STREET LOAFERS.

Ald. Martin Now Has a By-law Aimed at Them.

He Will Present it to the City Council To-night-What it Enacts.

Ald. Martin has had a new by-law prepared to prohibit street loafing and tobacco spitting.

"It covers the same ground as Ald. Cowan's by-lay," said Ald. Martin, "but is more explicit on certain points. That is all the difference." The by-law which will be presented to the council to night enacts as fol-

A by-law to make additional regula-tions for the order and good government of the city of Chatham —Passed.
Whereas it has been found necessary to make further provisions for the care and protection of the streets and sidewalks and to enact rules and regula-tions to facilitate travel thereon and for the maintenance of good order and the suppression of nuisances and of-fensive habits in or near the public Highways in the city.

Be it therefore enacted by the municipal council of the city of Chatham in council assembled:—

1. That persons shall not congregate and stand or sit in a crowd or group in any street of public driveway or walk in the said city so as to unnecessarily obstruct travel thereon or encumber the same; and a person shall not stand or sit near to three or more other persons standing or sitting or stand or sit in and asone of a group of four or more persons asone of a group of four or more persons standing or sitting, upon any sidewalk or other public walk or adjoining street or adjoining approach to a public church or office or shop or store of hotel or tavern or hallway or other public place in the said city in such a manner as to obstruct or interfere with or to cause to be obstructed or interfered with a free passage for foot passengers upon and along such side-or hotel or tavern or ballway or other public place adjoining the walk in the suid city and while so standing or sit-ting conduct himself or herself by using loud or boisterous or insulting or offensive laughter or language or

or offensive laughter or language or by making calls, coughs or remarks to or in the presence of persons pass-ing by or near upon such walks or by other offensive conduct so as to make it unpleasant and disagreeable for such persons using and cassing upon such persons using and passing upon such walk, or to deter or prevent them

2. That a person shall not throw, or spit tobacco or tobacco juice or obacco spit or orange, lemon, apple, or banana peeling or other similarly, offensive or dangerous matter or substance upon any plank, stone or grandithic mide with the standard plant plan That a person shall not throw, ut, or deposit, or leave, any glass, tin, put, or deposit, or leave, any glass, tin, wire, tacks, nails, barbs, broken metal crockery, ware, or other similar offensive or dangerous matter or substance in or on any street, sidewalk, pathway, or any avenue, boulevard, bridge, wharf, landing, or other means or place of public communication, or in or upon any avenue, boulevard, park, park lot, garden, or other vard, park, park lot, garden, or other public place set apart for ornament or-embellishment or recreation in the

That it shall be the duty of the 4. That it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police, and Policemen and all other police officers to see that all the provisions of this by-law are observed, kept, carried out and enforced, ind for that purpose to lay and proseate all necessary complaints and informations.

5. That in the event of the Chief of Police or Police Magistrate deeming it necessary or advisable in the interests of the city and the good government thereof, he may require and instruct the city solicitor to prepare and prosecute any such information or com-plaint hereunder and to defend any plaint hereunder and to detend any action or proceeding in consequence of a conviction hereunder; or to set aside such conviction, subject to the approval by resolution, of the council; and in such event the city shall indemnify and hold harmless the Chief of Police, Policewan, and Police Magistrate from liceman, and Police Magistrate from any damages, costs or expenses in relation thereto. The by-law also indemnifies the po lice in any cases arising out of its enforcement. The penalty on conviction, under the by-law, is a fine not exceeding $50 or six months' impris-

WELL OUT OF THE WAY.

At 6.15 Sunday morning an alarm of fire was sent in from Colborne street. The department made a quick turnout and found the conflagration was a building on the old Holden property, corner of Adelaide and Colborne streets. It only consisted of a few boards and when the department arrived, only the chimney, which happened to be built up from the ground, was standing. The building was once a cooper-shop, afterwards as ash house, but of late years has been unused. It is thought that some boys, playing around the place Saturday afternoon, had a fire in the place and the coals left had set fire to the building. The loss was only nominal. WELL OUT OF THE WAY.

TORONTO WESTERN HOSPITAL.

Invitations have been issued for the opening of the new Toronto Western Hospital, on the evening of December 15th. The appearance of the building, as shown on the lithographed invitation, shows a very large and imposing institution, surrounded by trees and walks that suggest an ideal home for the invalid. The necessity of such an institution is well-known to all who have given the matter attention, and the names of the Board of Governors is sufficient guarantee that the Toronto Western Hospital will be kept up to a high standard of efficiency.

They were met at Blenheim by a number from that place and Ridgetown, and altogether proceeded to the Eau on the local. At 12.30 a special also left for the Eau in charge of Conductor Marshall. On the special were: Supt. Woollatt, Chief Engineer Owen McKay, Mechanical Superintendent S. Austin, Roadmaster H. Morris, Trainmaster K. R. Cameron, Gen. Agent A. R. Patterson, Chatham; Agent W. H. Stephenson, Blenheim; Agent R. W. Young, Ridgetown and Travelling Agent L. E. Tilson, Chatham.

SHENANGO ARRIVES. The Shenango arrived about two The Shenango arrived about two o'clock, having made the trip from Conneaut, a distance of 76 miles in six hours and that, against a head wind of 28 miles an hour. This huge car ferry steamed through the channel and backed into the apron dock. Such was the excellence of the work and so nearly exact the measurements that two rails only needed to be adjusted about 2 inches before the cars were taken off. Great credit is due Owen McKay, chief engineer of the L. E. & D. R. R., since under his direction, the rails had been laid almost in the required position while the Shenango was, some hundred miles Shenango was, some hundred miles The cargo was at once removed. It consisted of 26 cars of coal, three un-screened, fifteen of lump and eight of slack. They were all consigned to the manufacturers in Chatham, Ridgethe manufacturers in Chatham, Ridge-town and Blenheim, After the laden cars had been taken off, twenty-three empties were run on and the party of guests were taken for a ride in the lake. It was an ideal day, and the trip was much enjoyed. Photos have been taken by Artist Gibson, Chat-lake. It was an ideal day, and the trip was much-enjoyed. Photos have been taken by Artist Gibson, Chatham. Several snapshots were also taken by excursionists.

The Shenango is 300 feet long and 54 wide, and has four tracks. She is in command of Capt. Robert McLeod and Chief Engineer Wood has charge of the machinery. There are yet fifteen trips ahead of the Shenango this fall as freight to that amount has already been secured. As soon as the Port Huron dock is completed it is expected that a hundred cars a day will be brought into the Eau, since by this route it is intended to open up aff extensive trade between Conneaut and Northern Michigan. It is the intention to keep this boat on these trips all winter, running semi-weekly trips. As soon, however, as the summer season opens, the trips the summer season opens, the trips will be made tri-weekly. Supt, Wool-latt and the other officials are exceedingly satisfied with the work and it is confidently expected that a new and profitable enterprise has been opened up.

THE PLOT.

The plot of the farce, "What Happened to Jones," which is to be presented at the Grand Opera House on Friday, Dec. 15th, is extremely simple and it does not require any tax upon the brain to follow its course. A kindly old professor of anatomy is persuaded reluctantly to attend a boxing contest in the interest of science. While there the place is raided by the police and the professor had to slide down a water spout to escape, and he returns ragged and bruised. To make matters worse he is accompanied home by one Jones, a drummer, who was at the conworse he is accompanied home by one Jones, a drummer, who was at the contest and who is trying to escape the police. The professor's house is surrounded and to avoid arrest Jones puts on a suit of clothes of the Bishop of Bullarat, the professor's brother, who is expected on his first visit to the family from Australia. The family enter and to explain the presence of Jones the professor is obliged to introduce him as his brother, the bishop. This leads to a score of complications This leads to a score of complications and in the midst of them the real bishop arrives. The fun rages fast and furious for two and one half hours and

A BOOM IN CELERY.

The Chatham contingent who went to the Eau were much surprised to see the extension of the celery raising in-dustry at the Eau. When the work dustry at the Eau. When the work of raising celery on the marsh lands at the Eau was undertaken, many considered it would be a failure. It has been far from it, however, and has proved an exceedingly profitable undertaking. Ed. Dunkley, the pioneer celery raiser, at the Eau, did well this year and has taken in six acres more, making 18 acres he now has broken. Henry Burke and Henry Coleman are starting a celery farm of 105 acres starting a celery farm of 105 acres just across from the Dunkley celery plantation. A. L. Bianett has also placed six acres on the end of his farm under cultivation for the purpose of raising this succulent root.
