

GLORIOUS CHANCE FOR PLEASURE!

Don't Forget the Grand OCEAN PICNIC! Tuesday, July 3d. Per Steamers

"Hiawatha" & "Acadia."

This will probably be the only excursion on the beautiful Minas Basin from this section of the Valley this season, as the steamers have been engaged by Hants County parties till late in the summer.

Remember Tuesday July 3d. Str. "Acadia" will leave Wolfville at 7:30, a. m. (local time), and go direct to Parrsboro Pier and Partridge Island.

Kentville Full Brass Band will accompany the "Hiawatha," in the morning and return with the "Acadia" in the evening, furnishing music on shore during the day.

Beautiful scenery, good company, good hotels, driving, bathing; attentive managers. No liquor allowed; no overcrowding.

15c. 15c. for Eggs at Pratt's.

MORE TREES—The authorities of the Baptist church have placed a row of ornamental trees in front of that edifice.

ANOTHER SMALL EGG.—Mr Wm Follet writes us from Canning that he can beat our item on eggs, he having got one a short time ago that was only three-fourths and a sixteenth of an inch in length.

PLUMS.—Mr Benjamin Besant has in his garden at Port Williams a plum-tree of the "Moore's Arctic" variety which was grafted last spring and now has half-grown plums on the scions which are only grown about eight inches.

HOLIDAY.—Mr Lewis Rice wishes us to announce that on account of Dominion Day being celebrated on Monday next his photograph rooms in Wolfville will not be open till Tuesday, July 3d, when he will be prepared to receive customers.

WORMS! WORMS!!—A big stock of London Purple at B. G. Bishop's.

COLLEGE HALL.—The work of enlarging Assembly Hall has been begun. The foundation is being prepared and the work will be finished in time for the Jubilee. Messrs Rhodes & Curry are the contractors, and about $1200 is to be the cost.

Buy your Fishing Tackle at Pratt's.

BASEBALL.—The Wolfville Baseball Club are trying to make arrangements for a match with a Parrsboro team in the near future. If satisfactory arrangements can be made the match will probably take place at the time of the next steambath excursion to that place.

A lot of Hay Bakes Forks & Co at cost at B. G. Bishop's.

CENTRAL ASSOCIATION.—The session of the Central Baptist Association closed on Sunday evening. The meeting throughout was of a very interesting nature. A full report of the proceedings came to hand too late for this issue, but will appear next week.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Baddeck, C. B. Island Reporter has been again enlarged and is now an eight-column weekly. Long may it wave.—The Springhill Leader is the name of the new paper recently started in that place. It is well filled and makes good promise for the future. We wish it success.

A big stock of Stone Butter Crockets at B. G. Bishop's.

HONORS.—We notice in a copy of the New York Times, handed us by a friend, that the degree of Master of Arts has been conferred on Austen Kennedy deBlois of Wolfville, by Brown University. We understand that Mr deBlois is Acadia's youngest graduate on whom the degree has ever been conferred.

B. G. Bishop sells mixed paints at $1.40 per gallon, the best in the market and in all shades.

PULPITS.—The Baptist pulpit, was occupied on Sunday morning by Rev. Walter Bars, and in the evening by Rev. J. W. Brown and in the evening by Rev. S. T. Reid. The Presbyterian pulpit was occupied by Rev. Dr. McKnight. Next Sabbath Rev. J. B. Hemmison is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church.—Rev. Walter Bars, M. A., is expected to preach in College Hall on Sunday morning next.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SERVICES.—During the months of July, August and September, the services in St. John's Church will be taken by the Rev. Canon Brock, D. D., President of King's College, Windsor. Service will be held every Sunday at eleven in the morning, and at half past seven in the evening. The Holy Communion will be celebrated on the second and fourth Sundays in the above months at the 11 o'clock service. Members of St. John's Church are requested to preserve this notice of the summer services in Wolfville for future reference. Canon Brock will commence his duties in Wolfville on Sunday, July 8th.

MARRIED.—GOLDWELL—SLOCUM.—At Manchester, N. H., June 17th, by Rev. C. W. Taylor, Ernest N. Goldwell, of Gasperon, and Clara E. Slocum, of Burlington, Vt.

FARRIS—STEDMAN.—At Wolfville, June 25th, by Rev. T. A. Higgins, James Farris and Rebecca Stedman.

REID—ROBINSON.—At Billtown, June 20th, by Rev. F. H. Beales, Ernest W. Reid, of Billtown, and Mary Robinson, of Steam Mill Village.

DIED.—At Wolfville, after a short illness, Elizabeth Chambers, relict of the late James Chambers of Newport, in the 63d year of her age.

B. G. BISHOP ON BUYING.

To buy or not to buy: That is the question. Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous dealers, or take arms against this sea of troubles and by opposing give bargains. To buy: To make purchase, and by that purchase we end the heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished. To buy: To purchase: Perchance to be galled. Ay! there's the rub; For in that purchase I can give value in stock,
