COUNTY NEWS.

Sub Editor of News and Gossip, Personal Intelligence, a Little of Everything, Well Mixed Up. ANDREWSBURGH. TUESDAY, Sept. 28.—W. I. Mallory was in the village recently. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Guild spent Sunday with friends in Caintown. Lemuel A. Guild has returned from a few days' visit to the Ottawa fair. Norman Hawes has purchased a new organ from Clark Mallory, Brockville. C. White secured second prize at Unionville on his carriage horse. Since the discovery of gold in the Klondike, interest in our Bravo Valley mine has somewhat diminished. A couple of saddle horses from here were exhibited in Rockport last week. Mr. Geo. Andrews, Gananoque, spent a few days here last week visiting his mother. Mr. and Mrs. John Root have returned after spending the summer at Alexandria Bay. Mrs. Geo. Slack and children of Rockport are spending a few days visiting relatives here. Mr. Jas. Mallory has disposed of six corn crotters during the last few days. They are said to have given the best of satisfaction to those who have purchased them. A party was given in Leah's Hall, Rockport, on Friday evening at which a large number from here were in attendance. It was a sad parting for one of our young men but he manfully survived it. SHELLEY'S BAY. MONDAY, Oct. 4.—On Monday last the adjourned trial of Kenny vs. Hill again came up before magistrates. John & Chapman in the Selkirk Hotel at 2 o'clock, p. m. Nicholas of Kingston was present on the defence. No further evidence was taken. The charge was read to the accused, Joshua Hill, and being asked if he had anything to say, he replied, "I have nothing to say, he said." Bail to the amount of $3,000 was furnished for Hill's appearance when called upon at the court of general sessions at Brockville. Mrs. G. R. Hawkins, Mrs. J. Han-

ROCKPORT. MONDAY, Oct. 4.—During the heavy gale Friday night the str. Astor broke loose from Carnegie's dock and struck some rocks, but fortunately it did slight damage. Quite a number from here intended going to the World's Fair at Lansdowne. Mr. and Mrs. E. Furness of Alexandria Bay, were the guests of A. M. Seaman last week. The Rev. Mr. Hall conducted service in the Methodist church on Sunday morning last. Mrs. D. E. Seaman is away on a visit to friends at Mount and vicinity. Miss E. Truesdell, on the sick list, is slowly recovering. Albert Sturgeon has started the foundation for a new barn in place of the one that was burned some time ago. MALLORYTOWN. MONDAY, Oct. 4.—Miss L. Thompson has not been able to attend her school for a few days on account of sickness. He is under the care of Dr. Seaman. The Rev. Reynolds of Lansdowne occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday last. Miss Jordan of Windsor and Mr. Brown of Elbe were the guests of A. E. Jordan on Sunday last. We notice two of the Gananoque gentlemen visit this village quite frequently of late. The young man that drove out from Brockville the other evening seemed to be pretty well loaded with tangled foot. If he don't look sharp he will lose his position. The appearance of the G. T. R. station house has been very much improved by getting a coat of paint. Mrs. B. Dixon of Detroit is visiting at her home, Mr. R. W. Tennant's. Mr. Wm. Kirk has returned home from Manitoba where he has spent a number of weeks for his health. He has improved very much. Millow Mallory of Gananoque was the guest of Israel Mallory on Monday, 27th. Huldah Mallory and Mrs. W. J. Mallory visited friends at Rockport on Thursday last. Mr. Charles Mallory and family paid Brockville a visit on Saturday last. FRONT OF YONGE. THURSDAY, Sept. 30.—The barns of Mr. Allen Eagley of Lake street were consumed by fire on Saturday morning last. There were two barns burned last fall on the same street, together with their contents. That street has surely been scorched by fire in the past two years. The silos have been all filled to the brim with corn pickles. Mr. Henry Powell of Caintown received $2.50 per barrel for his fall apples. R. R. Phillips' beautiful home looks very much deserted, since the death of his mother. We would like to know what has become of all the correspondents out north—McIntosh Mills, Shestown, and Westford. Where are they? Where is that mighty craft, the James Cain, that could run by sea or land? Has she, like many of her passengers, been wrecked on the Blue Mountain or on her pilgrimage down the Jones' Falls? Where, we say, is the knight of the quill who could write duplicates for the same paper? The wind from the north roars back and murmurs a mournful dirge, and says that the best correspondent in the north went to his silent home some time ago. This was a great loss to society, and his place in a great measure will for some time remain a blank on the horizon of intelligence. GLEN BUELL. TUESDAY, Oct. 5th.—The weather has been very fine and cool for the past week and has favored the farmers in getting their silos filled and corn cut. Several from here took in Ottawa an exhibition and also our neighboring fair at Frankville, and all report both pleasant occasions. A few will take in Lansdowne this fall week. Archie Stewart of Uncle Sam's domain visited his relatives here last week. Walter Andrews visited his relatives at Lombardy on Sunday last. Boyd Hall is putting up a new gate at the front of his residence. When completed, it will add much to his premises. David Daek suffered a severe boil on his wrist last week. Mrs. Derrick, an aged lady of the east end, died last week. She resided with her son, Bruce. Her remains were placed in North Augusta cemetery. Henry Greene, Algonquin, paid this place a flying call on Monday. A very nice horse, "The Life of the late Dr. James Hall," whose home was in this place, and who went to Korea as a missionary and gave up his life in the work of converting the natives, is for sale at C. J. Gilroy's dry goods store, at a reasonable price. Our singing school, under the able management of Prof. Beale, is favorably progressing and he is at present a good membership. Nothing can be heard around the corner at present but do as you do. Thomas Kirkland and wife of Smith's Falls were visiting relatives here recently. Robert Conyns, Brockville, is the guest of Ed Hayes this week. Manford Johnson has been on the sick list for the last few days. Mrs. William Stewart has been quite poorly for the past week. Miss Annie Edwards, Smith's Falls, is visiting at Joseph Kirkland's at present. Dr. Agnew's Ointment Cures. Salt Rheum, Eczema, Tetter, Barber's Itch, and all like skin diseases and eruptions. It gives relief in a day. Its cures are legion; its failures are few. Years of testing, and grows daily in favor of suffering humanity. Good for Baby's Skin, good for young, middle-aged or old folks. 35c. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

LOCAL SUMMARY. Rev. R. C. Horner arrived in Athens on Tuesday morning. Mrs. D. Derbyshire of Brockville was a visitor in Athens last week. Mr. R. Hanna, principal of Elgin school, spent Sunday at his home here. Mr. and Mrs. E. Fair, church street, are at Lansdowne exhibition this week. Potatoes were offered for sale in Athens last week at 25c per bushel. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bellamy of North Augusta spent Sunday last in Athens. Mr. A. R. Brown has moved his harness emporium to the store in the fire hall building. Miss Mabel Greer of Lyn was the guest of her cousin, Jennette Kelly, for a few days. Mrs. A. W. Kelly left on Friday for a visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Kelly of Stittsville. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blancher of Mallorytown attended the Friends' services in Athens on Sabbath last. Mrs. Judd of Morton is reported to be again critically ill. Mr. and Mrs. Jones visited her on Sunday last. Mr. E. Moles has removed from Mitchell to Toronto, where he will continue his studies in dentistry. Miss C. Sexton will hold her millinery opening over the store of T. Van Arman on Oct. 9th and following days. Mr. Mack Kelly of Hammond, N.Y., arrived on Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother, which was held on Sunday. After serious illness Hood's Sarsaparilla has wonderful building up power. It purifies the blood and restores perfect health. Mr. R. N. Dowdell, with a party of New York friends, started on Friday for Lake Ontario where they were having a fishing and hunting preserve. Rideau Record: Miss Ferguson, of Athens, has been visiting in town for the past few days with her aunt, Mrs. James Murray and Mrs. H. Layng. The deadlock between buyers and sellers on the Brockville cheese board still continues, with the advantage, apparently slightly in favor of the former. A break is expected this week. Mr. R. Harper of Elbe Mills has been very successful with his stock at the fair this fall, having taken over $70 prizes. He is showing at Lansdowne this week. We learn with regret that Miss Ella Halladay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Halladay Hard Island, who has been teaching school at Delta, is ill with typhoid fever. Her mother left last week to attend her. The result of the supplementary examinations at Queen's was announced on Saturday last. The papers generally were found to have been unusually difficult. Mr. Morford Arnold was among the successful candidates, passing well to the front in all subjects. Among those from this district who went to New York on the annual excursion were R. S. Tennant and wife, Lyn; Miss C. F. McDevitt, Spring Valley; Chas. Montford, Lansdowne; K. Addison, C. C. Slack, Mrs. A. W. and Miss Ethel Blanchard, Miss Mary Livingston, Geo. H. Moore, Athens. Rev. J. C. Symonds of Brockville will conduct the anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sabbath next, morning and evening, at the usual hours. On Monday evening the usual tea and entertainment will be held. The programme for the latter will include a stereopticon trip around the world. A number of Athenian young ladies have organized a Sewing Circle. The full range of the Circle's usefulness has not yet been determined, but there is enough work already in sight to keep them busy all Christmas. One principal has been clearly established, viz: that the Circle is in no sense a training school for bachelors. Citizens of North Augusta were interested in two weddings that occurred on Monday last. On that day Mr. Alonzo Carr of Fairfield and Miss Jane Joynt of North Augusta were wedded at the Anglican church, and Mr. G. W. Chapman, editor of the North Augusta Citizen, and Miss Carrie Elliott of Bishop's Mills were married at the home of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couples started together for a trip to New York. These young people have a wide circle of friends in the united colonies who wish them long life and happiness. The meetings held by the Society of Friends last week and on Sabbath, in their meeting house here, were among the most interesting and profitable able held for some years. Friends were present from Philadelphia, Pa., and Prince Edward county, and they with a lady friend who has been for some time an honored guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robson, Hard Island, were heard with pleasure by large congregations on Sabbath last. It was noted that there were present many, both within and without the ranks of the Friends, who were well advanced in years. Indeed it is seldom that one sees so many aged people together as attended these services. All the exercises received interested, reverent attention, and all the words spoken were of a nature to do good to those that heard them. Plum Hollow School. Results of work for month of Sept. Names appear in order of merit: V. class—Metta Sexton, Theresa Haley. IV. class—Florence Knapp, Theron Haley, Percy Gifford, Martha Tackeberry, Rose Haley, Harvey Kilborn, George Whalen. III. class—Ethan Gifford, Bridget Haley. II. class—Elma Gifford, Gordon Sherman. Hard Island Honor Roll for September. I. class, (total 125)—Violet Robson, 102; Daisy M. Livingston, 77; Annie Darling, 59. II. part, (total 75)—W. Darling, 54; Mand Darling, 47; H. Wilkes, 45; Bryce Foley, 44. III. class, (total 135)—O. R. Robson, 45; O. Pratt, 40; Vance Foley, 39. III. class, (total 160)—George Wright, 95; Lillie Livingston, 83; M. Wright, 8; Robson, 50. IV. class, (total 485)—Mollie Robson, 214; J. Robson, 188; M. Foley, 166; Eulalie Whaley, 45. At school every day in month—Bryce Foley, H. Wilkes, M. Darling, W. Darling, O. Pratt, V. Foley, M. Wright.

W. J. Bradley, Brockville, will have Three Bargain Days this week—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. All Dry Goods and Clothing will be slaughtered below cost for three days only. Voters' list courts will be held by his Honor Judge Reynolds at Athens, the Citizens' Court at 7:30 p.m., and for Rear Yonge and Scott at Cedar Park Hotel, Charleston, at 1 p.m. on October 20th. Mr. W. J. Burns of the Cash Bargain House, Lyndhurst, adopted the cash system on Tuesday last. All his goods are now marked in plain figures and will be sold for cash or equivalent only. In bills issued this week he quotes greatly reduced prices in all lines. Mr. S. Manhardt returns to Toronto this week to resume his studies at the Conservatory. During the week the Citizens' Band, headed by their conductor, Mr. Morford Arnold, and his skilled assistants, and on Friday evening they assembled on the lawn of Dr. Hartie and rendered a select programme of choice music in his honor. Mr. S. J. Stevens has greatly improved Wilkes street east by putting in the tile sewer from his house, and the council will receive good value for their contribution to the work. Altogether, the drain is over four hundred feet in length, and along the street, after being filled in, it has been nicely graded up to the road level. Among the anticipated pleasures of every lady should promise herself the delightful experience of a visit to the beautiful Dress Goods department of G. W. Beach. Every purchase made therein is a paying investment. We are offering a complete line of the newest novelties and latest ideas in colorings and designs. These new styles are models of beauty. Card of Thanks. Editor Reporter: The Athens Division of S.O.T. desire, through the kindness of your valued paper, to express their hearty thanks to all those who assisted in making the recent entertainment a success. Signed on behalf of Division, W. S. Scanlon, R.S. Hunting Big Game. Last week a farmer named Neal, residing near Boilingbrook, four miles west of here, decided to go out to his back lot on a moon hunting expedition. Accompanied by his son, a youngster of some fourteen or fifteen summers, and a couple of colly dogs, he soon had the satisfaction of hearing the bark of his tongue, and hastening down to a block of woods he found them barking furiously at the roots of a medium-sized tree. His son volunteered to climb the tree and shake the dog down to the ground, while the other and dogs were to dispatch the animal when they reached the ground. The boy "whinned" up the tree and peering through the branches saw something out on a line that looked like a serpent in the better part of a minute, and he was heard to utter a cry that he had never heard up a cove before. His heart failed him and he decided to leave the shaking down process to others, and quickly slid to the ground. The old man laughed at the boy's fears, and placing in the boy's hands the cudgel that he had procured to slaughter the reptile, he started up the tree himself. He got up to about the same place as the boy had been when he saw something that nearly drove him to his wits. A couple of bright spots, which appeared to him to be as large as saucers, easily located the whereabouts of the game he was after. Then the size of the animal was at least ten times as big as any cove he had ever seen, while the snarling which came from the huge body was several times more loud and piercing than all the coons he had ever heard. Thinking himself in the better part of a valor, he quickly backed down the limb and slid to the ground. Leaving the boy and dogs to guard the tree, he started at a break-neck pace for the house where he procured his rifle and had been up a tree with ten or twelve feet of a cream-mountain or lynx weighing over 190 lbs. As there is a bounty of $10 on every lynx killed, that night's hunt was not a very bad one for Mr. Neal.

Billiousness. Lumber and Farm Produce Wanted. Parties having dry ash or basswood lumber, bay, oats, potatoes, or, in fact, any kind of farm produce, wishing to exchange for furniture, please call and see me now, before the fall rains come on. I will give you a satisfactory deal. A complete stock of furniture always on hand. T. G. STEVENS.

W. J. Bradley wants 25 good choppers and wood-men to work in his shanty, steady work and good wages—apply at once to Mr. Bradley at Athens. The Reporter thanks Miss Fio. Stevens for a bunch of fragrant and delicious raspberries, which were plucked in the New Dublin district. Mr. W. H. Hanson and family, who spent the past summer at their cottage on Long Island, Charleston Lake, left for their home at Saratoga Springs last week. Mrs. (Dr.) Hall started last week on her return journey to Corsica, where her husband, the devoted missionary, Dr. W. J. Hall, died in the Master's service. The Asphalt Roof Paint is proving very popular with the general public, and in answer to many enquiries we state that any handy man can apply it and that it can be procured in quantities to suit from Mr. W. G. McLaughlin, Athens. The location of "the song of the whistling coon" is being sought these moonlight nights by a large number of hunters, with varying success. In several instances the presence of the Memphis Americana has sadly interfered with the sport. Mrs. Joseph Kerr received a telephone message from Elgin last week, announcing the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. F. Wood. She went to Elgin at once, and we are pleased to say that Mrs. Wood is now much better. The statement is made that old rags are treated chemically, distilled and converted into whiskey. Why not! In the economy of nature the water of the earth rises in clouds to fall again in rain, and since, as everybody knows, whiskey makes rags, why should not rags make whiskey? Considerable pilfering of fruit by boys has taken place in Athens this fall, but in only one case were the deprecations considered sufficiently grave to deserve legal punishment. But it appears that down at Addison the methods pursued are more wholesale in character, as one night last week the grape vines of Mr. Levi Church were completely stripped of their load of fruit. At the same time a sheet disappeared from the clothes-line of Mr. R. Barker, and it is supposed that it was used to contain the stolen grapes. Such an act as this is one of despicable meanness, and the perpetrators should be heartily ashamed of their midnight marauding. To be Given Away. At the Tea Store and China Hall, Brockville, a $45.00 Dinner Set will be given to the person guessing the nearest to the number of Beans contained in a Sealed Can. One guess allowed with every pound of tea or coffee purchased, and one guess allowed for every Fifty Cents worth of Crocker, China, or Glassware. The best of good value is always given. But it appears that down at Addison the methods pursued are more wholesale in character, as one night last week the grape vines of Mr. Levi Church were completely stripped of their load of fruit. At the same time a sheet disappeared from the clothes-line of Mr. R. Barker, and it is supposed that it was used to contain the stolen grapes. Such an act as this is one of despicable meanness, and the perpetrators should be heartily ashamed of their midnight marauding. To be Given Away. At the Tea Store and China Hall, Brockville, a $45.00 Dinner Set will be given to the person guessing the nearest to the number of Beans contained in a Sealed Can. One guess allowed with every pound of tea or coffee purchased, and one guess allowed for every Fifty Cents worth of Crocker, China, or Glassware. The best of good value is always given. This set may be yours—T. W. DEXTER. Officers Elected. At the last meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church the following officers were elected: Pres.—Mrs. G. W. W. J. Bradley wants 25 good choppers and wood-men to work in his shanty, steady work and good wages—apply at once to Mr. Bradley at Athens. The Reporter thanks Miss Fio. Stevens for a bunch of fragrant and delicious raspberries, which were plucked in the New Dublin district. Mr. W. H. Hanson and family, who spent the past summer at their cottage on Long Island, Charleston Lake, left for their home at Saratoga Springs last week. Mrs. (Dr.) Hall started last week on her return journey to Corsica, where her husband, the devoted missionary, Dr. W. J. Hall, died in the Master's service. The Asphalt Roof Paint is proving very popular with the general public, and in answer to many enquiries we state that any handy man can apply it and that it can be procured in quantities to suit from Mr. W. G. McLaughlin, Athens. The location of "the song of the whistling coon" is being sought these moonlight nights by a large number of hunters, with varying success. In several instances the presence of the Memphis Americana has sadly interfered with the sport. Mrs. Joseph Kerr received a telephone message from Elgin last week, announcing the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. F. Wood. She went to Elgin at once, and we are pleased to say that Mrs. Wood is now much better. The statement is made that old rags are treated chemically, distilled and converted into whiskey. Why not! In the economy of nature the water of the earth rises in clouds to fall again in rain, and since, as everybody knows, whiskey makes rags, why should not rags make whiskey? Considerable pilfering of fruit by boys has taken place in Athens this fall, but in only one case were the deprecations considered sufficiently grave to deserve legal punishment.
