Our business is to satisfy you with the best in Hats, Underwear and Oyercoats—LeClair, Brockville. On Saturday last fire destroyed the dwelling of T. G. Baker, east of Frankville. Over $90 in money was burned. When auction sale bills are printed at the Reporter office a free notice appears in the paper until the date of sale. Mrs. J. B. Pennock and Miss Myrtle Hayes, of Elgin, spent a part of this week in Athens guests of Mrs. C. C. Slack. Mrs. Sarah Carr, who has been for several months at the home of Miss Mason and Miss Birdsell, returned to Ottawa this week. For sale—Second hand large wood furnace in first class condition. Only reason for selling, an changing for coal furnace.—A. E. DONOVAN. Rev. Norman McLeod of Brockville will preach at the anniversary services at St. Paul's church, and speak on the Monday evening following. The clearing sale at Ross' Variety Store includes beautiful Xmas cards and calendars at half price. See these and the other great bargains. Preparations are in progress for a local option vote in Kemptville next January. The question is also to be tested in Winchester. Fletcher Warren, a man very highly esteemed for his noble Christian character, died at his home in Elgin on Saturday last, aged 68 years. On Saturday, Oct. 20, Mr. James Ross, Central street, will hold an auction sale of household furniture. See bills for particulars. Mrs. M. G. Davison returned to her home in Roxbury, Mass., last week, after a visit of several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wing. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Kendrick this week are Mr. A. Williams and Miss I. Brown of Kingston, Mrs. O. Brown of Fortar, and Miss Susie Lambert of Cardinal. After an absence of 24 years, Mrs. Rufus Earl, Port Arthur, is visiting old friends in this district, and is at present, in company with her little daughter, a guest of Mrs. P. S. Trickey. The quarantine has been removed from the only house in Athens affected by the diphtheria. All the children have returned to school, and even the most timid now think all danger from the disease is passed. Cheese advanced to 13c at Brockville on Saturday, but only one lot sold at this figure, the ruling price being 12c. A number of salesmen held their cheese over for a week. The annual report of the Brockville & Westport railway shows the company to have had the most successful year in its history. The earnings were $59,318.99, while the cost of operating expenses were $29,748.85. Our advertisers will be pleased to learn that this week every prize winner at Frankville Fair receives a copy of the Reporter. When you advertise in the Reporter you are talking to the farmers of Brockville district.

Mr. W. Hough left Mallorytown on the 6th inst. for St Lawrence Co., N.Y. Miss Jennie Knapp of Chantry was on Sunday the guest of Miss Jessie Taplin. Mr and Mrs Joseph Thompson leave to-day for a visit with friends in Havelock and Toronto. Dr. C. B. Little's dental office will be closed from Oct 22 to 27, both days inclusive. Mr. Charles Miller, an aged and esteemed resident of Greenbush, died on Thursday last. Live hens, chickens and ducks bought every Wednesday evening at Willson's Meat Market. Crops must be empty. Mrs. Alfred Jephcott and little son of Toronto are in Athens this week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Arnold. 50 Ladies' Coats, little out of style, but good warm coats—sale price 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.50, at G. W. Beach's. As usual, if next Thursday is a fine day, a lot of people will return thanks by going out to the woods and killing something. We have a magnificent stock of Ladies' Fall and Winter Coats—stylish cut, well tailored and finished—at G. W. Beach's. We are pleased to note that Mr. Alfred Snider has accepted an engagement as foreman in the Automatic Card Index Co. of Utica, N.Y. For Sale—Second-hand large wood furnace in first-class condition. Only reason for selling, an changing for coal furnace.—A. E. DONOVAN. Mr. Cyrenus Stowell of the customs staff, Brockville, has recently passed the civil service examinations and so been placed on the permanent staff. Westport Mirror: Mr J. H. Moulton has accepted a position as manager Relyea's general store, at Cornwall. He will shortly remove his family to that town. Civil service entrance examinations will be held at Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, London and other points on Tuesday, Nov. 13th. News (Smith's Falls): Mrs. Nelson Hawkes and her daughter Mrs. Wm. Brown, of Carleton Place, are visiting friends in Brockville, Athens and Delta. Last week Rev C. J. Cameron, B.A. Travelling Secretary for the Forward Movement of McMaster University, was the guest of Miss Emma Hayes for several days. Messrs Bethuel and B. W. Loverin have again been elected to official positions in the Brockville Hunt Club, the members of which leave for Magnetawan on the 29th inst. The following Athens members of W.C.T.U. will attend the convention at Lansdowne on Friday: Mrs. Wm. Johnston (Co. Pres.), Mrs. Weeks, Mrs. C. C. Slack, Mrs. Churchill, Miss Sabra Wiltsie. Arrangements are being made to hold the annual commencement of the A.H.S. during the last week of November. The address of the evening is to be delivered by a distinguished graduate. Mr. Phil Wiltsie, of the firm of Pierce & Wiltsie, is in Montreal this week, buying furs and other lines of seasonable goods. While in the city, Mr. Wiltsie will be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Edgar A. Robertson. An attractive article in the store of G. A. McClary is a handsome cabinet containing a display of beautiful silverware which he is offering as premiums to cash purchasers. You are invited to see these premiums and learn how they are given away. When Smith's Falls gets its new name those fortunate enough to be at the christening will learn whether it is to be pronounced Red-o, Reed-o, or Rye-dough. Smith's Falls really deserves something better in the way of a name than it now possesses. This morning Rev L. M. Weeks left for Peterborough to attend the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec. Mr Weeks is to move the adoption of the annual report of the Ministerial Supranational Board. The convention remains in session for one week.

Leading farmers in Wiltsetown are now asking for telephonic connections with Athens. A number of farmers to the north of this village are also asking for this service. It will probably be next spring before the extension can be made.

Miss Pauline Johnston, the famous Indian potter-entertainer, and Mr. J. Walter McRaye have just completed a successful tour of the British Isles and will give an entertainment here on Nov. 8, using their popular London, (Eng.) program. There will be service at 8 o'clock p.m. on Thanksgiving Day in the Church of England, and no service this week on Wednesday evening. Holy Communion will be celebrated next Sunday at 9 o'clock a.m. (D.V.) and evening prayer at 7 p.m. Last week Mr. M. H. Eyre purchased the handsome Mendelssohn piano shown by the makers at Toronto exhibition and brought to Athens by Mr. James Ross. It is beautiful in appearance, rich in tone, perfect in action—a triumph of Canadian genius. On the evening of Thanksgiving Day a meeting will be held in the Methodist church, to which the public will be welcomed. The services will be of an appropriate character. An address will be delivered by Miss Preston, a missionary home on furlough from Japan. Collection. The initial issue of the "Canadian Florist," the new illustrated monthly published by Montreal Witness, is at hand. It is a very attractive periodical of 24 large pages, and contains a wealth of admirably executed illustrations. The subscription price is $1 per year. The Bishop of Ontario will (D.V.) administer the rite of Confirmation on Wednesday, 24th inst. at 8 o'clock p.m. and is expected to consecrate a new communion rail, which it is hoped will be ready to be placed in the church at that occasion. The rite will also be administered at Trinity Church, Oak Leaf, at 3 o'clock. Last Thursday, a telegram from Yorkton, Sask., announced the death of Mrs. Richard Kerr of Greenbush, who had three weeks previously gone to that place on a visit to her son Harmon L. Her husband and other son reside at Greenbush, and she is also survived by two brothers, Gilbert and Norton Olds, and two sisters, Mrs. Thompson Blanchard and Mrs. Root, all of Greenbush. At the Branch meeting of the W.M.S. of the Montreal Conference recently held in the McLeod St. Methodist Church, Ottawa, a pleasing feature was the presenting of a life membership by the Brockville District to Mrs (Rev) W E Reynolds of Kemptville, Organizer of the Brockville District. The presentation was made by Mrs. Wm. Dixon of Rockport, who also read an address. J A Ruddick, Dominion dairy commissioner, estimates that by reason of the curtailed milk supply, caused by drought, the output of Canadian cheese will be considerably less this year than last, but enhanced prices will more than make up the difference to the producer. The high prices ruling at the close of the season will Mr. Ruddick believe, prove an incentive to greater activity next year in cheesemaking. Mr Thomas Pounder of East Boston, Mass., is this week the guest of Mr and Mrs James F. Gordon. Mr Pounder is completing a tour among his friends, which commenced at the time of the B.O.B.R., and leaves for Montreal on Monday; thence, after a few days' stay, for Boston. His sojourn in Leeds county has been a round of pleasure, and he leaves now with the acceptance of many invitations from old and new friends necessarily deferred to a future time. A vigorous crusade for local option is being conducted in Carleton County by Rev. Father McPhail and Holland of St. Anne's parish, Montreal, and the Rev. Mr. Raney, Methodist minister of Carp. Father Holland in addressing the voters stated that the people need not be afraid of being refused stabling for their horses if the hotels were closed as they were quite at liberty to put up their horses in the priest's barn, where they should find ample accommodation without pay, and be at the same time free from the temptation of the hotels.

Scrofula is very often acquired, though generally inherited. Bad hygiene, foul air, impure water, are among its causes. It is called "the soil for tubercles," and where it is allowed to remain tubercles or consumption is pretty sure to take root. Hood's Sarsaparilla Removes every trace of scrofula. Get Hood's. For testimonials of remarkable cures used for Scrofula, No. 1, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.
