Our school examination took place last Thursday, which he ing Empire day was also celebrated by the hoisting of a new Canadian flag, which had been lately procured by the combined efforts of Miss Caldwell and pupils.

The school noom was artistically decorated with flags, mottoes done in colored crayon, flowers, etc., while each scholar wore a rosette of red, white and blue. Interspersed with the regular school lessons, which were well rendered, were patriotic songs and recitations, also a number of original papers by the larger pupils as follows:

Our Flag.

G. G. D. Roberts, —Unie Best. Canadian resources, —Georgie Neily, Great Englishmen of the present time, —David Webster, Patriotism, —Edith Woodman, These papers were exceedingly good, and would have been creditable to much older scholars and the whole afternoon's exercises gave avidence of a paintaking, energetic teacher and wide awake pupils.

Miss Ethel Craig visited her sister, Mrs. Heary Borden Chipman Corner, one day last week. Mr. Borden had the misfortune to break his leg about a week ago.
