The Search For Success. This is my advice to young men seek ing for success: Fix your eye on Eugland, fix it on Alaska, fix it on the moon, collect beetles, desire tram tickets, demand lost boot laces, die for dead cats—do any of these things and you may have your will. But do not fix your dreams upon success, for the bones of those dreamers are wrecks along the shore.-G. K. Chesterton in

SNIFFELING AND SNEEZING COLDS

London News.

Can be stopped in a few minutes and permanently cured in one hour by inhaling fragrant, healing Catarrhozone. No remedy compares with Catarrhozone for cold in the head and nasal catarrh. It soothes and heals the inflamed majous membranes, prevents aneging and coughand heals the inflamed mucous membranes, prevents sneezing and coughing, clears away the "stuffed up" feeling in the forehead. If you have not used Catarrhozone get it to-day and try it on your next cold. You'll be surprised at the efficiency of the delightful inhaler treatment which pleases everyone because it cures so quickly. Complete outfit §1.00; trial size 25c.

Stage Makeups.
Actresses are compelled to paint their faces before they go on the stage or the lights would give them the appearance of ghosts.

All Wrong.

It would be impossible to outdo ungrammatically this line which an English paper quotes from a song—author unknown—every word of the sentence seing wrong, "Them sheeps is yourn."

THE MAN WHO WORKS HARD. Perseverance and will-power he nust have, but whether he has vigor and strength is another consideration. Hard working men usually have irritable nerves and should fortify their systems with a course of fer-rozone, a tonic that rebuilds and revitalizes beyond all telling. It's just wonderful the strength that Ferrozone imparts to broken-down men. It forms new blood, supplies the system with abundant nourishment, and where formerly there was tiredness and least the Ferrozone. and lassitude Ferrozone establishes a reserve of energy and vim. Try Fer-rozone,—price 50c. per box.

Chafing Dish Sardines. Sardines in a chafing dish are casy to cook and very good. Pour hot water quickly over the sardines to rid them of oil and to loosen the skin. Remove skin, head and tail. Place the sardines on sippets of buttered toast, season rather highly and heat in the chaing dish. Just before serving squeeze lemon juice over the fish.

THE VERDICT OF PUBLIC OPINION

Is with the best article every time. That's why Putmam's Corn Extractor has been in the lead for the last half century. It cures corns painlessly in twenty-four hours and never fails. Use only Putnam's for corns and warts.

Ancient Carpenters.

The carpenters of the middle ages must have been very expert, for not otherwise could they have erected the enormous timber works necessary in the building of the great cathedrals of that day, but they have left no records performed.

RACKING PAIN IN THE JOINTS. RACKING PAIN IN THE JOINTS, Also every form of rheumatism, neuralgia and sciatica are best cured by Nerviline, the quickest relief for muscular pain yet discovered. It's because Nerviline strikes in and penetrates right to the core of the pain that it gives such unbounded satisfaction. "I caught cold in my shoulders while driving and suffered great pain," writes G. E. Dempsay, of Berlin. I used Nerviline freely and was soon quite well. I have found Nerviline an excellent remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia as well as for cold on the chest. I recommend Nervilire highly and wouldn't be without it." Price 25c.

He who is always borrowing trouble has no storage room for happiness when it does come.

CASTE IN INDIA.

Its Peculiarities Illustrated by the Beligion of the Sweeper, Among the yet unsolved problems of Indian ethnology is the religion of the sweeper caste. It seems clear enough through all the confusion that the supreme deity of the Chuhras is Lalijura, or Lalberg, "a god without form or dwelling place."

A mound of earth, surmounted by a piece of stick and a bit of cloth for a flag, is this deity's shrine, and to it "poojah" is made and a little sacrifice offered of ghee, or grain. It needs no consecration, this simple shrine, and wherever the sweeper may be, if sick-ness comes or a gift is desired, the little shrine may be set up, with its queer bit of rag and stick, and the worshiper's prayer is made.

The sweeper will have nothing to de with the transmigration of souls. Once sweeper always a sweeper, and even the ideal sweeper, Pir Jhota, with his broom of gold and basket of silver, "cleans new the fourth heaven, the house of God, and sweeps the apart-ments of the highest." The good sweeper goes to heaven, however, after death, but in the heaven of a sweeper there is nothing to do but bathe and sit

The bad sweeper, on the other hand, goes to hell, where he is tormented by fire and wounds till the deity is pleased vouchsafe relief. Between these two extremes is a kind of purgatory, where the sweeper who is not good enough for the one place and not bad enough for the other undergoes a sort of probation which either kills or cures him

Of Balmik, the great leader of one sect of sweepers and now himself, like Pir Jhota, a sweeper in the courts of heaven, the accounts differ so widely that it is difficult to identify him. It seems clear, however, that with the profession of sweeper he combined the recreation of poetry, and there is some amount of evidence in favor of his having been the author of the "Ramu-

He is alternately represented as a low caste hunter of the Karnal Nardak and as a Bhil highwayman who was converted by a saint whom he was about to rob. There is a legend, too, that he laid down his life for the sweepers of Benares and induced the people of that city to admit sweepers into their presence, as they had never done before.

As for Lalberg, the other great lead-er, he takes us back at once to the days of Homeric myth. He was born from the coat of Balmik and suckled by a hare, in proof whereof Chuhras to this day abstain from eating hares. On the other hand, Lelberg was also born of a pitcher, through the power of Abdul Kader Kilani, and when the Prophet Elias was turned into a sweeper for spitting on the saints in heaven it was Lalberg who relieved

Wise Beyond Her Years He was a curly headed boy with life before him. She was a little girl with a saucy pug nose, but wise, it would seem, beyond her years. The fact that she was nursing a doll with eyes that opened and shut with a click may have been his inspiration. "Say, sister, I think I'd get married

if I knew how." "Oh, that's easy," replied the ewner of the pug nose. "First you buy a dis-mond ring and give it to her, then you buy a gold ring like mamma's got and give that to her. And then you must buy her a watch for her birthday." "An' what she give me?" expectantly asked the little chap.

"Why, nuthin', of course," smartly replied his little companion.

"Say, sister," he added, "I guess I won't marry."

Among the Sioux Indians a common custom exists. When one family borrows a kettle from another, it is expected when the kettle is returned a small portion of the food that has been cooked in it will be left in the bottom. Should this custom be disregarded by any one, that person would never be able to borrow again, as the owner must always know what has been cook-ed in her kettle. A white woman on one occasion returned a scoured kettle, intending to teach a lesson in cleanliness, but her act became the talk of the camp as a fresh example of the meanness of the whites.

A Piece For His Dog.

Rossini lived before the day of special pleas for the dog, but he was sufficiently in advance of his time to recognize the equality if not the superiority of his own favorite beast. The Gentleman's Magazine says that the late Sir Arthur Sullivan made Rossini's acquaintance in Paris. One morning, when Sullivan called to see him, he found the composer trying over a piece of music.

"What is that?" asked Sullivan.
"It's my dog's birthday." Rossini re-plied gravely, "and I write a little piece for him every year."

Customer—I think this is what my daughter told me to get. You guarantee it to be one of the popular songs of the day? Muste Dealer—Yes, *sir; but, of course, I can't guarantee its popularity among your neighbors after your daughter has learned to sing it.

He Gets There.

Pecksniff—When the evil one starts out to tempt me I always say, "Get thee behind me, Satan!" and he gets there. Wiseman—Yes, when Satanstarts out to tempt you he usually does "get there," doesn't he?

BAD STOMACHS

Tone up the Stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Neither Heat nor Work will bother syou. The warm summer days give on a desirclination to eat, more especially those who are unable to escape to the mountain or seaside. That's what causes that languid, lazy feeling—that disinclination to do anything except yawn.

Do you know that it's your stomach that's to blame. Watch the man who can eat a good hearty meal how much better he can stand the heat and do a day's work as well.

Your stomach meeds toning up and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the greatest stomach tonic ever known. They cure all stomach ills. Isaac Jenkins, 116 Dundas street, Toronto.

says:
"I had been troubled for one "I had been troubled for one year with Sour Stomach and Heartburn and could eat no rich food. I was told Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets would cure me and had only to use half a box when I was cured."

The camphor tree of China and Ja pan is a large evergreen, not unlike linden, with a white flower and red The gum is taken from chips out of the root or base, which yield 5 per cent or more of it. The Japanese government owns large forests of can phor trees, able to keep up the average supply of the gum for twenty-five years, and the young plantations are growing up. These are under the Japanese forestry department.

HIS LAST HOPE REALIZED.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

(From the Sentined, Gebe, Mont.)
In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and atong in June the case became so had he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera bottle of Chamberlain's Colic. Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle was taking his grant and he tle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item.
