The public is invited to a Mass Meeting in

Pastime Hall, Kentville
Saturday, Nov. 30th.

at 1 o'clock. Excellent addresses given and organization to be arranged.

One Kentville's Business Institutions Passed Out

The well known While Hall block on Main St. has tranferred ownership and with it passes out of the dry goods trade of Kentville one of its best buisness connections; serving the town and County for nearly half a century.

Mr. R. L. McDonald has purchased this block and is now busy transforming it into a garage that will be efficient in every particular Mr. Harris Best is doing the work. The third storey which has heretofore been unfinished will now be fitted up and used as good sized tenament.

Mr. J. W. Ryan was the owner of this block before the transfer. He started in business in Kentville just 50 years ago in 1868. on the stand where W. W. Rockwills block now is located. In 1869 he moved across the Street to a building on the side where the new telephone building is being completed. In 1876 Mr. Ryan built the While Hall block and it was occupied for a few years from 1879 until 1884 by the firm of Beckwith and Dodge. In 1884 Mr. Ryan returned from Halifax and opened busine s again in this block In 1896 the building was remodelled by the addition of a large carpet room a tower and modern installation of large electric lights. He continued in business along with his sons until about two years ago.

Mr. Ryan is still a familiar figure around town and is most interested in its prosperity. The public has missed him in its store service. His record in business was most honorable and no man was ever more gentlemanly or courteous in his treatment of the public.

The British and French Authorities May Demand His Surrender

London, Nov 26th—It is understood that the question of the extradition of the former German Emperor is being considered by by British law offices of the Crown, who are working inclose co-operation with the French authorities. Action in in the premises was taken immediately after the flight of the former Emperor to Holland.

The Evening News says it understands the law officers have concluded that the Allies are entitled to demand the extradition of the former Emperor, and that this decision applies also to individuals who have committed or given instructions for the commission of extraitable crimes

It is added that Holland takes the view that she has not the power to surrender such persons without the consent of Germany.

Ottawa, Nov. 25—A list of honors and distinctions won by the members of the Canadian Expeditionary force compiled by the militia department, showing all Victoria Crosses, the highest number honor obtainable, have been awarded to soldiers of the Dominion. The Distinguished Service Order was won by 491 Canadians, and 11, 643 Military Crosses were awarded to officers of the C. E. F.
