Advocates, Secondar near Bank of B. N. A.

HENRY BLEECKER

BLEECKER & DE JOURNEL

Attorneys at Law,

Offices Second street, in the Joslin Building
Residence—Third avenue, opp. Metropole hou

Dawson.

WADE & AIKMAN—Advocates, Notaries, etc. Offices, A. C. Office Building.

N. F. HAGEL, Q. C., Barrister, Notary, etc. over McLennan, McFeely & Co., hardway store, First avenue.

PATTULLO & RIDLEY—Advocates, Notaria Conveyancers, etc. Offices, Rooms 7 and A. C. Office Bldg.

FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE W. D. BRUCE, General Agent Manufactur. Life; Phoenix Fire Insurance Association of London, England. Mines, Real Estate, Orpheum Building.

J. B. TYRRELL. Mining Engineer. Miss is out or managed. Properties valued. Mission St., ndxt door to public school, and a below discovery, Hunker Creek.

Orr

TO &

Con

Pun

HOLM

Ch

SOCIETIES. THE REGULAR COMMUNICATION of Yukon Lodge, (U. D.) A. F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic hall, Mission street, monthly, Thusday on or before full moon at 8:00 pm.
C. H. Wells, W. M. J. A. Donald, Seey

Fine line of pipes at Zaccarelli's,

Flashlight powder at Goetzman's.

"HIGH GRADE GOODS" CAR WHEELS

ONE - HALF INCH CABLE

S-Y. T. CO.,

SECOND AVENUE

RAILROAD IRON

"White Pass and Yukon Route."

A Daily Train Each Way Between -Whitehorse and Skagway

COMFORTABLE UPHOLSTERED COACHES

NORTH-Leave Skagway daily, except Sundays, 8:30 a. m., Bennett 12:15 a. m. Arrive at Whiteherse, 5:15 p. m. SOUTH-Leave Whitehorse daily, except Sundays, 8:00 a. m., Bennett 1:25 p. m. Arrive at Skagway, 4:40 p. m,

E. C. HAWKINS, General Manager

J. FRANCIS LEE,

J. H. ROGERS,

TO THE FAMILY TRADE

We have already announced that we wouldsell....

WINE, BEER AND LIQUORS

Of all kinds by the Bottle or Gallon Today we quote prices that will bring these Luxuries within the reach of all.

SAUTERNES

Sauternes, Barton and Guestier Quarts $ 3 50 Haut Sauternes, L. Champion & Co.....Quarts $ 3 50 "Pints 2 00

CLARETS St. Julian Medoc, L. Champion & Co.... Quarts $ 3 00 " ... Pints 1 75 Margoux " L. Champion & Co. Quarts 2 50