* UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

There are times in a person's life when they feel enough is as good as a feast, but any enjoying the satisfying performance of Al. W. Martin's Uncle Tom's Cabin at the Grand Opera House, on Friday, May 9th, will gladly stand for all that is coming to him. When the average theatre-goer reads an announcement that Uncle Tom's Cabin will appear at such and such a theatre he is apt to note the same with a smile and some stage remarks regarding ancient history, resurrection, etc., yet in nine cases out of ten when the night arrives for the production of the play he will be found patiently waiting his turn at the box office, with a circus come to town expression on his face, his family in tow, or if not possessed of such a bless-ing, he has probably borrowed several babies for the occasion to lend dignity to his coming. He can't resist seeing the play again and again. He likes to feel his brain excited, his imagination fired by the incidents as depicted on the stage. Uncle Tom's Cabin, as a story, is old, yet ever new, having the same charm to enchain the attention of the charm to enchain the attention of the reader, and the same power of exciting the curiosity of the children as in the olden time, and will for ages to come occupy a niche in memory's pages, side by side with the never to be forgotten history of our story of the rebellion,

As a play Uncle Tom's Cabin has never been equalled by any any other dramatized story, in fidelity of detail, clearness of outline, and strict adherence to the story. In this day of dramatized novels turned out by hundreds on the strength of the sale of of books, few are successes, and it is a

Sometimes he was unable to walk ten steps; now he can ride any horse without any pain in his back and he looks as well and sould as a young boy. His age is only 28. He has suffered for nearly three years, and several other doctors called the case incurable, but I had confidence in Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I have been offered one hundred dollars several times already for my kind advice, but I would not accept it because I want everybody to know what Dr. Pierce's famous medicine can do. "This testimony is absolutely true, and the reason I haven't mentioned the young gentleman's name is because he don't want to have his name published."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." The sole motive for substitution is to enable the dealer to make the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

The Cash Ames Stereopticon views of the Boer and English war, to-gether with an animated picture ex-hibition, was presented in the Methodist church Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Sunday school, and was largely attended by not only local people, but by people from a dis-tance. The views of the war were particularly pleasing and interesting, while the animated pictures which were of a humorous nature, drew forth much laughter and applause. As a whole the entertainment was very good and pleased the large and enthusiastic audience.
